TIMOTHY J. ROBBIE

President, Miami Dolphins
Chairman of the Board, JRS

College: Tulane
NFL: Seventh Season
Dolphins: Seventh Season
Born: August 24, 1955

Tim Robbie, a veteran of 15 years of professional sports administration, was named President of the Miami Dolphins on January 12, 1990, and shortly thereafter was also selected as Chairman of the Board of Joe Robbie Stadium. Before assuming these roles, he had served three years (1987-89) as the club's Vice President for Public Affairs.

During the first few months in these new positions, Robbie, along with sister Janet and brother Dan, quickly established their leadership abilities by signing Don Shula and John Offerdahl to new contracts and by spearheading a partial sale of the team and Joe Robbie Stadium in order to pave the way for Major League Baseball's emergence on the South Florida sports scene. Since then, Tim, Dan, and Janet have worked tirelessly to help improve the Dolphins by such key behind-the-scene decisions as their signing of Dan Marino, Bryan Cox, and Irving Fryar to long-term contracts, their acquisition of free agents Keith Jackson, Mark Ingram and Ron Heller, and their successful effort to finalize the construction of a state-of-the-art training facility at Nova University in Davie. On the stadium side, they supervised the conversion of Joe Robbie Stadium into a modern baseball facility, which proved to be a key factor in the decision to award South Florida a National League expansion franchise, the Florida Marlins. In addition, they have attracted a number of major events to JRS, including Super Bowl XXIX, college football bowl games, and well-known concert attractions. They also have purchased land adjacent to the stadium in order to upgrade parking facilities for JRS patrons.

Prior to joining the Dolphins in 1987, Robbie was involved in professional soccer in a number of different capacities. His soccer roots extend back to the Ft. Lauderdale Strikers' membership in the North American Soccer League, when Robbie first joined that club as Director of Public Relations in 1978. He was named the team's General Manager in 1980, becoming the youngest GM in the NASL. During his tenure with the Strikers, the club was one of the model franchises in the league, advancing to the Soccer Bowl championship game in 1980. With the imminent demise of the NASL, Robbie orchestrated the Strikers' move to Minnesota in 1983 and their entrance into the Major Indoor Soccer League the following season while serving as the club's GM and Executive Vice President through 1988.

Apart from his responsibilities with the Dolphins, Robbie has become extremely active in the South Florida community, with an involvement in a variety of charitable activities and fund-raisers. He was honored as the 1991-92 "Man of the Year" by the Big Brothers and Big Sisters of Greater Miami, and he also shared the 1991 "Businessman of the Year" award from the North Miami Chamber of Commerce with Florida Marlins owner H. Wayne Huizenga. Robbie also serves on several National Football League committees, including NFL Charities, the Bert Bell Retirement Board and the NFL Employee Benefit Committee.

Robbie, 38, is a 1977 graduate (English) of Tulane University. He and his wife Ann reside in Coral Gables with their son Derek Franklin (12/18/92).

DON SHULA

Head Coach

College: John Carroll

NFL: 31st Season

Dolphins: 24th Season

Born: January 4, 1930

"Don Shula can take his'n and beat you'n, and he could take you'n and beat his'n."

– "BUM" PHILLIPS

For almost three decades, Don Shula has taken "his'n" and amassed over 300 victories during a coaching career unparalleled in National Football League annals. And he is fast approaching one of the most significant records in the history of the NFL, George Halas' all-time total of 324 career victories, a mark once thought to be unreachable. But while others may look back at his unprecedented accomplishments in the sport, Shula is always looking ahead, constantly working to build the Dolphins once again into winners, an effort that resulted in an 11-5 record last year, the AFC Eastern Division title, and an appearance in the AFC Championship Game. The Dolphins have earned playoff berths in two of the last three years, but the team's turnaround is just the latest of Shula's many achievements, and his refusal to rest on his laurels is an important reason why he has been one of the most successful coaches ever in the NFL.

"My goals are the same every year – to win the Super Bowl," said Shula, "and we will do everything we can to do just that. We worked hard to get to the AFC Championship Game, but we fell one game short of playing in the Super Bowl. I want to make it back to that game and then win it, and we are making strides in that direction."

But there is more to Shula than just his victories, as impressive as that total might be. While he has gained widespread respect for his success, beyond that he has earned universal admiration for his integrity, an intangible that can't be measured by a won-loss record. Without question, Don Shula has made an impression in football, both on and off the field, that may never be duplicated.

"If I'm remembered for anything as a coach," said Shula, "I hope it's for playing within the rules. I also hope it will be said that my teams showed class and dignity in victory or defeat."

And Shula's teams are an extension of that philosophy. It's no coincidence that the Dolphins have been the least penalized team in the NFL during his seasons in Miami. In fact, the Dolphins led the AFC seven times since 1982 (1982-86, 1990, 1991) in the fewest yards penalized, and were among the top three teams in that category overall in the NFL nine times in that span, including six times (1982-84, 1986, 1990-91) as the league leaders. Shula represents everything that's right about his profession, and certainly his coaching accomplishments will almost be impossible to match. Beginning his 31st year as an NFL head coach and his 24th season with the Dolphins, he is travelling down a road whose final destination will be Canton, Ohio, and the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Some of the stops along that journey have established yardsticks for victories and championships virtually unmatched in NFL history:

- Shula is pro football's winningest active coach with a 318-151-6 overall mark (.676 winning percentage)

- Shula is second only to the immortal George Halas (324) on the all-time NFL coaching win list, and on September 22, 1991 in a 16-13 win over the Green Bay Packers he became only the second coach in the history of the NFL to record 300 career wins
- On December 27, 1992 in a 16-13 win over the Patriots, Shula became the second coach in NFL history to register 300 regular season wins, reaching that total in his 30th season as a head coach
- Shula is the only coach to guide a team through an undefeated season (17-0 in 1972)
- Shula has appeared in more Super Bowls (six) than any coach
- Shula is one of only two coaches (along with Buffalo's Marv Levy) to reach the Super Bowl three straight seasons (1971-73)
- Since 1970, Shula has led the Dolphins to the best regular season winning percentage (.669) of any team in professional sports.
- Shula and Halas are the only coaches in NFL history to make playoff appearances in four different decades
- Shula is the youngest coach to win 100 games
- Shula is the youngest coach to win 200 games
- Shula is the youngest coach to win 300 games
- Shula's career winning percentage (.676) is the best among the NFL's all-time top-10 coaches
- Since joining the Dolphins in 1970, Shula has a 60-17 (.779) record against the NFC, including a 33-4 record at home (23-4 in the Orange Bowl and 10-0 at Joe Robbie Stadium). That also is the best inter-conference record by any NFL team since the 1970 merger
- Shula is the only coach to present two players for induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in the same year (Larry Csonka and Jim Langer, 1987), and has made four overall presentations (Bob Griese, 1990, Larry Little, 1993).

Shula has become to coaching what his unbeaten 1972 Miami Dolphins are to team accomplishment: the standard of excellence by which all others are measured. He was voted Coach of the Decade for the 1970s by the Pro Football Hall of Fame's 25-member selection committee, and his Dolphins reached the playoffs five more times in the 1980s.

His "ultimate" achievement was the NFL's only unbeaten, untied record of 17-0 in 1972 in only the third season of Shula's transformation of the Dolphins from a struggling American Football League franchise to an NFL power. His incredible two-year record of 32-2, including Super Bowl conquests in 1972 and 1973, probably never will be surpassed.

Maybe because Shula never regarded an unbeaten season as impossible, the feat became a reality.

With teams in Baltimore and Miami, Shula has built six unbeaten streaks of 10 or more games, and no other coach has more than two 10-game streaks. His .661 winning mark in 23 seasons in Miami (245-125-2) parallels his .728 percent success in Baltimore (73-26-4) from 1963 to 1969.

The Dolphins have either won or shared first place in the AFC East 14 times in the 23 years under Shula, and have reached the playoffs 14 times. His Dolphins were almost invincible at the Orange Bowl with an 111-26-1 record (.808), including an NFL-record 31-game winning streak at home from 1971 to 1974. A remarkable 20 times in 30 seasons, Shula's teams have won at least 10 games.

Shula, 63, has made a mark on the game as an innovator of defensive complexities and situational substitutions (including the use of the "no-huddle" offense as far back as 1984, culminating with Super Bowl XIX that season), and he has a reputation as a great motivator. Certainly, other coaches can develop brilliant strategy and exhort their players to perform at peak. But Shula seems to surpass others in his skill as a teacher.

"The important thing is not what Don Shula knows or what any of my assistant coaches know," Shula says. "The important thing is what we can transmit to the people we're responsible for. They're going to be tested on Sunday afternoon, and the fact that we win on Sunday afternoon indicates that we're getting through to them. That's what coaching is – the ability to transmit information."

Twice with the Dolphins, in 1970 and 1977, Shula has deployed five rookies in the starting defense and won 10 of 14 games each season. And for those exigencies brought on by injuries to his starting quarterback, Shula has more solutions. Backup quarterbacks for the Dolphins have a 27-7-1 record under Shula since 1970.

He cultivates a winning attitude in preseason success which reads 101-45-4 (.687), including 32-4-1 at Baltimore and 69-41-3 at Miami.

He had been the youngest head coach, 33, in NFL history when the Colts picked him in 1963 after Shula's three years as defensive coordinator of the Detroit Lions. In the old NFL, the Colts reached the title game in 1964 and 1968 after 12-2 and 13-1 campaigns, and the 1967 Colts posted an 11-1-2 record. Those three powerhouse teams averaged almost 30 points per game offensively.

Shula's resourcefulness is best documented in 1965 when injuries sidelined Colt quarterbacks John Unitas and Gary Cuozzo, and halfback Tom Matte wore the "playbook" on his wristband and directed a 20-17 upset at Los Angeles.

Shula transformed a 3-10-1 Dolphin team into a playoff qualifier his first season in Miami and laid the foundation for a perennial contender. In 1971, the Dolphins won their first of four consecutive AFC East titles, and on Christmas Day in Kansas City, the NFL's longest game (82 minutes, 40 seconds) ended with Garo Yepremian's winning 37-yard field goal in the second overtime. A week later, the Dolphins stymied the Unitas-led Colts 21-0 on the same Orange Bowl field where Baltimore had won Super Bowl V the previous January.

Dethroning the Colts launched the Dolphins to three consecutive AFC championships – a feat unequalled in either conference since the 1970 merger until the Bills won their third straight AFC title last year. But a disappointing 24-3 loss to the Dallas Cowboys in Super Bowl VI filled Shula and his players with greater drive, and in 1972 the Dolphins attracted headlines as the "Greatest Team Ever."

Shula had claimed 38-year-old Earl Morrall from the waiver list in April of 1972, recalling Morrall's leadership of the 1968 Colts. When quarterback Bob Griese suffered a broken ankle in the fifth game, Morrall took charge for 11 straight victories. The Dolphins rewrote the NFL rushing record (2,960 yards), and with a regular-season record of 105-30-5, Shula became the first NFL coach to win 100 games in his first decade. Later in his career, he was to accomplish the even more impressive feat of winning 200 games in his first 20 seasons as an NFL boss, and in 1991 he became only the second coach in NFL history (along with George Halas) to win 300 games, reaching that total in his 29th season.

Surprisingly, the unbeaten Dolphins were three-point underdogs to the Washington Redskins in Super Bowl VII. Shula elected to go with a healthy Griese, and the Dolphins dominated the Redskins 14-7 for the coach's first NFL crown.

No less impressive were the 1973 Dolphins, losing only twice in 17 games. The Dolphins set a modern NFL record by allowing only 1,290 yards passing and only five touchdown passes, and they overwhelmed three playoff opponents, 85-33, including a 24-7 rout of the Minnesota Vikings in Super Bowl VIII.

Another three-game surge in the playoffs, this time a 76-26 blitz, earned the AFC Championship in the strike-shortened 1982 season and landed the Dolphins in Super Bowl XVII. Miami held a four-point lead in the fourth quarter before Washington broke a long touchdown run that sparked a 27-17 Redskin victory.

Shula led the Dolphins to yet another Super Bowl, his fifth with Miami and his sixth overall, following the 1984 season when the Dolphins went 14-2, but they fell to San Francisco 38-16 in Super Bowl XIX.

Donald Francis Shula was born January 4, 1930, in Grand River, Ohio, and was raised in Painesville, Ohio. He was a running back at John Carroll University in Cleveland, and in 1950 he gained 125 yards when the Blue Streaks upset Syracuse, 21-15.

Shula was the lone rookie on coach Paul Brown's defending NFL champion Cleveland Browns in 1951 (until Shula's college teammate Carl Taseff joined the Browns at mid-season). Shula and Taseff were involved in the largest trade in modern NFL history, a 15-player deal with Baltimore in 1953, and Shula played four seasons with the Colts (1953-56) and one season at Washington (1957) at right cornerback. He had 21 career interceptions for 247 yards in seven seasons.

Shula entered the coaching ranks with an assistant's job at Virginia (1958) and Kentucky (1959), and he joined the NFL's Detroit Lions in 1960 under coach George Wilson – a man he later replaced in Miami. The Lions posted a 26-13-1 record with Shula as the defensive coordinator.

In 1963, Shula succeeded Weeb Ewbank as head coach at Baltimore, and in the 30 seasons which have followed he has reached the NFL's championship game seven times with two victories.

Today, he takes an active role in NFL leadership, serving since 1975 on the select NFL Competition Committee which evaluates and recommends changes in playing rules as well as regulations designed to improve the safety of playing conditions.

Shula has given considerable time, plus financial and emotional support, to several area charities. The Don Shula Foundation, formed primarily to assist breast cancer research, was established as a tribute to his late wife, Dorothy. As part of his Foundation activities, he organized the Shula Celebrity Classic, an annual event that raises thousands of dollars for that research. The Don Shula Scholarship was created in 1978 and has awarded scholarships to needy scholar-athletes at several Florida colleges. He also funds scholarships in the sports administration program at St. Thomas University, the former location of the Dolphins' training complex. Shula also has been active in the American Cancer Society, March of Dimes, American Red Cross, United Way (currently serving as the Dolphins' spokesman for that charity's national fund-raising efforts) and Catholic Charities.

A member of the Class of 1951 at John Carroll, Shula helps to sponsor an academic chair of studies in his name at his alma mater. The chair, funded at $1 million through major private gifts added to Shula's own commitment, is in the University's Department of Philosophy.

Shula has drawn rave reviews for his work for three years as a studio analyst during the AFC playoffs for NBC's NFL Live. He also has provided color commentary on the Super Bowl in 1987, 1988, and 1990 for British TV, and he was a member of the NBC broadcast team for Super Bowl XXIII in 1989. On Jan. 17, 1987, Shula and his Dolphin staff (including son David, the team's assistant head coach) coached the winning South squad in the Senior Bowl in Mobile, Ala. One of his quarterbacks in that game was son Mike, then a QB from the University of Alabama.

Shula especially values his family life and his Catholic faith. He was married to the former Dorothy Bartish for over 32 years before she passed away in 1991, and she was as visible as her husband in the South Florida community by her involvement in so many civic and charitable activities. They raised five children – two boys and three girls.

Oldest son David, 34, and his wife Leslie have three sons, Danny, Christopher and Matthew. David joined the Dolphin coaching staff late in the 1982 season, and in 1989 was named assistant head coach for the Dallas Cowboys. He spent two years in Dallas before joining the Cincinnati Bengals as receivers coach prior to the 1991 season and in 1992 was named as the Bengals' head coach. He starred collegiately at Dartmouth, where he set all of the pass receiving records for the Big Green. After earning his degree in history, David played for a season with the Baltimore Colts.

Mike, 28, a former all-state quarterback at Columbus High School in Miami, enjoyed an outstanding career as signal caller for the Crimson Tide of Alabama. Mike, who graduated with a degree in labor management, went to play one season with the Tampa Bay Bucs and spent three years on that team's coaching staff, including quarterback coach in 1990 before joining the Dolphins as a coaches assistant in 1991. He was named as tight ends coach of the Bears prior to the 1993 season.

The Shula's oldest daughter, Donna, has two children, Alex and Lindsey. Another daughter, Sharon, graduated from the University of Miami and Florida State's College of Law. Youngest daughter, Annie, graduated from St. Thomas University and is a teacher at Sabal Palm Elementary School in North Miami Beach.

CURRENT NFL HEAD COACHES IN 1963

Don Shula has been a head coach in the National Football League since 1963 when he was named as head coach of the Baltimore Colts. In 1963, one of the NFL's 28 current head coaches was four years old and yet to enter school (Cincinnati's David Shula), one was in second grade (Pittsburgh's Bill Cowher), one was in fifth grade (Chicago's Dave Wannstedt), one was in sixth grade (Cleveland's Bill Belichick) and five were in high school (N.Y. Jets' Bruce Coslet, Minnesota's Dennis Green, Green Bay's Mike Holmgren, Denver's Wade Phillips and the L.A. Raiders' Art Shell). Below is a chart of the NFL's current head coaches in 1963.

Bill Belichick (Browns) – Sixth grader at Phillips Academy in Andover, MA
Joe Bugel (Cardinals) – Senior guard at Western Kentucky Univ.
Bruce Coslet (Jets) – High school sophomore at Joint H.S. in Oakdale, CA
Bill Cowher (Steelers) – Second grader at Orange Wood School in Beechwood, PA
Tom Flores (Seahawks) – Quarterback with the AFL's Oakland Raiders
Wayne Fontes (Lions) – Defensive back with AFL's New York Jets
Jerry Glanville (Falcons) – Senior linebacker at Northern Michigan Univ.
Dennis Green (Vikings) – High school freshman at John Harris H.S. in Harrisburg, PA
Mike Holmgren (Packers) – High school sophomore at Lincoln H.S. in San Francisco, CA
Jimmy Johnson (Cowboys) – Junior defensive lineman at Univ. of Arkansas
Chuck Knox (Rams) – Assistant coach with the AFL's N.Y. Jets
Rich Kotite (Eagles) – Freshman boxer at the Univ. of Miami
Marv Levy (Bills) – Head Coach at Univ. of California
Bill Parcells (Patriots) – Senior linebacker at Wichita State
Richie Petitbon (Redskins) – Defensive back with NFL's Chicago Bears
Wade Phillips (Broncos) – High school junior at Portes Neches-Groves High School in Orange, TX
Ted Marchibroda (Colts) – Assistant coach with the NFL's Washington Redskins
Jim Mora (Saints) – Assistant coach at Occidental College
Jack Pardee (Oilers) – Linebacker with the NFL's L.A. Rams
Dan Reeves (Giants) – Junior quarterback at Univ. of South Carolina
Bobby Ross (Chargers) – Head coach at Colonial Heights H.S. in Colonial Heights, VA
Marty Schottenheimer (Chiefs) – Junior linebacker at Univ. of Pittsburgh
George Seifert (49ers) – Serving six month tour of duty with the U.S. Army
Art Shell (Raiders) – High school sophomore at Bonds-Wilson H.S. in North Charleston, SC
David Shula (Bengals) – Four years old and living in Baltimore, MD
Dave Wannstedt (Bears) – Fifth grader and living in Pittsburgh, PA

SHULA IS COACH TO COACHES

Over the course of Don Shula's 30 years as a head coach in the National Football League, nine of his assistant coaches have gone on to earn opportunities as NFL head coaches.

SHULA IS COACH TO HALL OF FAMERS

With this year's induction of offensive guard Larry Little into the Pro Football Hall of Fame, Miami Dolphins Head Coach Don Shula now has 12 of his former players enshrined in the Hall. In the Hall are five Dolphin players (Larry Csonka, Bob Griese, Jim Langer, Little and Paul Warfield) and seven Colt players (Raymond Berry, Ted Hendricks, tight end John Mackey, Gino Marchetti, Lenny Moore, Jim Parker and Johnny Unitas) who played under Shula. Shula's total of 12 Hall of Fame enshrinees is the most by any active NFL head coach. The L.A. Rams' Chuck Knox and Seattle's Tom Flores are second among active coaches with three former players enshrined in Canton, Ohio.

In addition, Shula is the only coach to present two players for induction into the Hall in the same year (Larry Csonka and Jim Langer, 1987), and has made four overall presentations (Bob Griese, 1990, and Larry Little (1993).

SHULA'S MILESTONES

Don Shula, the NFL's winningest active coach, surpassed the 300-win plateau as a head coach in the National Football League. Shula comes into the 1993 season with a career record of 318-151-6 (.676) and in 1991 joined George Halas (325 wins) as the only NFL coaches with 300 or more career wins. Shula accomplished his milestone 300th career win with a 16-13 triumph over the Green Bay Packers on September 22, 1991. Shula won the 300th regular-season game of his coaching career with a 16-13 overtime win at New England on December 27, 1992.

Shula added another historic career milestone in Miami's 30-7 win over the Buffalo Bills on September 16, 1990, as he recorded his 200th regular season victory since joining the Dolphins in 1970. Shula joins Hall of Fame coaches Curley Lambeau (Green Bay), George Halas (Chicago) and Tom Landry (Dallas) as the only NFL coaches to earn 200 or more regular season wins with one NFL club.

SHULA BY THE DECADE

Don Shula, the NFL's winningest active coach, is the only coach to rank among the top five winningest coaches (based on regular season winning percentage) in each of the past four decades (including the 1990s). To qualify for the chart, coaches must have coached in a minimum of fifty regular games per decade or each of the three seasons of the 1990s.

ADMINISTRATIVE STAFF

DANIEL T. ROBBIE

Executive Vice President,
Miami Dolphins
President, JRS

College: St. Thomas
NFL: Ninth Season
Dolphins: Ninth Season
Born: August 31, 1961

Dan Robbie was named as Executive Vice President of the Dolphins on January 12, 1990, and as President of Joe Robbie Stadium later that year, after previously serving as director of Sales and Promotions for the club and the stadium. In his current capacity, Robbie has become more involved in the day-to-day operation of the Dolphins while continuing to oversee sales, marketing, and ticket office activities of both the team and the stadium, including the sale of club seats and executive suites.

The 32-year-old Robbie, now in his ninth season with the club, began working in stadium sales for the Dolphins in June of 1985 after spending two years with the Minnesota Strikers soccer team, where he was the ticket manager.

Robbie has supervised the Dolphins' annual awards banquet each of the past seven years. He is an Associate Director of the North Dade Chamber of Commerce and was honored by the chamber for his involvement in their activities. He also serves on the advisory board of Memorial Hospital in Hollywood.

Robbie, who was appointed to the executive council of the South Florida Boy Scouts in 1988 and served as the scout show chairman each of the last four years, attended both the University of South Florida and St. Thomas University. An avid soccer fan and player, Dan and his wife Rhonda and daughter Erica reside in North Miami.

JANET L. ROBBIE

College: Creighton University
NFL: Fourth Season
Dolphins: Fourth Season
Born: January 13, 1947

Janet Robbie, who begins her fourth season in a management capacity with the Dolphins, was named as Executive Vice President of the club on January 12, 1990, and shortly thereafter assumed additional responsibilities as Executive Vice President of Joe Robbie Stadium. In that capacity, Janet is one of the highest-ranking female executives in the NFL and is involved in the ongoing administrative responsibilities of the team and the stadium, particularly within the finance, accounting, and legal departments. Her responsibilities also include maintaining appropriate political, civic, and business contacts in the South Florida community and establishing outreach programs within the organization. Under her guidance, the Dolphins have significantly increased their community relations program. She serves on the Board of Directors for the Miami Project to Cure Paralysis, Women in Distress of Broward County, the Greater Miami Convention and Visitor's Bureau, and Jackson Memorial Hospital Foundation. She is also on the United Way Hurricane Relief allocation committee and is co-chairing the Leadership division of the Dade County United Way 1993 Campaign.

Before embarking on her professional career, Robbie attended Creighton University and graduated with a B.S. degree in 1969. She lives in Miami and has three children, John (currently the Director of Club Level Services for the Dolphins), Michele, and Lisa Glode.

EDDIE J. JONES

Executive Vice President/General Manager

College: Louisiana State

NFL: 22nd Season

Dolphins: Sixth Season

Born: June 18, 1938

Eddie J. Jones, who has spent two decades in the NFL, was named as Executive Vice President and General Manager of the Dolphins on January 12, 1990. Jones had served the previous two seasons as the Dolphins' Vice President of Administration and Finance. In his current capacity, Jones oversees all financial functions of the Dolphins and directs the administrative operation of the team's front office. Following the conclusion of the 1991 season, Jones assumed the additional responsibility for overall contract negotiations with all Dolphin players and he also spearheaded the successful effort to construct a new training facility at Nova University.

Jones was president and chief operating officer of the New Orleans Saints from 1982-85. He currently serves on the NFL's Employee Benefits Committee and the Pete Rozelle NFL Player Retirement Plan Committee.

A 1963 accounting graduate of LSU, Jones began his professional career as a CPA with Arthur Andersen & Co. He began his NFL career as business manager of the Saints in 1968.

An Air Force veteran, the Houston native and his wife, Marilyn, have three children, Wendy, Todd and Jeff.

JANN M. ILIFF

General Counsel/Corporate Secretary

College: Carleton
NFL: Ninth Season
Dolphins: Ninth Season
Born: November 19, 1952

Jann M. Iliff assumed her duties as General Counsel for the Dolphins in July of 1985 with responsibility for the legal affairs of the club and stadium, and in 1992 increased her involvement in the area of player contract negotiations. Prior to joining the Dolphins, she was in private law practice in Minneapolis with experience in civil and commercial litigation.

Iliff received her J.D. degree in 1980 from William Mitchell College of Law in St. Paul, Minn. While at Mitchell, she was a staff member of the school's Law Review. Iliff earned her undergraduate degree from Carleton College in Northfield, Minn. She is admitted to the Bars of Minnesota and Florida.

A native of Minneapolis, Iliff is married to Jonathan D. Fisher and they reside in Coral Gables with their son, Jonathan, Jr.

BRYAN J. WIEDMEIER

Assistant General Manager

College: Carroll
NFL: 13th Season
Dolphins: 13th Season
Born: October 19, 1959

Now in his 13th season with the Dolphins, Bryan Wiedmeier was named as the club's Assistant General Manager on February 2, 1990, after holding a variety of positions with the team since 1981.

Wiedmeier works closely with Eddie Jones in managing the club's administrative affairs and handling player contract negotiations. A member of the Florida and Federal Bars, Wiedmeier also assists General Counsel Jann Iliff with club and stadium legal matters. Wiedmeier served as project coordinator for the design and construction of the club's new training facility at Nova University and the team's administrative offices at Joe Robbie Stadium.

Wiedmeier earned his J.D. degree from the University of Miami School of Law in 1989. He received his BA degree in business from Carroll College where he was a co-captain and three year starter at center for the nationally ranked (NAIA) Fighting Saints football team.

A resident of Miami Lakes, he and his wife Mary K. have five children, Lauren, Tori, John, Dani, and Matthew.

JILL R. STRAFACI

Treasurer

College: Florida

NFL: Fifth Season

Dolphins: Fifth Season

Born: September 4, 1957

Beginning her fifth season with the Dolphins, Jill R. Strafaci assumed her current role as Treasurer in 1990 after serving as Assistant Chief Financial Officer of the team since October, 1989. In her current position, she oversees the financial management of the club and also is involved in financial matters pertaining to Robbie Stadium Corporation.

Before joining the Dolphins, Strafaci, a CPA, was a tax specialist with Price, Waterhouse in Miami for six years, specializing in the areas of professional sports and real estate. She also worked for an accounting firm in her native Sarasota.

Strafaci graduated from the University of Florida in 1980 (accounting/finance), where she was a four-year letter-winner on the Lady Gator golf team. She resides in Miami Beach with her husband, Frank, and their son, Trenton Frank (2/4/93).

WILLIAM T. DUFFY

Treasurer, JRS

College: Princeton

NFL: Sixth Season

Dolphins: Sixth Season

Born: February 28, 1956

William T. Duffy, who joined the Dolphins' front office as Director of Finance in March of 1988, was named Treasurer of Robbie Stadium Corporation in June, 1990. In his current position, Duffy, a CPA, oversees the financial aspects of the operation of Joe Robbie Stadium and continues to be involved with financial matters relating to the Dolphins as well.

A 1978 graduate of Princeton (B.A. in economics), he earned a master's in accounting from N.Y.U. in 1980. From 1979-82, Duffy worked in public accounting at Coopers & Lybrand in Newark, N.J. In 1982 he moved on to Johnson & Johnson, where he served as an internal auditor for a year.

The Ho-Ho-Kus, N.J., native became a financial analyst for AT&T information systems in Morristown, N.J., in 1983. After two years there, he moved on to the JVC Corp. of America, where he was assistant controller, until joining the Dolphins.

Duffy serves as a Trustee for the Ft. Lauderdale Chamber of Commerce. Married to the former Cathryn Yag (6/27/81), Bill and his wife are the parents of Erin (8/22/82) and Caitlin (9/5/85). They reside in Plantation.

GLENN MON

Stadium Manager

College: Southern California

NFL: Sixth Season

Dolphins: Sixth Season

Born: April 10, 1951

Glenn Mon, who handled stadium management for such major events as the Super Bowl, the 1984 Summer Olympic Games, and the Mass of Pope John Paul II, is in his sixth season as Stadium Manager of Joe Robbie Stadium after serving for 13 years in various capacities in management of the Los Angeles Coliseum and Sports Arena. One of his major responsibilities has been his involvement in the transformation of Joe Robbie Stadium into a baseball park to serve as the home of the Florida Marlins.

Before joining the Dolphins, the 42-year-old Mon spent the previous two seasons as the senior assistant general manager and acting general manager for the Coliseum, where he was responsible for all event administration. From 1984 to September of '86, he was the assistant manager and director of public relations for the L.A. Coliseum Commission with primary responsibility for the operation of the Sports Arena. For nine years, Mon was the public relations director for the Coliseum and Sports Arena.

Locally, Mon serves on the Community Advisory Board of the Junior League of Fort Lauderdale, he is a member of the Board of Trustees for the Memorial Hospital Foundation, and is a member of Leadership Broward Alumni. A graduate of the University of Southern California (political science), he resides in Plantation with his wife, Ashley.

LAMAR VERNON

Ticket Director

College: Georgia

NFL: Sixth Season

Dolphins: Sixth Season

Born: December 9, 1943

Lamar Vernon, who brings 26 years of ticketing experience to his position, enters his sixth season as ticket director for the Dolphins and Joe Robbie Stadium. He coordinates all ticket operations for the Miami Dolphins and Joe Robbie Stadium Corp, including such varied events as college football bowl games, soccer matches and concerts held at JRS.

Vernon, who came to the Dolphins in August of 1988, spent 23 years in major league baseball with the Atlanta Braves, Seattle Mariners and, most recently, the Chicago Cubs. Throughout his years in sports, Vernon has handled ticketing operations in practically every professional sport, including tennis and soccer.

Married to Patricia, the Vernons have four children, Kelly, Kim, Geri and Gerod and they reside in Plantation.

FUDGE BROWNE

Director of Community Relations

College: Slippery Rock

NFL: Fifth Season

Dolphins: Fifth Season

Born: June 13, 1962

Maraleen "Fudge" Browne assumed her position as Director of Community Relations in July of 1991 following two seasons as a media relations assistant for the Miami Dolphins. In her current capacity, Browne administers all charitable and community service involvement by the organization, including player appearances and donations. She also continues to assist with the media relations department on particular assignments, including training camp and on game days.

Prior to joining the Dolphins, Browne worked as the media relations director for the Minnesota Strikers of the Major Indoor Soccer League for two years (July, 1986 - June, 1988). From December of 1984 until July of 1986, Browne worked as the assistant director of media relations for the Chicago Sting, also of the Major Indoor Soccer League. Browne got her start in sports with an internship in the publicity department of the Pittsburgh Pirates during their 1984 season.

Browne, a native of Pittsburgh, is single and resides in downtown Miami.

PAT KELLY

Director of Stadium Events

College: John Jay

NFL: Seventh Season

Dolphins: Seventh Season

Born: February 13, 1928

Pat Kelly, who supervised stadium operations at famed Yankee Stadium for 20 years, moves into his seventh season as Director of Stadium Events for Joe Robbie Stadium.

Kelly, who began his career at Yankee Stadium in 1967, served as stadium manager and then vice president of stadium operations before joining the Dolphins. His main responsibility was the efficient operation and maintenance of Yankee Stadium.

While at Yankee Stadium, he supervised the Pope's Mass, numerous American League playoff and World Series games, the All-Star game, championship boxing events and New York Giants football (1967-73).

Kelly served in the United States Navy before spending 24 years with the New York City Police Department. Married to the former Catherine Conway, they are the parents of two children. The couple resides in Lauderhill.

ASSISTANT COACHES

JOHN SANDUSKY

Assistant Head Coach/Offensive Line

College: Villanova
NFL: 35th Season
Dolphins: 18th Season
Born: December 28, 1925

Like many of the men who played for him, John Sandusky is regarded as "one of the best in the business." Sandusky and his offensive line just keep getting better. A veteran of three decades of NFL coaching (he begins his 35th season in '93), Sandusky starts his 18th year with the Dolphins looking for continued success. In addition to his offensive line responsibilities, Sandusky was named Miami's Assistant Head Coach on March 1, 1989, and as a result has become more involved in the overall football operations and has taken on additional administrative duties.

Sandusky was the Dolphins' offensive line coach from 1976, when he joined the team, through the 1992 season. He was named to coach the tight ends prior to the 1993 season, but reassumed his offensive line responsibilities on May 21, 1993 when Kim Helton left the Dolphins to become the head coach at the University of Houston.

The Dolphin offensive line under Sandusky has been among the most proficient in NFL history. His offensive line led the league in fewest sacks allowed for a league record nine consecutive seasons (1982-90). In addition, the Dolphin offensive line went 19 straight games over the 1988-89 seasons without allowing a QB sack, shattering the old NFL record of five straight games, done on many previous occasions.

In 1988, Sandusky's offensive line allowed only seven sacks, the fewest in a season in NFL history, despite throwing the ball a league-high 621 times.

Sandusky also was instrumental in the development of the Dolphins' young offensive line and under his tutelage Richmond Webb became the first rookie tackle ever named to the Pro Bowl in 1990 and repeated the honor with Pro Bowl selections in 1991 and 1992.

Despite his offensive assistant coaching title, Sandusky is also quite knowledgeable about defense, having spent seven of his 34 seasons coaching the other side of the line of scrimmage. In the past nine campaigns, 14 Dolphin offensive linemen have been singled out for some type of post-season honor.

The 67-year-old Sandusky joined the Dolphins in 1976 after spending three seasons (1973-75) as an assistant coach for the Philadelphia Eagles. Prior to that, he was a coach for the Baltimore Colts from 1959-72, including the 1963-69 seasons under then-Colt head coach Don Shula. When Shula moved to Miami in 1970, he attempted, but was unable, to bring Sandusky with him. Sandusky was on the Colt staff for their two Super Bowl appearances in games III and V.

When Don McCafferty was fired as Baltimore's head coach after winning only one of the first five games in 1972, Sandusky became the Colt boss and led his charges to four victories in their final nine games. Two of Sandusky's losses that season were to Shula's undefeated Dolphin team.

Sandusky was an All-America tackle at Villanova University (1946-49) before joining the NFL's Cleveland Browns in 1950. He played both offensive and defensive tackle in six seasons in Cleveland as the Browns made it to the NFL title game in all six of those campaigns (three wins). Sandusky then played one year (1956) with the Green Bay Packers before beginning his coaching career at Villanova (1957-58).

John and his wife, Shirley, reside in Hollywood with their daughters Gina and Jennifer and son Jason. John has three sons (Gerry, Jack and James) living in Baltimore, and a daughter (Ruth) who resides in Silver Spring, Md. Gerry is a sportscaster for WBAL-TV in Baltimore who formerly covered the Dolphins for WSVN-TV in Miami. Another son, Joe, died in '78 of complications from pneumonia while a sophomore at Tulsa University. John was married to his first wife, Ruth, for 34 years before her death in December, 1985. John has six grandchildren.

TOM OLIVADOTTI

Defense

College: Upsala

NFL: Ninth Season

Dolphins: Seventh Season

Born: September 22, 1945

Tom Olivadotti begins his seventh season as the man responsible for the Dolphins' overall defense. Olivadotti came to the Dolphins after spending two seasons (1985-86) with the Cleveland Browns as an assistant.

Under his direction, the Dolphin defense has made significant progress each of his six years with the team. In 1992, the Dolphin defense ranked among the top units in the NFL. Miami finished the season in a tie for tenth in overall team defense (tied for fifth in the AFC) and sixth in defense against the run (third in the AFC). It marked the second time in the past three seasons (also seventh in 1990) that Olivadotti's defense has ranked among the top ten units in the league. In addition, Miami allowed an average of 100.0 rushing yards per game in '92 and that figure is the lowest per game average in the history of the franchise. Also, the Dolphins tied for the league high by recording a pair of shutouts (one in the regular season and one in the playoffs) during 1992. In 1991, Miami held seven opponents to 14 points or less and finished third in the AFC (and tied for fourth in the NFL) in fewest yards allowed per completion (11.18). In 1990, the Dolphins finished seventh in the NFL (fourth in the AFC) in overall team defense and led the league in that category for most of the first half of the season. In 1989, the Dolphin defense finished fifth in the AFC in sack production with 39 sacks after finishing 13th in the conference the year before with 24 sacks. The Dolphin defense did not allow a touchdown in four of the team's 16 games in 1988. In 1987, Olivadotti's first year with Miami, the number of big plays allowed by the Dolphins decreased dramatically, as Miami was first in the AFC (and third in the NFL) in fewest yards allowed per completion (11.63), after ranking 12th in the AFC and 22nd in the NFL the previous season.

The Long Branch, N.J., native made an impressive NFL coaching debut seven years ago when he handled the Browns' outstanding linebacking corps. In 1986 he was in charge of Cleveland's defensive backs – one of the main reasons the Browns came within one game of the Super Bowl. Cleveland had the best record (12-4) in the AFC that season.

Olivadotti is familiar with Miami - he spent four seasons as a defensive coach at the University of Miami, serving the last three years as defensive coordinator. The Hurricanes captured the national championship in Olivadotti's last season (1983). He then followed head coach Howard Schnellenberger (a former Dolphin assistant) to Louisville with the understanding that he could leave if a pro coaching job arose, which it did with the Browns.

Olivadotti played defensive back, linebacker, and receiver in four years as a starter at Upsala College in East Orange, N.J., and also participated in baseball and track. While coaching at New Jersey high schools Pope Pius (1967-68), Long Branch (1968-71) and Red Bank Catholic (1971-72), he also played semi-pro ball for five seasons.

He then moved on to Salesianum Prep School in Wilmington, Del., as head coach (1972-75) before moving up to the college ranks beginning at Princeton (1975-77) as tutor for linebackers and the offensive line. Later (1978-79) he coached linebackers at Boston College and also organized the entire defense.

Olivadotti, who has a business degree, resides in Cooper City with his wife, Karen (married 6/15/68), and their two children, Kari Anne (9/30/70) and Kirk (1/1/74).

JOE GREENE

Defensive Line

College: North Texas State

NFL: Seventh Season

Dolphins: Second Season

Born: September 24, 1946

Joe Greene enters his second season with the Dolphins as defensive line coach. Greene joined the Dolphins after having served five seasons (1987-91) as defensive line coach for the Pittsburgh Steelers.

Greene, 46, joined the Steelers' coaching ranks following a successful playing career with Pittsburgh from 1969-81. With Greene in charge of the defensive line, the Steelers led the NFL in both total defense and pass defense in 1990 and were the AFC's top rated team in terms of giveaway/takeaway ratio between 1987-91. In addition, Pittsburgh finished among the top five teams in the AFC in run defense during four of his five seasons with the Steelers.

Greene's guidance last year helped the development of Marco Coleman, who registered the third highest sack total (six) ever by a Dolphin rookie and earned Sports Illustrated Rookie of the Year honors. Along with Coleman, Greene will work with veterans Jeff Cross, Chuck Klingbeil, David Griggs, and Larry Webster.

A 1987 inductee into the Pro Football Hall of Fame, Greene was considered to be the heart of the Pittsburgh's famous "Steel Curtain" defense that enabled the Steelers win four Super Bowl championships. A perennial All-Pro defensive tackle for Pittsburgh for 13 seasons, he was selected to 10 Pro Bowls, including eight straight from 1970-77, and was named to the Pro Football Hall of Fame's "Team of the 1970s". His career total of 66 quarterback sacks ranks second in Pittsburgh's all-time record book.

In addition to his numerous awards for his attributes on the playing field, Greene won the prestigious Clio Award for his Coca Cola commercial in 1980 which led to numerous television and film appearances. Following his retirement in 1982, Greene worked as a color analyst for CBS-TV and owned restaurants in the Dallas area, before re-joining the Steelers in 1987.

A unanimous choice as the nation's top defensive lineman as a senior at North Texas State in 1968, Greene was the fourth player selected overall in the 1969 draft. He went on to earn NFL defensive rookie of the year honors. Greene has served on the North Texas State board of trustees. Greene and his wife, Agnes, have three children, sons Major (7/29/68) and Delon (10/13/69), who both attend and play football at North Texas State, and daughter JoQuel (10/13/73). Greene, whose full name is Charles Edward, was born September 24, 1946, in Temple, Texas.

GEORGE HILL

Linebackers

College: Denison

NFL: 15th Season

Dolphins: Fifth Season

Born: April 28, 1933

George Hill, who is beginning his fifth season with the Dolphins, has more than a decade of coaching experience in the NFL. Before coming to Miami on March 1, 1989, Hill spent the previous four seasons (1985-88) as defensive coordinator for the Indianapolis Colts and spent six seasons before that (1979-84) as the linebacker coach for the Philadelphia Eagles. Hill originally joined the Dallas Cowboys staff on February 13, 1989, as Tom Landry's defensive coordinator, but left the Cowboys to join the Dolphins following Landry's departure.

Last year, Hill helped oversee the overall improvement of the Dolphin defense, which finished tied for fifth in the AFC. Under Hill's guidance, one of the keys to that improvement was the development of linebacker Bryan Cox into a Pro Bowl performer. Along with Cox, Hill will coach a solid group of veteran linebackers, including five-time All-Pro John Offerdahl, John Grimsley, Dwight Hollier, Cliff Odom, Roosevelt Collins, Mark Sander and Ned Bolcar.

While with the Colts, Hill's coaching helped earn Indianapolis respect around the league for that team's defense and in 1987 the Colts allowed just 238 points, the fewest in the NFL.

Before joining the Eagles, Hill was a part of Woody Hayes' staff at Ohio State for eight seasons (1971-78) as defensive coordinator, and during that time the Buckeyes won six consecutive Big Ten Championships and made four Rose Bowl appearances. He also was the defensive coordinator at Duke from 1966 through 1970 and served as an assistant coach at Cornell (1965), Denison University (1960-64), and Findley (Ohio) College (1959). Before beginning his coaching career, he was a four-year letterman at Denison (1954-57).

Hill was born in Bay Village, Ohio, and now lives in Plantation with his wife, Cloyde (married 6/16/56). They have two children, Greg (11/4/64), and Tammy (2/26/69).

RICH McGEORGE

Assistant Offensive Line/Tight Ends

College: Elon

NFL: First Season

Dolphins: First Season

Born: September 14, 1948

Rich McGeorge enters his first season with the Dolphins as assistant offensive line and tight ends coach, having been named to the position on June 1, 1993. In his coaching role, McGeorge will assist John Sandusky, the Dolphins' Assistant Head Coach/Offensive Line Coach and is also responsible for the team's tight ends.

McGeorge, 44, joins the Dolphins following three seasons as offensive line coach at the University of Florida. During his tenure with the Gators, his offensive lines produced a total of four selections to the first-team All-Southeastern Conference team. In 1991, McGeorge's offensive line permitted just 16 quarterback sacks despite attempting a conference-high 390 passes. He joined the Gators in January, 1990, following three seasons (1987-89) as offensive line coach at Duke University. McGeorge began his coaching career at Duke from 1981-82 as tight ends coach. Following stints as tight ends/wide receivers coach with the Birmingham Stallions of the United States Football League from 1983-84 and offensive line coach of the USFL's Tampa Bay Bandits in 1985, McGeorge returned to Duke as offensive line coach.

A member of the NAIA Hall of Fame, McGeorge played tight end at Elon College (1966-69) and was a first-round draft choice of the Green Bay Packers in 1970. A member of the Packers from 1970-78, McGeorge caught 175 career passes during his nine pro seasons. He was the Packers' 1973 Offensive Player of the Year.

Married to Bonnie, the couple has two sons, Randy, who is an offensive lineman at Duke, and Jason, who is a tight end at North Carolina State. He was born September 14, 1948.

TONY NATHAN

Offensive Backs

College: Alabama

NFL: Sixth Season

Dolphins: Sixth Season

Born: December 14, 1956

Former Dolphins running back Tony Nathan enters his sixth season on the Miami Dolphin coaching staff and his first as the club's offensive backs coach. He spent his first five years as a coaches' assistant, charting plays and breaking down film, as well as working with the team's running backs, before being named to his new position in February, 1993. As the offensive backs coach, Nathan will be responsible for the team's running game and will work with a deep group including Mark Higgs, Bobby Humphrey, Tony Paige, Aaron Craver, James Saxon, and rookie Terry Kirby. Known as an outstanding receiver as a player, Nathan also will work with Miami's backs on their receiving skills.

A nine-year veteran with the Dolphins (1979-87), Nathan ended his NFL career ranked high among the Dolphins all-time rushing and receiving leaders. His career rushing totals of 732 attempts for 3,543 yards are fourth best on Miami's all-time chart, while his 383 catches also rank fourth. In 1981, Nathan was named the team's most valuable player as he led Miami in rushing with a career-high 782 yards and an NFL-leading 5.3 yards per carry.

Collegiately, Nathan had an outstanding career as a running back at the University of Alabama. During Nathan's final two seasons with the Tide, the school posted records of 11-1 and won the national championship his senior year. He finished his career with rushing totals of 1,997 yards on 310 carries and 29 touchdowns. As a senior, Nathan ran for a regular-season total of 770 yards and added 127 yards in Alabama's 14-7 Sugar Bowl edging of Penn State to win the national championship. He was a college teammate of current Dolphin linebacker E.J. Junior.

Nathan and his wife, Johnnie (married 6/16/79), live in Miami Lakes with daughters Francheria Nichole (7/8/80), Natalie Tonise (8/9/83) and Nadia Inez (5/27/87). He was born on December 14, 1956, in Birmingham, Alabama.

MEL PHILLIPS

Defensive Backs

College: North Carolina A&T

NFL: 14th Season

Dolphins: Ninth Season

Born: January 6, 1942

Mel Phillips moves into his ninth season as defensive backs coach for the Dolphins. Under Phillips' guidance, young safeties Louis Oliver and Jarvis Williams developed into one of the NFL's most intimidating pair of safeties, J.B. Brown, emerged from a 12th round draft pick in 1989 to become one of the best young cornerbacks in the league, and Troy Vincent made an immediate contribution as a starting cornerback in his rookie season last year.

Before coming to Miami, the 51-year-old Phillips previously held the same position for five seasons with the Detroit Lions (1980-84). In Detroit, Phillips coached under then-head coach (and former Dolphins' assistant) Monte Clark.

Known for his outstanding rapport with the players, Phillips works with a deep defensive backfield that features quality players such as Louis Oliver, Jarvis Williams, J.B. Brown, Troy Vincent, Vestee Jackson, Liffort Hobley, Bobby Harden, Bruce Alexander, Stephen Braggs, Kerry Glenn, and Chris Green, along with draft choices Ronnie Bradford and Robert O'Neal.

Phillips, a native of Shelby, N.C., played 12 seasons for the San Francisco 49ers (1966-77), including eight as a starter at strong safety. A tenacious hitter during his playing days, his career statistics include 10 interceptions for 106 return yards (35-yard TD in 1970). Phillips twice won the 49ers' Len Eshmont Award, symbolic of the team's most valuable player. Following his retirement from the 49ers, Phillips worked for the city of San Francisco's juvenile probation department until joining the Lions.

Collegiately, Phillips attended North Carolina A&T, where he played both ways as a defensive back and a running back. As a senior, Phillips rushed for 648 yards on 100 carries for 11 touchdowns, and also caught 19 passes for 277 yards and four scores. That season (1965), A&T won the conference championship and Phillips intercepted two passes and rushed for two TDs in the title game. Phillips also lettered for the swimming and track teams at A&T.

Mel and his wife, Patricia (married 1/23/65), live in Miami Lakes with their daughters, Paulette (6/4/67) and Yvette (5/9/73). He was born on Jan. 6, 1942, in Shelby, N.C.

LARRY SEIPLE

Receivers

College: Kentucky

NFL: 13th Season

Dolphins: Sixth Season

Born: February 14, 1945

Beginning his sixth season on the Dolphin coaching staff, Larry Seiple is well-known to Dolphin fans. He spent 11 seasons in Miami as a player and rejoined the team in February, 1988, as receivers coach after spending a year as a sales representative for a manufacturing company in the automotive industry in Birmingham, Michigan.

With the Dolphins, Seiple works with new acquisitions Mark Ingram and Irving Fryar, top draft choice O.J. McDuffie, and veterans Mark Duper, Keith Jackson, Tony Martin, Fred Banks, and Greg Baty.

Last year, under Seiple's direction, Jackson made his fourth Pro Bowl appearance, while Duper continued to show the form that made him one of the league's outstanding receivers.

In 1991, Mark Clayton was named to his fifth Pro Bowl, while in 1990, despite numerous injuries to the receiving corps, the Dolphins finished fourth in the NFL in pass offense.

In 1989, Dolphin receivers had their fair share of success as Ferrell Edmunds became the first Dolphin tight end to be selected to the NFL's annual Pro Bowl contest and rookie wide receiver Andre Brown, who joined the Dolphins as an undrafted free agent, set the team rookie record with five touchdown receptions.

In Seiple's first season as receivers coach, Clayton set a new Dolphin record for receptions with 86 (finishing tied for second in the NFL in that category) while Jim Jensen developed into one of the most dependable receivers in the league.

The Allentown, Pa., native brought seven years of experience as an NFL receivers coach to Miami. He formerly served as receivers coach with the Detroit Lions (1980-84), working under former Dolphins' assistant Monte Clark. He then moved on to Tampa Bay, where he was receivers coach from 1985-86. While in Detroit, Seiple was on a staff that also included current Miami defensive backs coach Mel Phillips.

The 48-year-old Seiple began his coaching career at the University of Miami under another former Dolphin assistant, Howard Schnellenberger. Seiple was with the Hurricanes during the 1979 season.

Seiple's playing career with the Dolphins spanned 11 seasons (1967-77) after he made the team as a seventh-round draft choice out of Kentucky. He played in 149 regular-season games for Miami (ninth-most in team history) as a punter, tight end, wide receiver and running back. Seiple finished his career with 72 receptions for 935 yards (13.0 average) and seven touchdowns. His best season came in 1969 when he led the Dolphins in receiving with 41 catches for 577 yards (14.1 average) and five TDs. He also had 16 carries for 159 yards in his career.

Seiple still holds the Dolphins' record for most career punts (633), and his career punting average (40.0 yards) is second only to the 43.3-yard average of current punter Reggie Roby. Seiple's most memorable exploit as a Dolphin came against Pittsburgh in the 1972 AFC Championship game when his daring 37-yard run on fourth down from punt formation set up Miami's first touchdown in a 21-17 victory.

He and his wife, Trudy (married 6/4/66), live in Pembroke Pines and have three children, Keri Lynn (6/10/67), Larry (7/10/69) and Lori Ann (11/26/71).

GARY STEVENS

Offense, Quarterbacks

College: John Carroll

NFL: Fifth Season

Dolphins: Fifth Season

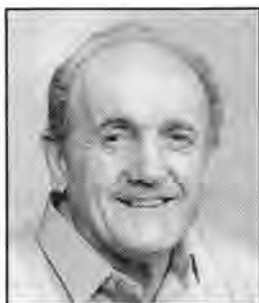

Born: March 19, 1943

Gary Stevens begins his fifth season as offense and quarterback coach, and he certainly is familiar to Dolphin coaches and fans alike. He spent the previous nine years (1980-88) as an assistant coach at the University of Miami, including the last six as offensive coordinator where he was the architect of Miami's explosive offense that was centered around the passing game. During his tenure at UM, the Hurricanes won two national championships and he helped guide the careers of quarterbacks Jim Kelly, Bernie Kosar, Vinny Testaverde, and Steve Walsh as well as wideout Eddie Brown. In his six seasons as offensive coordinator, Miami averaged over 30 points per game and over 400 yards per game in total offense.

The Hurricanes' receivers coach from 1980 to 1984, Stevens switched to coaching the quarterbacks in '84, while also adding the duties of assistant head coach during that same year. Prior to his arrival at Miami, Stevens held assistant coaching positions at West Virginia (1975-79), Kent State (1974-75), and Louisville (1971-74). A native of Cleveland, Ohio, he began his coaching career in the high school ranks in the late 1960s at Benedictine High School and Chanel High School in Ohio.

A three-year letterman at running back for John Carroll University, he graduated with a degree in sociology in 1965. Stevens lives with his wife, Rosemarie, and they have five children – Cindy, Maria, Cheryl, Kelly Ann, and Gary Ben.

CARL TASEFF

Staff Assistant

College: John Carroll

NFL: 27th Season

Dolphins: 24th Season

Born: September 28, 1928

When Don Shula arrived in Miami in 1970, so too did Carl Taseff. Taseff and Shula's relationship dates back to their college days when they played in the same backfield together for coach Herb Eisele's John Carroll squad in Cleveland. They were also roommates in the NFL while both played for Cleveland (1951-52) and Baltimore (1953-56).

In February, 1993, Taseff was named as staff assistant and become more active in various areas of the football operation, including personnel scouting and evaluation while maintaining a continued involvement in coaching responsibilities. Prior to assuming his new role, Taseff coached the Dolphin offensive backs since coming to South Florida, and he did it with great success. In fact, in the eight-year span from 1970-77, Taseff's backs ranked fifth or higher in NFL rushing on seven occasions. More important, Taseff has been able to change with the times. During the 1970s, the Dolphins employed a grind-it-out style that featured powerful fullback Larry Csonka. Since Dan Marino's emergence as Miami's air-oriented quarterback, Taseff's charges have become more a part of the passing game.

Taseff came to Miami after spending two years working for the CEPO scouting combine (1968-69). Prior to that, he had coaching stints with the AFL's Boston Patriots (1964) and the NFL's Detroit Lions (1965-66).

As a player, Taseff was a star running back at John Carroll University, scoring 22 touchdowns in 1950. He began his pro career in 1951 with his hometown Cleveland Browns before beginning a nine-year term (1953-61) with the Baltimore Colts. A cornerback for the Colts, Taseff set a team record with a 90-yard punt return for a touchdown against Green Bay (10/14/56). He holds an NFL record with a 99-yard return of a Walt Michaels field goal attempt against the Rams (12/12/59).

After the Colts, Taseff played the latter part of the '61 season for Philadelphia before winding up his playing career with Buffalo in 1962. Overall, Taseff's career stats show 112 punt returns for 826 yards and no fumbles.

Carl and his wife, Lucy (married 11/18/78), live in Miami. He has two daughters, Cynthia Sue and Susan (both married), by a previous marriage. He also has four grandchildren.

DOLPHIN FACT

Miami was 8-3 in games in which the team had an interception in 1992. The Dolphins own a 97-37-1 (.722) record since 1980 in regular season games which they have at least one interception.

JUNIOR WADE

Strength and Conditioning

College: South Carolina State

NFL: 19th Season

Dolphins: 19th Season

Born: February 2, 1947

One of the key figures in the Dolphin program is veteran strength and conditioning coach Junior Wade.

In his eleventh season as the Dolphins' strength and conditioning coach, Wade also administers the team's successful off-season conditioning program and assists with Miami's special teams. Previously, Wade had served eight years as the club's assistant trainer. The promotion to assistant coaching status was a well-deserved reward for the affable Wade. As a trainer, he long had held the respect of the Dolphin players for his knowledge and his willingness to boost player morale by putting himself through the same rigorous rehabilitation as that prescribed for injured Dolphins.

Appointed to his present position on Feb. 15, 1983, Wade first joined the Dolphins as training camp assistant for the 1973-74 preseasons. He was hired by the Dolphins on a full-time basis in time for the 1975 campaign. Wade's past job experience includes having worked as an athletic trainer and guidance counselor at Fayetteville State and as the trainer for the St. Louis Cardinals' baseball farm team in Orangeburg, S.C.

Wade was also the head baseball coach and assistant trainer at Davidson College. In 1975, he led the Wildcats to a 21-15 record, the best mark the school had ever posted. A three-year letterman himself at South Carolina State, Wade also earned his master's degree in education. Following his graduation from SCSU in 1969, he worked as head trainer at the school for three years.

Junior, a native of Bath, S.C., lives in Miami with his wife, Constance (married 12/13/70), and sons Aaron (2/25/72) and Jason (2/24/80).

MIKE WESTHOFF

Special Teams

College: Wichita State

NFL: 11th Season

Dolphins: Eighth Season

Born: January 10, 1948

Mike Westhoff begins his eighth year as a member of the Dolphins' coaching staff, concentrating on special teams.

Under Westhoff's direction, the Dolphin special teams made a significant impact in 1992, as Pete Stoyanovich became only the second Dolphin ever (along with Garo Yepremian in 1971) to lead the NFL in scoring, setting a new team record with 124 points, and he also became the most accurate kicker in NFL history.

Westhoff came to Miami after spending a year in the United States Football League with the Arizona Outlaws, where he was the offensive line coach for Frank Kush.

Before his one-year stint in the USFL, Westhoff spent three seasons under Kush with the Baltimore/Indianapolis Colts (1982-84). While with the Colts, his responsibilities included tight ends, special teams and weight training.

The 45-year-old Westhoff began his collegiate playing career at Wyoming in 1965, where he was a starting outside linebacker as a freshman. He then transferred to Wichita State, where he was a three-year starter at linebacker and center. He graduated from Wichita State in 1970 with a degree in history. He was the team's MVP as a junior and served as captain during his senior campaign.

Westhoff started his collegiate coaching career as a graduate assistant at Indiana University, where he earned a master's degree in educational psychology in 1974. He was named as a full-time coach at IU in '75 before becoming offensive line coach at Dayton in 1976. Westhoff then took over as coach of the defensive line and linebackers at Indiana State in 1977. He then coached at Northwestern (1978-80) and Texas Christian (1981), working with the offensive line.

In 1989, the Dolphin players honored Westhoff's off-the-field courage by awarding him special recognition with the NFL's Ed Block Courage Award. As a coach, Westhoff has faced many battles both on and off the field, but none can compare to his recent battle with bone cancer. Throughout his treatments, Westhoff continued to coach with the Dolphins. For his courage, the Dolphin players felt Westhoff deserved to be recognized with the Ed Block Courage Award.

Born in Pittsburgh, he was raised in Bethel Park, Pa. Mike and his wife, Marilyn (married 1/25/70), reside in Plantation with their son John Thomas (4/27/81).

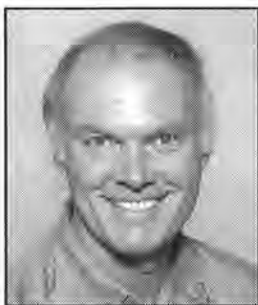

DOLPHIN FACT

The Miami Dolphins recorded a 31-0 win over the San Diego Chargers on January 10, 1993, in the AFC Divisional Playoff game. The Dolphins became just the fifth AFC team since the 1970 merger of the American and National Football Leagues to record a shutout in the playoffs. Amazingly, Miami has recorded three of the five AFC playoff shutouts by having also earned a 14-0 win over the N.Y. Jets on January 23, 1983, and a 21-0 win over the Baltimore Colts on January 2, 1972. The only other AFC playoff shutouts were by the San Diego Chargers (17-0 over Kansas City on January 2, 1993) and the Baltimore Colts (17-0 over the Cincinnati Bengals on December 26, 1970).

FOOTBALL STAFF

TOM HECKERT

Director of Player Personnel

College: Youngstown State

NFL: 12th Season

Dolphins: Fifth Season

Born: September 18, 1938

Beginning his fifth season with the Dolphins, Tom Heckert was named as the club's Director of Player Personnel on June 4, 1992, after spending his first three years with the team as Director of College Scouting. In his current capacity, Heckert's main responsibility is in the area of pro scouting, but he also oversees the club's college scouting program.

During Heckert's three years as Director of College Scouting, the Dolphins used the draft to add such players as Richmond Webb, Keith Sims, Scott Mitchell, Bryan Cox, Troy Vincent, Marco Coleman, Larry Webster, and Dwight Hollier to their roster. In fact, those three drafts produced six current starters, two Pro Bowl selections (Cox and Webb) and two Rookie of the Year selections (Coleman and Webb). In Heckert's initial season as Player Personnel Director this past year, the Dolphins added such players as Keith Jackson, Irving Fryar, Mark Ingram, Ron Heller and Mike Golic.

Heckert has a varied background in football, including spending seven years as a college scout with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and the Cleveland Browns. He also has both administrative and coaching experience on the collegiate level as well.

Heckert, 55, joined the Dolphins after serving two years (1987-88) as a national scout for the Buccaneers. Prior to joining the Bucs in 1987, he spent the previous five seasons (1982-86) as the Midwest area scout for the Browns. He also was involved in personnel and advance scouting in the NFL during his tenure with the Browns and was part of the turnaround in Cleveland that saw the Browns go from a 5-11 team in 1984 to a playoff participant in his final two seasons there.

A 1961 graduate of Youngstown (Ohio) State, he began his coaching career as an assistant at Fitch High School in Youngstown in 1961 before a two-year hitch as a Lieutenant in the U.S. Army. He returned to Fitch where he stayed through 1965 prior to enrolling as a graduate assistant at Kent State, where he earned a master's degree in education. He served as Head Coach at Maumee (Ohio) High School in 1967 and 1968 and then moved up to the college ranks as an assistant at Adrian (Michigan) College from 1969-72. He was named Head Coach at Adrian in 1973 and Athletic Director in 1977, where he remained until joining the Browns in 1982. His overall record as a Head Coach at Adrian was 43-36-2. His last three teams there were 23-3-1, including a 9-0 season in 1980.

Heckert and his wife, Rose (married 12/29/62), have two children, Kim (29) and Tom, Jr. (26), and two grandchildren. Tom, Jr. is a Pro Personnel Assistant with the Dolphins.

TOM BRAATZ

Director of College Scouting

College: Marquette

NFL: 29th Season

Dolphins: Second Season

Born: May 12, 1933

Tom Braatz was named as the Dolphins' Director of College Scouting on June 12, 1992, replacing Tom Heckert, who earlier was elevated to the position as the team's Director of Player Personnel. In his current capacity with the Dolphins, Braatz is responsible for the scouting of college players and Miami's preparation for the NFL draft. In that role, he works closely with Heckert, Dolphin Head Coach Don Shula, and the rest of the team's football staff.

Braatz joined the Dolphins with a wealth of NFL experience and is regarded as one of the leading personnel experts in professional football. He is a veteran of 28 years in the NFL as a front office executive, personnel director, and talent scout with the Atlanta Falcons and the Green Bay Packers.

From 1987 through 1991, Braatz served as Executive Vice President of Football Operations for the Packers, where his duties included the hiring and managing of the scouting staff, conducting the college draft, handling trades and waivers, and conducting contract negotiations with players.

Before joining the Packers on January 31, 1987, Braatz was a member of the Atlanta Falcons front office since the club's inception in 1965. He joined the team as an area scout, and went on to hold a number of positions with the Falcons, including Director of Player Personnel, Director of Scouting, and General Manager. While in Atlanta, Braatz' principal responsibility was overseeing the draft, where he was responsible for bringing a number of Pro Bowl players to the Falcons including William Andrews, Gerald Riggs, Mike Kenn, Bill Fralic, and Steve Bartkowski. He also handled most of the club's contract negotiations in the later years of his tenure with the Falcons.

Before beginning his executive career in the NFL, Braatz played with the Washington Redskins as a linebacker and closed out his pro career under Tom Landry with the Dallas Cowboys in their charter 1960 season. He played collegiately at Marquette University, where he captained the school's football team as a senior.

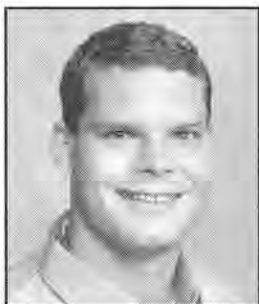

Braatz, 60, and his wife, Jeri, have two sons, Tommy, 30, and Jon, 26.

DOLPHIN FACT

Don Shula is one of only four coaches in NFL history to have coached the same team for 20 or more consecutive seasons. Shula enters his 24th season with the Dolphins in 1993. Green Bay's Curley Lambeau (1921-49) and Dallas' Tom Landry (1960-88) share the record with 29 seasons each, while Pittsburgh's Chuck Noll (1969-91) and the N.Y. Giants' Steve Owen (1931-53) coached 23 years with their teams.

TOM HECKERT, JR.

Pro Personnel

College: Hillsdale

NFL: Third Season

Dolphins: Third Season

Born: July 17, 1967

Beginning his third season with the Dolphins in the Pro Personnel department, Tom Heckert, Jr. evaluates players throughout the NFL as well as doing the advance scouting of the team's up-coming opponents. Heckert is also involved with the day to day personnel operations including try outs and the negotiation of free agent contracts. Heckert has played a role in the off season acquisitions of new Dolphin players such as Mark Ingram, Irving Fryar, Ron Heller and Mike Golic.

Heckert, 26, joined the Dolphins after serving two years as an assistant coach at Hillsdale College, Michigan. Heckert was a defensive back for Hillsdale College and was a member of their National Championship team in 1985 competing against current Dolphin wide receiver Tony Martin who played for Mesa, Colorado.

Heckert, and his wife Kathy, reside in Weston.

JOE BUSHOFSKY

College Scout

College: North Carolina State

NFL: 24th Season

Dolphins: Fourth Season

Born: January 24, 1939

One of the NFL's most respected talent scouts, Joe Bushofsky enters his fourth season as a college scout with the Dolphins. Bushofsky is responsible for college scouting in the eastern states.

Bushofsky, 54, joined the Dolphins after serving 16 seasons with the Detroit Lions, including the last five years as Director of Player Personnel. He originally scouted the eastern colleges for the Lions before expanding his areas to parts of the midwest. In his early years with the club, he was responsible for scouting approximately one half of the colleges in the country. Bushofsky was promoted to the Lions' Director of Player Personnel in June, 1985.

With the Lions, Bushofsky worked from 1978-84 under former Dolphins Director of Pro Personnel Monte Clark (then the Lions' head coach). Also on the Lions' football staff were current Dolphin assistant coaches Larry Seiple and Mel Phillips.

A native of Pittsburgh, Bushofsky's NFL experience dates back to 1970 when he began working for the Pittsburgh Steelers on a part-time basis doing film evaluation. He worked with the BLESTO scouting combine from 1973 to '75 before joining the Lions.

Bushofsky was an All-ACC guard as a senior at North Carolina State and was named to the state of North Carolina's college all-star football team in 1961 and '62.

Following graduation, Bushofsky returned to the Pittsburgh area where he was a successful high school coach for 11 years. As head coach of his alma mater, North Catholic High School, he compiled an undefeated record in 1970 and won the Catholic championship of western Pennsylvania.

Bushofsky and his wife, Rose, have four children, Ted, Tracy, Tricia and Terry, and they reside in Troy, Mich.

MIKE CARTWRIGHT

College Scout

College: Wyoming

NFL: 15th Season

Dolphins: 11th Season

Born: February 12, 1946

The responsibilities of scouting the western states fall on the shoulders of the capable Mike Cartwright. In his 11th Dolphin season, Cartwright came to the Miami organization from the BLESTO scouting combine. He worked for BLESTO from 1979-82, first as an area scout before being promoted to regional scout.

Cartwright's initial scouting position was with the San Francisco 49ers working for Pro-Line. Prior to that, he was head coach and athletic director at St. Mary's School in Cheyenne, Wyo., for three years before serving the same tenure as head football coach at Cheyenne East High. Also a former teacher, Cartwright earned a B.S. in physical education and biological science from the University of Wyoming in 1970.

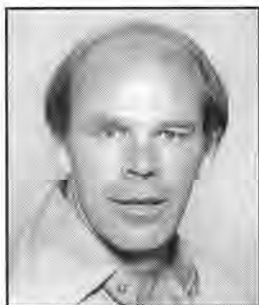

Mike and his wife, Mary (married 9/25/74), live in Cheyenne with their son Jeremy (4/25/77) and Mike's two sons by a previous marriage, Chad (12/12/64) and Brad (12/30/68).

DOLPHIN FACT

The Dolphins hold NFL records for most seasons leading the league in fewest sacks allowed (10 — 1973, 1982-90) and most consecutive seasons leading the league in the same (1982-90). In addition, during the 1988 and '89 seasons the Dolphins also set an NFL record by not allowing a quarterback sack in 19 straight games. The streak far outdistanced the previous NFL mark of five straight games which was accomplished on many occasions. In 1988, Miami also set an NFL sack record by allowing only seven sacks in the 16-game season.

RON LABADIE

College Scout

College: Adrian

NFL: Fourth Season

Dolphins: Fourth Season

Born: April 7, 1949

Beginning his fourth year with the Dolphins as a college scout, Ron Labadie concentrates his duties on college athletics in the midwestern states.

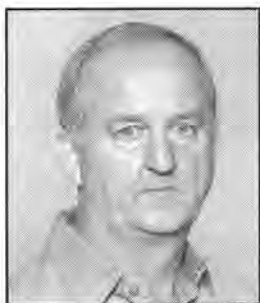

Labadie, 44, joined the Dolphins after serving as head football coach and athletic director at Adrian College. A 1971 graduate of Adrian, Labadie returned to the school as head football coach in 1982. Through his eight seasons as head coach of the Bulldogs, he posted a 53-20 (.730) collegiate record. He guided the Bulldogs to MIAA Championships in 1983, 1988 and '89 as well as leading his team to NCAA Division III playoff berths in 1983 and 1988. He was given the additional responsibilities of Director of Athletics for Men in May, 1985.

Before returning to Adrian, Labadie served as head football coach at Marshall High School (1974-81), compiling a 42-30 overall record, including a 39-15 mark over his last six years. Under Labadie, Marshall captured Twin Valley Conference Championships in 1976 and '77.

A native of Paw Paw, Michigan, Labadie earned the school's most valuable player award three times (1968-70) and was named captain of the 1969 and '70 teams. He earned first team All-MIAA honors and led the conference with 10 touchdowns in five MIAA games as a senior. He was inducted into the school's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1981.

Labadie and his wife, Marilyn, have three children, Lisa (18), Brad (15) and Ben (11).

JERE STRIPLING

College Scout

College: Murray State

NFL: Sixth Season

Dolphins: Fourth Season

Born: August 24, 1935

Entering his sixth season as an NFL college scout, Jere Stripling begins his fourth season with the Dolphins. Stripling's responsibilities with Miami include the scouting of the plains states.

Stripling, 58, joined the Dolphins after serving the previous two years (1988-89) as an area scout for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, with his primary concentration on the southeastern states. Prior to joining the Bucs in 1988, he served two years (1986-87) as one of four national scouts for Canadian IX (the Canadian Football League's official scouting service), with his responsibilities focusing on the southeastern colleges in the United States.

A native of Newbern, Tenn., Stripling spent eight seasons (1978-85) as offensive coordinator and assistant head coach at Northeast Louisiana University. He also served as the school's recruiting coordinator. Under Stripling, the Indians set season records for most yards passing, most yards in total offense and most points scored. In 1983, the Indians ranked sixth nationally in Division I-AA rushing offense.

A 1958 graduate of Murray State, Stripling began his coaching career right after graduation by serving as an assistant coach at Union City (Tenn.) High School. In 1960, he became head coach at Bartlett (Tenn.) High School, and in 1965 he moved to Dyersburg (Tenn.) High School. After his third and final season at Dyersburg, he and his aides were selected as the conference's "Coaching Staff of the Year."

Stripling played quarterback at the University of Tennessee for one year before transferring to Murray State for his final three years. He served as team captain and was named as the school's most valuable player and earned all-conference recognition as a senior.

Stripling and his wife, Corinne, have two children, David (33) and Susan (31).

BOBBY WILLIAMS

College Scout

College: Rice

NFL: Tenth Season

Dolphins: Seventh Season

Born: July 7, 1935

Beginning his seventh year with the Dolphins, Bobby Williams is responsible for scouting the southwestern states for the team.

Williams, 58, joined the Dolphins on June 1, 1987. Before that, he served as a scout for the BLESTO scouting combine from February, 1984 through the 1987 season.

Prior to his scouting responsibilities in the professional ranks, Williams had a long tenure as a coach in the Houston area on both the college and scholastic levels. From 1977 through 1983, he was an Assistant Coach at his alma mater, Rice University. He spent the previous 21 years coaching high school football in that city, and in 1963 he led Houston's Dulles High School to the Texas state championship game.

Williams had a successful playing career as a running back at Rice, where he graduated in 1958. He was a member of Rice's 1957 Southwest Conference championship team that faced Navy in the Cotton Bowl, Rice's last SWC title.

A native of Houston, Williams resides in Sugarland, Texas, with his wife of 37 years, Carolyn. They have one son, Bobby, Jr. (35), who was a wide receiver at Rice when Bobby coached there, and one granddaughter, Audrey (4).

RYAN VERMILLION

Head Trainer

College: Miami

NFL: Second Season

Dolphins: Second Season

Born: May 24, 1963

Ryan Vermillion was named as Head Trainer for the Miami Dolphins on April 10, 1992, becoming only the third person to hold that position in the club's history. Along with his two assistants, Britt Brown and Troy Maurer, Vermillion is responsible for the day-to-day treatment of injured Dolphins in coordination with the club's physicians. In conjunction with assistant coach Junior Wade, Vermillion also oversees the team's off-season conditioning program.

Vermillion is no stranger to the Dolphins, having served as the club's Physical Therapist last year, where he helped supervise the rehabilitation program for many of the team's injured players along with the Dolphins' medical staff and Wade. Vermillion also spent six seasons (1986-91) as the Physical Therapist for the University of Miami and was based at Doctor's Hospital in Coral Gables. Before that, he spent three seasons as a volunteer trainer for the Hurricanes.

Vermillion, 29, received his degree in Physical Therapy from Miami in 1986 and has been certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association. He and his wife Margaret (7/27/91) live in Coral Springs with their daughter Erin (1/6/93).

BOB MONICA

Equipment Manager

College: St. Thomas

NFL: 13th Season

Dolphins: 13th Season

Born: May 6, 1957

Bob Monica begins his ninth year as Dolphin equipment manager after four seasons as assistant equipment manager. Monica, a visible and popular figure around the Dolphins' training camp, is responsible for issuing and ordering all playing equipment for the team. In addition, Monica, along with Joe Malinconico and Eugene Davis, coordinates the transport of the club's equipment to and from each road site, including such distant locations as London in 1988, Tokyo in 1991 and Berlin in 1992.

The 36-year-old Monica earned a B.S. in sports administration from Miami's St. Thomas University. He transferred to St. Thomas from Furman University in Greenville, S.C., where he had been attending college on a football and golf scholarship. A native of Madison, N.J., Monica captained Madison High School's 1976 football state champions. In addition, he was New Jersey state wrestling champion in the 188 lb. division (1976). In 1975, Monica traveled with the USA Junior Olympic Wrestling team to Germany and Bulgaria.

Prior to joining the Dolphins, Monica was a production manager for Electric Factory Concerts in Philadelphia. He is married to the former Donna Beets (4/23/88). The couple resides in Weston with their son Gino Anthony (12/9/91). One of Bob's personal highlights came when he appeared as a bartender in the Jan. 10, 1986, episode of "Miami Vice," one of the highest rated shows in the series' history, and his film credits also include a role in "Ace Ventura, Pet Detective," a comedy released this year that stars Jim Carey and features Dan Marino.

JOE ROBBIE STADIUM

Joe Robbie Stadium, "South Florida's Major League Facility," will again serve as home of the Miami Dolphins for the 1993 season. Now in its seventh year of operation, the 75,000 seat, 115 million dollar, state-of-the-art, open-air facility was the first of its kind to be constructed entirely with private funds.

The first football game in Joe Robbie Stadium was held on August 16, 1987, when the Miami Dolphins met the Chicago Bears in a preseason battle. The game also marked the 22nd anniversary of the Dolphins franchise. Plans for the stadium were first announced on March 5, 1984. The clearing of the stadium site began on July 22, 1985 and ground breaking ceremonies were held on December 1, 1985, just 20-1/2 months prior to the first game.

Originally named Dolphin Stadium, the facility was renamed by the Robbie children on April 30, 1987, for the man who had been the driving force behind its construction. "We have seen our father lay everything he owns and everything he has accomplished on the line to build the stadium, putting himself in a real bind," said Tim Robbie. "If he had flunked the marketing test or the private financing test, the project would have been Joe Robbie's folly. So why not 'Joe Robbie Stadium?' Stadiums have been named in other places after people who have done a lot less to deserve it."

Financing for Joe Robbie Stadium was based largely upon the licensing of executive suites and club seats on a 10-year basis. Executive suites which seat 10, 12 or 16 people per box range in price from $30,000-$58,000 per year. Each executive suite is fully furnished, including air conditioning, carpeting, refrigerator, icemaker, lockable liquor cabinet, two TV monitors and telephone service, along with catered food and beverage service. Suite patrons also receive two complimentary parking passes as well as four guest passes.

Club Seats, which are priced from $800-$1,800 per year on a 10-year license, are 21" wide with chairbacks and arm rests. Club Seat patrons are kept cool by overhead vents which blow circulating air down on them. They are the only grandstand-style seating in the stadium underneath the overhang of the upper deck.

Suite and Club Seat patrons have access to JR's in the Stadium. Located in the east end of the stadium, it commands a panoramic view of the playing area with casual snacks and beverages available in the sports lounge.

The home of first class events, JRS hosted the National Football League's premier game, Super Bowl XXIII on January 22, 1989. It marked the return of the Super Bowl to South Florida after a ten year absence. The stadium will host its second NFL Championship game, when Super Bowl XXIX comes to JRS on January 29, 1995.

On March 7, 1990, H. Wayne Huizenga, Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of Blockbuster Video and Huizenga Holdings Inc., agreed to purchase fifty (50) percent of Robbie Stadium Corporation (the parent company of Joe Robbie Stadium) and became the point man in the drive to bring Major League Baseball to JRS. That effort was rewarded in July of 1991, when South Florida was awarded a National League expansion franchise.

As the seasons change, so do the sporting events at Joe Robbie Stadium. Major League Baseball officially began in South Florida this past spring as the Florida Marlins opened their inaugural campaign as a National League team. On April 5, 1993, the "new" look of JRS as a baseball facility was unveiled to the public for the first time as the Florida Marlins hosted the Los Angeles Dodgers. The Marlins began their existence by finishing the first day in first place with a 6-3 win over the Dodgers.

Before the arrival of the Marlins, JRS had played host to thirteen spring training games that attracted 370,000 fans that paved the way for baseball in South Florida.

Behind the scenes, JRS underwent renovations to accommodate Major League Baseball and the Florida Marlins. The conversion included the installation of retractable seating on the north side of the stadium, the construction of the baseball press box in the south west corner of the facility, the building of the baseball dugouts, the addition of 660 new lights for suitable night play and the installation of an electric disappearing pitcher's mound. The stadium also features a synthetic warning track designed to absorb water. The only other facility to feature this type of track is Oriole Park at Camden Yards, home of the Baltimore Orioles. The renovation also included the construction of the Florida Marlins clubhouse and other amenities to accommodate baseball at JRS.

The facility displays its versatility every year by hosting a wide variety of events and 1992 was no exception. Along with Miami Dolphins football, college football took the field with the third annual Blockbuster Bowl. Music filled the air around JRS as Gloria Estefan along with Comic Relief helped continue the concert tradition of JRS with a fifteen hour Hurricane Relief Concert that helped raise over $1,000,000 for the Victims of Hurricane Andrew. The 1992 concert season also featured Genesis who put on a spectacular night of entertainment and U2 who brought in the immensely popular Zoo TV Tour. They join the stellar list of musical talents that include Hall & Oates, Chicago, Rod Stewart, The Who, Paul McCartney, New Kids on the Block, and Guns 'N Roses who have all performed at JRS. Other events held in the past at Joe Robbie Stadium include international soccer games featuring the United States World Cup Team, high school football, and numerous trade shows.

The stadium was designed with the spectator in mind. The general seating in Joe Robbie Stadium is a 19" chairback seat with armrest. Each seat offers an excellent view of the playing field and there are no obstructed seats in the stadium. Access to seats is easily gained by the two ramps or the escalators located at each of the four entrance gates.

JRS offers the utmost in comfort and convenience. In the general seating areas (100, 400 levels), there are 40 concession stands, each featuring a TV monitor, so as not to miss a minute of the action. Throughout the stadium, there are a total of 80 restrooms (40 men and 40 women). Inside the stadium, there are two giant scoreboards on both ends of the facility, each comprised of a Sony JumboTRON video screen.

Joe Robbie Stadium is located one mile south of the Dade-Broward county line and sits on a 160-acre site. It is 16 miles northwest of downtown Miami and 18 miles south of Fort Lauderdale.

There are a total of 14,970 parking spaces for cars and 254 parking spaces for buses in the 140-acre on-site lot. There also is a helipad on the premises.

JRS prides itself on the Prescription Athletic Turf (natural grass) making up its playing surface. It was designed with mechanical drainage capability and provides a firm playing surface within 30 minutes of a 1" per hour of rain.

Joe Robbie Stadium is truly "South Florida's Major League Facility."

DOLPHINS TRAINING CENTER

On July 11, 1993, the Miami Dolphins officially moved into their brand new training facility at Nova University in Davie, Florida, from their long-time base at St. Thomas University.

The new 8.5 million dollar state-of-the-art facility covers 58,000 square feet and incorporates the latest technology and advances that were utilized in the design of other recently constructed NFL training facilities.

The Dolphins' training center not only will house the team's entire football operation and staff, but it also will serve as the site of the club's preseason training camp and all off-season conditioning programs as well.

The facility includes a large locker room area, sauna and steam rooms, a therapy swimming pool, a cold plunge pool, whirlpools, and one of the largest weight training rooms in the NFL.

In addition to the physical training needs, modern support facilities also were constructed. Those include lounges, conference rooms, equipment rooms, laundry areas, video editing labs, and an auditorium that will function as a site for major press conferences as well as for full team and staff meetings.

Administrative offices, located on the second floor, include the head coaches' office with an adjacent conference room overlooking the practice fields. Offensive and defensive coaches' offices flank these areas. Other office space exists for personnel and administrative staff members.

At the rear of the facility are two full-sized grass football fields, which were constructed utilizing the Prescription Athletic Turf (PAT) system that also is used for the field at Joe Robbie Stadium. That system incorporates underground pipes and electronic pumps to remove water from the fields when natural drainage is not adequate.

With a primary emphasis to design the complex in a "fan-friendly" manner, a new bleacher structure adjacent to the fields was constructed, utilizing elements of Joe Robbie Stadium itself. When JRS was revised to accommodate baseball, large sections of fixed concrete seating areas from the stadium had to be removed. Those sections have now been relocated to the Nova facility as part of the new complex, including many of the chair back seats that formerly were at the stadium. As a result, the new bleacher facility at Nova can accommodate 2,000 spectators, including many in chair-back seats, for open practice sessions and special events. In addition, the structure also includes additional permanent amenities for fans such as concession areas, ticket windows, and rest rooms.

- should he lead the league in passing yards, he would accomplish the feat for the sixth time in his career and set an NFL record for most seasons leading the league in that category. He led the league in 1984-86, 1988 and 1992 and is tied with Sonny Jurgensen (1961-62, 1966-67, 1969).
- should he lead the league in touchdown passes, he would join only Johnny Unitas (1957-60) and Len Dawson (1962-63, 1956-66) to have led the NFL in that category for four seasons. He led the league in 1984-86.

- should he be selected to start in the Pro Bowl, he would accomplish the feat for the sixth time in his career and set the team record for most career Pro Bowl starts. He has been selected to start in five Pro Bowls and is currently tied with Jim Langer.

LOUIS OLIVER...

- to move as high as fourth on the team's all-time interception list, passing Tim Foley (22), Curtis Johnson (22), Gerald Small (23) and William Judson (24). He has 19 career interceptions.
- should he lead or share the team lead in interceptions, he would set the team record for most consecutive seasons for either leading or sharing for the lead in interceptions. Oliver has led the team in interceptions for four straight seasons (1989-92) and is tied with Glenn Blackwood (1984-87) for the team record.

PETE STOYANOVICH...

- to move as high as second on the team's all-time scoring list, passing Nat Moore (450), Mark Clayton (492) and Uwe von Schamann (540). He has 440 career points.
- to move into sole possession of second place on the team's all-time field goal list. He has 101 and is tied with Uwe von Schamann behind only Garo Yepremian.

DOLPHIN FACT

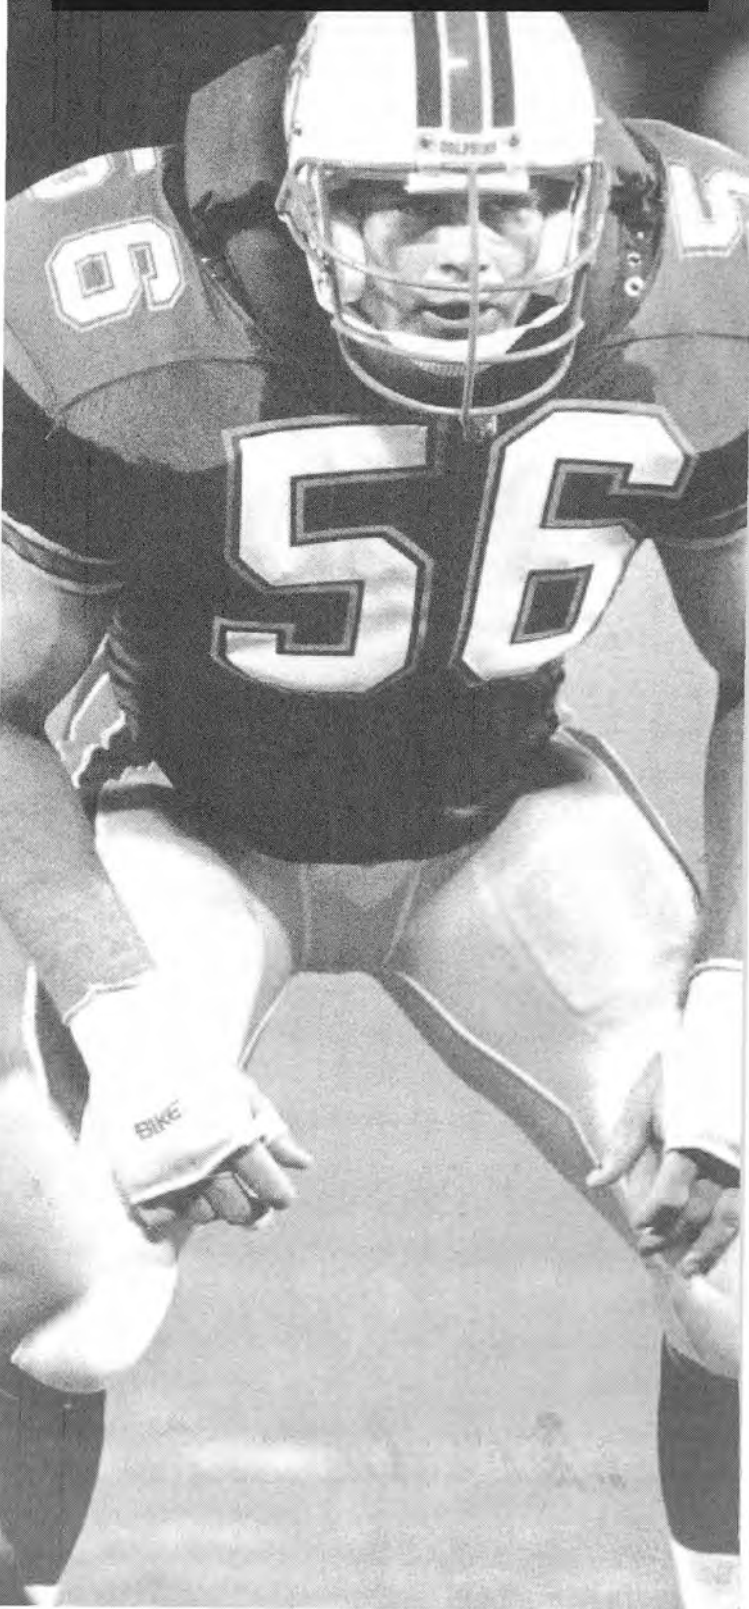

The Dolphins have never lost to an NFC East team at home in the regular season. Miami is a perfect 10-0 in home games with NFC East foes since the merger of the National and American Football Leagues in 1970. The Dolphins are 4-0 vs. Philadelphia, 2-0 vs. Dallas, 3-0 vs. Phoenix and 1-0 vs. Washington. The Dolphins will play host to the Redskins and Giants in 1993. This will be Miami's first meeting at home against the Giants. The two teams were scheduled to play at Joe Robbie Stadium in 1987, but the game was cancelled due to the players' strike.

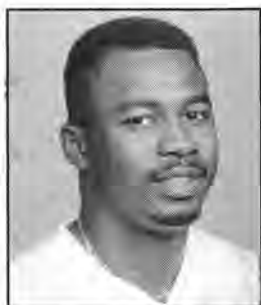

DOLPHIN FACT

The Miami Dolphins held opponents to an average of 100.0 rushing yards per game during the 1992 regular season. Miami's rushing defense ranked as the sixth best in the National Football League during '92. In addition, the Dolphins' average of 100.0 rushing yards allowed per game was the fewest average rushing yards allowed per game in team history. The previous low for average rushing yards allowed per game was an average of 103.8 yards accomplished during the 1970 season.

AMONG DOLPHIN LEADERS: With 511 catches, he ranks second on the Dolphin all-time reception list, behind Mark Clayton (550) . . . His final catch in 1992, on Dec. 27th at New England, was his 511th career reception, moving him past Nat Moore and into sole possession of second place on the Dolphins' all-time career reception list . . . Duper moved past Tony Nathan (383) into third place with his third reception on Dec. 9, 1990 vs. Philadelphia . . . His 8,869 reception yards ranks first on the Dolphins' all-time receiving yardage list, having broken Nat Moore's club record of 7,547 career receiving yards on Nov. 10, 1991 vs. New England . . . Mark Clayton also broke Moore's record later in that game and currently is second with 8,643 yards, moving past Duper on Nov. 24, 1991 at Chicago before being passed by Duper on Dec. 9, 1991 vs. Cincinnati . . . Duper's average of 17.4 yards per catch is the second highest career yards per catch average in team history, behind only the 21.5 average of Paul Warfield . . . His 59 receiving touchdowns is third on the club's receiving TD list, behind Clayton (81) and Moore (74) . . . His 59 touchdowns also ranks third on the Dolphins' overall touchdown list, behind Clayton (82) and Moore (75) . . . Among all scorers, his 354 career points ranks sixth on the club's all-time points list (Pete Stoyanovich is fifth with 440 points while Nat Moore is fourth with 450 points) . . . Has 28 100-yard games for his career (31 including playoffs), extending his own team record (Clayton is second with 22 100-yard games) . . . With 8,859 total yards (rushing and receiving) from scrimmage, he passed Nat Moore (7,795 total yards) on Dec. 9, 1991 vs. Cincinnati to move into second place in total yards from scrimmage, and on September 14, 1992 at Cleveland, he moved past Mark Clayton into first place . . . Clayton now is in second place with 8,751 yards . . . Has teamed with Dan Marino for three of Dolphins' six longest pass plays: 85 yards vs. Baltimore on November 20, 1983, 85 yards vs. Houston on November 2, 1986, and 80 yards vs. Indianapolis on September 23, 1984 . . . Only longer pass play in club history is 86-yard Bob Griese-Warfield connection in 1971 . . . Also has three of top five single-game receiving yardage totals, including club record of 217 yards set in 1985 vs. Jets . . .

WITH MARK CLAYTON: Duper and former Dolphin receiver Mark Clayton (1983-92) formed duo nationally known as the "Marks Brothers" . . . The duo had 100 or more yards receiving in the same game four times (October 23, 1988 vs. New York Jets; October 19, 1986 vs. Los Angeles Raiders; September 21, 1986 at New York Jets; September 30, 1984 at St. Louis Cardinals), with the Dolphins going 1-3 in those games . . . When either Duper or Clayton went over 100 yards receiving in a game, Miami was 27-23 (regular season) . . . The Dolphins are 17-11 when Duper tops 100 yards and were 10-12 when Clayton topped 100 yards . . . From the time span of 1983-92, the duo combined for 1,061 catches, the second highest total by a pair of receivers on the same team in that span, and combined for 17,512 yards in receptions, the second highest total by a duo with the same club over the past nine years:

Clayton and Duper were the only ones to do so with the same quarterback each of those three seasons (Dan Marino) . . . Clark and Monk had two different quarterbacks (Jay Schroeder and Mark Rypien) . . .

PLAYOFFS: Finished 1992 playoffs tied for third on the Dolphins in receptions with five catches for 93 yards (18.6 yards per catch) and one touchdown . . . In AFC title game on January 17, 1993 vs. Buffalo, Duper had two catches for 36 yards and one touchdown, coming on a 15-yard pass from Dan Marino . . . It was Duper's fifth touchdown catch of his playoff career, and he became the all-time leader in touchdown receptions in Dolphin playoff history, surpassing the four playoff TD catches registered by Bruce Hardy and Paul Warfield . . . In playoff contest on January 10, 1993 vs. San Diego Duper had three catches and led Dolphins with 57 yards in receptions . . .

GAME HIGHLIGHTS: AT NEW ENGLAND (DEC. 27): Had four catches for 38 yards . . . His final catch in that contest gave him 511 career receptions, moving him past Nat Moore into sole possession of second place among the Dolphin all-time career reception leaders . . .

VS. L.A. RAIDERS (DEC. 14): On Dec. 14th vs. L.A. Raiders, he had one catch, a 62-yard touchdown reception from Dan Marino on a "flea-flicker" play . . . It was Duper's longest reception of the season . . .

AT NEW ORLEANS (NOV. 29): On Nov. 29th at New Orleans, he led the Dolphins in both receiving and receiving yards with seven catches for 75 yards . . . His fourth catch in that contest was his 500th career reception, and he became the third Dolphin in club history (along with Nat Moore and Mark Clayton) to record 500 career receptions . . . His seven catches was his 1992 season high . . .

VS. BUFFALO (NOV. 16): On Nov. 16th vs. Buffalo, tied for the Dolphin lead with five catches and led club with 100 receiving yards, including a 55-yard catch . . . It was his only 100-yard receiving game of the season and the only one by a Dolphin in 1992 . . . It was his 28th game of 100 or more yards in receptions (31, including playoffs), extending his own team record for most 100-yard games . . . In addition, his 55-yard reception was his second-longest of the season . . .

AT N.Y. JETS (NOV. 1): Tied for the team lead on Nov. 1st at N.Y. Jets with four catches for 74 yards and one touchdown, coming on a 39-yard pass from Dan Marino . . .

VS. INDIANAPOLIS (OCT. 25): Had one catch on October 25th vs. Indianapolis, a 48-yard touchdown reception on a "flea-flicker" from Dan Marino . . .

VS. NEW ENGLAND (OCT. 18): Had three catches for 55 yards and one touchdown on Oct. 18th vs. New England, with his touchdown coming on a 43-yard TD reception from Dan Marino . . .

VS. L.A. RAMS (SEPT. 20): Tied for the team lead in receptions with four catches and led Dolphins with 66 yards in receptions, including a 38-yard touchdown pass from Dan Marino, on September 20th vs. L.A. Rams . . .

AT CLEVELAND (SEPT. 14): Tied for the team lead with four catches and had 70 reception yards and one touchdown (coming on a 25-yard pass from Dan Marino) on September 14th at Cleveland.

1991 — Started all 16 games in 1991 and finished with 70 catches for 1,085 yards (an average of 15.5 yards per catch) and five touchdowns . . . It was the fifth time in his career he played in every regular season game . . . His 70 receptions was tied for seventh in the AFC and tied for 12th in the NFL, and he was tied with Mark Clayton for the Dolphin team lead . . . His 1,085 reception yards was fourth in the AFC and eighth in the NFL and he led the Dolphins in that category . . . His five touchdown catches ranked second on the Dolphins and he finished third on the team with 30 points . . . Tied or led the Dolphins in receptions six times in 1991 and led the team in receiving yards six times . . . Over his final six games of the season, Duper had 34 catches for 504 yards (14.8 yards per game) . . . In his final three games he caught 22 passes for 327 yards and one touchdown . . . With his 70 receptions in 1991, it marked the third time Duper either led the team or tied for the team lead in receptions (he also led the Dolphins in catches in 1986 and 1990) . . . His 70 catches is the second highest single season total of his career, surpassed only by his single season best of 71 receptions in 1984 . . . It also is tied for the fifth best single season reception total in Dolphin history, and Duper owns three of the club's top ten single reception totals:

Was one of two Dolphins (along with Mark Clayton) to catch at least one pass in every game in 1991 and caught at least two passes in each of those games . . . Had a season high eight receptions at San Diego on Dec. 15th, a total that matched his third highest single game career best and tied the 1991 single game high by a Dolphin (Tony Paige had eight receptions vs. New England on Nov. 10th) . . . On September 1st at Buffalo became the third receiver in Dolphin history to record 400 career catches, joining Nat Moore and Mark Clayton) . . . Had two 100-yard games in 1991, 106 yards in receptions on Dec. 15th at San Diego and 134 yards in receptions on Dec. 9th vs. Cincinnati . . . His 1,085 reception yards in 1991 was his third highest single season total and it was the fourth time in his career he led the Dolphins in reception yards . . . It also marked the fourth time in his career he went over the 1,000-yard milestone, one shy of Mark Clayton's team record of five 1,000-yard seasons . . . No other Dolphin receiver has ever reached the 1,000-yard mark in receptions . . . His 1,085 yards is the sixth best single season total in Dolphin history and Duper has three of the top six and four of top nine Dolphin single season reception yardage marks:

DOLPHIN SINGLE SEASON RECEPTION YARDAGE LEADERS

YARDS	PLAYER	YEAR	YARDS	PLAYER	YEAR
1. 1,389	Mark Clayton	1984	6. 1,085	MARK DUPER	1991
2. 1,313	MARK DUPER	1986	7. 1,053	Mark Clayton	1991
3. 1,306	MARK DUPER	1984	8. 1,011	Mark Clayton	1989
4. 1,150	Mark Clayton	1986	9. 1,003	MARK DUPER	1983
5. 1,129	Mark Clayton	1988	10. 996	Mark Clayton	1985
			996	Paul Warfield	1971

From 1987 through 1991, Duper improved his receiving yardage each of those seasons, from 597 yards in 1987 to 626 in 1988 to 717 in 1989 to 810 in 1990 to 1,085 yards in 1991 . . . Duper joined New England's Irving Fryar (467-490-537-856-1,014 from 1987-91) and the N.Y. Giants' Mark Ingram (32-158-290-499-824 from 1987-91) as the only NFL players that had an active streak of five straight seasons of improving receiving yardage totals heading into the 1992 season, but all three streaks ended in 1992 . . . The only other active players to have a streak of five straight years of increasing receiving yardage totals are Minnesota's Steve Jordan (42-212-414-795-859 from 1982-86), New Orleans's Eric Martin (522-675-778-1083-1090 from 1985-89), and Buffalo's Andre Reed (637-739-968-1312 from 1985-89) . . . Went over 6,000 yards in receptions in 1989 and over 7,000 yards in receptions on Dec. 30, 1990 vs. Indianapolis, becoming the second Dolphin (after Nat Moore) to reach 7,000 career yards . . . Went over 8,000 yards on Dec. 15, 1991 at San Diego, becoming the first Dolphin to reach 8,000 receiving yards . . . Had five touchdown catches in 1991, coming in five different games . . . Registered his 50th career touchdown catch on Nov. 3rd at Indianapolis . . . On Dec. 15th at San Diego, he caught eight passes for 106 yards to lead the Dolphins in both receptions and reception yardage . . . His eight receptions matched his third highest single game career high and was one shy of his single game high of nine catches, which he accomplished twice in his career . . . It also was his 1991 single game high and it matched the most passes caught by a Dolphin in 1991 . . . His 106 yards marked the second straight game he went over 100 yards in receiving . . . On Dec. 9th vs. Cincinnati, he had his best game of the season, leading the team in receptions and reception yardage with seven catches for 134 yards and one touchdown, coming on a 43-yard pass from Dan Marino, his longest reception of the season . . . His seven catches was his second best effort of the season and his 134 yards was his 1991 season high . . . In addition, his 134 receiving yards in that contest were his highest total since December 20, 1987 against the Washington Redskins when he had 170 yards in receptions.

1990 - Finished 1990 as the Dolphin leader in both receptions and reception yardage with 52 catches for 810 yards (an average of 15.6 yards per catch) and had five touchdowns . . . Played in all 16 games, making 15 starts . . . His one appearance off the bench came on Sept. 23rd at the N.Y. Giants . . . His 52 catches is the fourth best total of his career and his 810 yards is the fifth best single season figure of his career . . . Duper ranked tied for 18th in the AFC in receptions and 14th in the AFC in reception yardage . . . His five touchdown receptions were more than double his total of TD catches in 1988 and 1989 combined (2) . . . In the five contests Mark Clayton missed due to injury (Nov. 19 - Dec. 16) Duper recorded 19 catches for 306 yards and two touchdowns . . . With 52 receptions, it was the second time in his career Duper led the Dolphins in receiving . . . Caught at least one pass in each of his 16 games in 1990 (including 14 games of two or more receptions) . . . Had a season high eight receptions Dec. 9th vs. Philadelphia, which was tied for the most catches by a Dolphin in 1990 along with Tony Paige's eight receptions on Oct. 28th at Indianapolis, and Duper's eight catches was tied for the third highest single game reception total of his career . . . Duper's third catch in that Eagle contest moved him into third place on the Dolphin all-time receiving list, passing Tony Nathan, who had 383 career receptions . . . His 810 yards in receptions marked the third time in his career he led the Dolphins in reception yardage . . . Went over 7,000 career yards in receptions on Dec. 30th vs. Indianapolis, becoming the second Dolphin (after Nat Moore) to reach 7,000 career yards . . . On Oct. 7th vs. N.Y. Jets Duper had five catches for 125 yards and two touchdowns . . . It was the only 100-yard regular season game by a Dolphin receiver in 1990 and it was Duper's first 100-yard game since Oct. 15, 1989 at Cincinnati . . . His 69-yard touchdown reception from Dan Marino in that Jets' game was the Dolphins' longest pass completion of the season . . . It also was his first TD reception since October 8, 1989 against the Cleveland Browns, going 16 games in between those contests without a touchdown catch . . . His other TD catch in that contest was a 13-yard grab from Marino with 1:03 left in the game to give the Dolphins a 20-16 comeback win . . . It was the first time he caught two or more TD passes in a game since December 20, 1987, when he caught three scores in a 23-21 win over the Washington Redskins at Joe Robbie Stadium and it remains his only game of two or more TD catches since that Redskin contest . . . In addition, his two TD catches matched his output over his previous 32 games, covering all of his games in 1988 (13 games) and 1989 (15 games) and his first four games of 1990, when he had a total of two TD catches (one each in 1988 and 1989) . . . Finished tied for second on the Dolphins during the playoffs with six catches, he led the team in reception yardage with 149 yards (24.8 yards per catch), and had one touchdown . . . Had one of the best games of his postseason career in playoff contest at Buffalo on Jan. 12, 1991 . . . Caught three passes for 113 yards and one touchdown, coming on a 64-yard TD catch from Dan Marino . . . It was Duper's second 100-yard game of the season and his third career 100-yard game in the playoffs . . . In addition, his 64-yard TD catch from Marino was his longest reception in a post-season game . . . Had three catches for 36 yards and lost one fumble in first playoff game, on Jan. 5th vs. Kansas City . . . Received the Dolphins' Outstanding Receiver Award, as voted by the South Florida media, for the third time . . . That award has gone to either Duper or Clayton during a nine year span from 1983 through 1991, with Duper also winning it in 1983 and 1986, while Clayton won in 1984, 1985, 1987, 1988, 1989, and 1991.

1989 – Played in 15 games (including 14 starts) and had 49 receptions for 717 yards (an average of 14.6 yards per catch) and one touchdown . . . Finished third on the Dolphins in receptions and second on the team in reception yardage . . . Finished 20th in the AFC in reception yards (717) . . . Started 14 of his 15 games played, coming off bench on Nov. 12th at N.Y. Jets . . . Caught at least one pass in 13 of his 15 games played in 1989 . . . Was hampered through most of the 1989 season by various injuries . . . Had one reception on Nov. 5th vs. Indianapolis before missing the entire second half with a twisted right ankle . . . Appeared for just one play off bench on Nov. 12th at Jets but left game for good because of an injury to his right ankle . . . Was bothered by a sore calf muscle that he injured on Dec. 3rd at Kansas City, forcing him to leave that game permanently in the second half . . . Saw limited action in Dec. 10th game vs. Patriots because of a groin injury sustained in that game and did not have a catch . . . Was one of two Dolphin inactive players on December 17th at Indianapolis because of that groin injury, the only full game he missed all season . . . Had a season-high seven receptions twice, on Nov. 19th at Dallas for 90 yards, and on December 24th vs. Kansas City for 85 yards . . . His seven catches in those two contests matched the seventh highest single game total of his career and matched the third highest single game reception total by a Dolphin in 1989 . . . His second catch at New England on Sept. 17th was his 300th career reception, becoming the fourth Miami receiver to record 300 career catches . . . On Oct. 15th at Cincinnati had five catches for 129 yards (25.8 yards per catch), the most reception yards by a Dolphin in 1989, with a long catch of 41 yards . . . It was Duper's second game of the season with 100-or-more reception yards . . . His other 100-yard game came on Sept. 24th vs. N.Y. Jets, when he had six catches for 113 yards in receptions . . . On Nov. 19th at Dallas, he had 90 yards in receptions, his third highest single game receiving yardage total in 1989, and it put him over 6,000 yards in receptions for his career, becoming the third player in Dolphin history (after Nat Moore and Mark Clayton) to surpass 6,000 career reception yards . . . On Oct. 8th vs. Cleveland had five catches for 83 yards and one touchdown, a 35-yard TD grab from Dan Marino, Duper's only touchdown catch of the season.

1988 – Had an up-and-down season that was cut short after 13 games . . . Received a 30-day suspension on November 29th by the NFL for violation of the league's substance abuse policy, which caused him to miss the final three games of the season . . . Was reinstated to the Dolphins' roster on April 18, 1989 . . . In his 13 games, he caught 39 passes for 626 yards (a 16.1 yards per reception average) and one touchdown . . . Finished fourth on the team in receptions and third in yardage . . . His 39 catches ranked tied for 25th in the AFC, his 626 reception yards ranked 22nd, and his 16.1 yards per catch average ranked tied for 12th among AFC receivers with 30 or more catches . . . His one touchdown came vs. San Diego on October 16th . . . Became the second player in Dolphin history (after Nat Moore) to surpass 5,000 career reception yards, reaching that plateau on September 25th at Indianapolis (they were later joined in that group by Clayton) . . . Caught at least one pass in 11 of his 13 games . . . Had one game of seven receptions (on October 16th vs. San Diego) and two games of six receptions (October 2nd vs. Minnesota and October 23rd vs. New York Jets) . . . Had two games of 100 or more yards receiving, a season high 132 yards vs. Jets on October 23rd and 118 yards vs. San Diego on October 16th . . . His longest reception of the season was a 56-yard catch on October 23rd vs. the Jets, the second longest Dolphin reception of the season (surpassed only by Ferrell Edmunds' 80-yard reception on November 27th at the Jets) . . . Also had a 51-yard catch vs. San Diego on October 16th, the club's fourth longest pass reception of the season.

1987 – Started 11 non-strike games . . . Sat out second Colts game after suffering rib injury week before at Cincinnati (November 8th) . . . His 33 receptions were his lowest since his rookie season in 1982 . . . Finished third on team with 33 catches for 597 yards (18.1 average) and a team-high eight TDs . . . Was sixth in AFC in scoring (non-kickers) with 48 points . . . Ranked 20th in conference in receiving yards . . . Made career-high nine receptions (for 123 yards, two TDs) in '87 opener vs. New England (September 13th) . . . Tied career high with three touchdowns versus Washington (December 20th), making six receptions for a season-high 170 yards, including game-winning six-yard TD pass with 1:07 remaining to give Dolphins 23-21 win . . . Was named AFC Offensive Player of the Week for his efforts in that game . . . Had third 100-yard receiving game of year in 35-24 victory over Pittsburgh (November 1st), making five catches for 100 yards, including 50-yard TD pass.

1986 – Started all 16 games . . . For first time in career led team in receiving with 67 catches for 1,313 yards and 11 TDs . . . Finished ninth in AFC in receiving and third in league in receiving yardage . . . Went over 1,000 yards in receiving for third time in career . . . His 1,313 reception yards is the second highest total in club history . . . Set Dolphin single season mark with eight 100-yard performances . . . His 11 receiving TDs is tied for the fifth highest total in club history . . . Caught 20-yard TD pass from Marino in overtime win at Rams (December 14th), one of career-high three touchdowns in game . . . Had season-high seven catches against Jets (September 21st), 49ers (September 28th), and Bills (November 16th) . . . Named honorable mention All-NFL by AP . . . Also named to Pro Bowl but did not play because of arthroscopic left knee surgery on January 5, 1987 (was replaced by Clayton) . . . Tabbed by South Florida media as Miami's Outstanding Receiver.

1985 – Early-season thigh injury sidelined him for eight weeks (games 2-9) . . . In first game back, against Jets on November 10th, he set Dolphin record with 217 yards on eight receptions . . . In his first half back in that game, he caught 60-yard TD loss from Marino . . . With :49 left to play he hauled in one-handed, 50-yard TD pass to lead Dolphins to 21-17 victory over Jets . . . Including Jets game, Duper compiled 555 yards on 31 receptions over last six games as Dolphins closed regular season without a loss in that span . . . Started eight of nine contests (came off bench vs. Jets) . . . Suffered his injury against Houston in season's first game, but left lineup next week versus Indianapolis . . . Finished as team's fifth leading receiver with 35 catches for 650 yards and three touchdowns.

1984 – Started all 16 games and had 71 catches for 1,306 yards and eight touchdowns . . . Both receptions and yards would have eclipsed prior Dolphin records if not for even better figures compiled by Clayton . . . His 1,306 yards remains the third highest single season total in Dolphin history and his 71 receptions is the fourth best total in club history . . . In 1984 AFC Championship Game (Jan. 6, 1985) at Miami, caught five passes for 148 yards and two touchdowns from Dan Marino in Miami's 45-28 win over Pittsburgh . . . His 148 yards receiving is a Dolphin single game playoff record, and coupled with Tony Nathan's 114 yards in receptions, it was only the second time in Dolphin playoff history that two receivers each had over 100 yards in reception yardage . . . In Super Bowl XIX (Jan. 20, 1985 at Stanford), he had one reception for 11 yards in San Francisco's 38-16 victory over Miami . . . Was voted by peers to start for AFC in Pro Bowl and was also first team All-AFC choice by UPI . . . Along with Clayton became first teammates in league history to each go over 1,300-yard reception mark in a single season.

1983 – Became first Miami receiver ever to go over 1,000 yard mark with 1,003 yards on 51 receptions (Warfield's 996 yards in 1971 had been the club's previous high) . . . Caught 10 touchdown passes and 19.7 per-catch average was tops in AFC . . . Was second-team All-AFC selection by UPI and was member of AFC's Pro Bowl team . . . In 1983 AFC Playoff Game (Dec. 31, 1983) in Miami, caught nine passes for 117 yards, including a 32-yard TD pass from Dan Marino, in Seattle's 27-20 win . . . His nine catches remains tied for his single game career high . . . In first NFL start in 38-35 OT loss to Buffalo (October 9th), had then-second best receiving day in Dolphin history with 202 yards on seven catches and two touchdowns.

1982 – Saw action in only two games in rookie campaign and did not catch a pass . . . Was slowed by ankle and hamstring injuries . . . Dolphins had surprised many by drafting him so high, but Duper impressed coach Don Shula at BLESTO workout in Detroit with acrobatic, over-the-shoulder catch . . . Second-round draft choice (52nd overall) of Miami in 1982.

COLLEGE: Played only two years of college football at Northwestern State in Natchitoches, La . . . As a senior, caught 24 passes for 592 yards (24.7 average) and seven touchdowns, including three TDs versus Northeast Louisiana . . . Attended college on track scholarship . . . MARK HIGGS

5-7 198
Running Back #21
Born: 4/11/66
College: Kentucky '88
Acquired: PB (Phil.), 1990
NFL: Sixth Season
Dolphins: Fourth Season

PRO: 1992 – Small, quick running back . . . Played in all 16 regular season games with 15 starts . . . Finished season with career-high and team-leading 915 yards rushing on 256 carries (3.6 yards per rush) with seven touchdowns and added 16 catches for 142 yards . . . Ranked sixth in AFC and 15th in NFL in rushing yards . . . Led team in rushing in 13 of 16 regular season games . . . The only games he did not lead the team in rushing were at N.Y. Jets (11/1), at San Francisco (12/6) and at New England (12/27) . . . His total of seven touchdowns tied for team lead (with Mark Duper) and ranked tied for tenth in the AFC in touchdowns . . . Also ranked tied for third in the AFC in rushing touchdowns . . . His seven rushing touchdowns set a new career high, surpassing his previous best of four rushing TDs during the 1991 season . . . Scored seven of Miami's nine rushing touchdowns in '92 . . . His 256 rushing attempts ranks as the second highest single season total in Dolphin history, surpassed only by Delvin Williams' 272 carries in 1978 . . . Suffered torn cartilage to right knee at New England (12/27) . . . Underwent arthroscopic surgery by Dr. Dan Kanell on Dec. 29 and was placed on Injured Reserve on Dec. 30 and missed both playoff games. . .

SINGLE-SEASON RUSHING: Higgs' 915 yards rushing marked the highest single season rushing total by a Dolphin since Delvin Williams rushed for 1,258 yards in 1978 and the seventh best single season rushing total in Dolphin history . . . Coupled with his 905 yards rushing last year, Higgs holds two of the Dolphins' top eight single season rushing figures:

MIAMI DOLPHINS SINGLE SEASON RUSHING LEADERS

PLAYER	RUSHING YARDS	YEAR	PLAYER	RUSHING YARDS	YEAR
1. Delvin Williams	1,258	1978	6. Mercury Morris	954	1973
2. Larry Csonka	1,117	1972	7. MARK HIGGS	915	1992
3. Larry Csonka	1,051	1971	8. MARK HIGGS	905	1991
4. Larry Csonka	1,003	1973	9. Mercury Morris	875	1975
5. Mercury Morris	1,000	1972	10. Larry Csonka	874	1970

With his 905 yards rushing in 1991 and his 915 yards rushing in 1992, Higgs became the first Dolphin since Larry Csonka (1971-73) and Mercury Morris (1972-73) to gain 900 or more yards in two or more consecutive seasons . . . In addition, Higgs' total of 1,820 yards rushing over the past two years ranks fourth among all AFC running backs during that time span:

AFC RUSHING, LAST TWO SEASONS (1991-92)

NAME	TEAM	1991 YARDS	1992 YARDS	TOTAL YARDS
1. Thurman Thomas	Buffalo	1,407	1,487	2,894
2. Barry Foster	Pittsburgh	488	1,690	2,178
3. Harold Green	Cincinnati	731	1,170	1,901
4. MARK HIGGS	MIAMI	905	915	1,820
5. Gaston Green	Denver	1,037	648	1,685

Higgs' total of 1,820 yards over the past two seasons is the most by a Dolphin runner in consecutive seasons since Delvin Williams gained a total of 1,961 yards between 1978-79 as he had a team-record 1,258 yards in 1978 and 703 yards in 1979 and also is the sixth best rushing total in consecutive years in Dolphin history:

ALL-TIME LEADING DOLPHIN RUSHERS IN CONSECUTIVE SEASONS

NAME	YARDS	SEASON	YARDS	SEASON	TWO-YEAR TOTAL
1. Larry Csonka	1,051	1971	1,117	1972	2,168
2. Larry Csonka	1,117	1972	1,003	1973	2,120
3. Delvin Williams	1,258	1978	703	1979	1,961

7. Larry Csonka	1,003	1973	749	1974	1,752

100-YARD GAMES: Higgs has total of five career 100-yard games . . . Recorded two 100-yard games in 1992 by gaining 107 yards at Indianapolis (11/8) and 111 yards vs. the L.A. Rams (9/20) . . . Registered three 100-yard games in 1991 for the first 100-yard games of his career . . . His career total of five 100-yard games ties him for fifth place (with Jim Kiick) among all-time Dolphin leaders behind fourth-place Delvin Williams with six career 100-yard games . . .

GAME HIGHLIGHTS – Opened season at Cleveland (9/14) and led team with 25 carries for 90 yards and two touchdowns and added one catch for six yards . . . It marked the first multiple touchdown game of his NFL career with the second of those two touchdowns coming on a one-yard leap into the end zone with seven seconds left in the game to give Dolphins a 27-23 win . . . Recorded team-high 111 rushing yards on 23 carries vs. the L.A. Rams (9/20) . . . Led Miami with 21 carries for 54 yards and added a catch for 11 yards at Seattle (9/27) . . . Scored a pair of rushing touchdowns and led team in rushing with 58 yards on 13 carries vs. Atlanta (10/11) . . . Registered team-high 63 rushing yards on 18 carries and a three-yard touchdown run vs. New England (10/18) . . . Led Dolphins by gaining 50 yards on 18 carries and a touchdown vs. Indianapolis (10/25) . . . Had best all-around game of season by rushing for 107 yards on 20 carries with one touchdown and adding four catches for a career-high 41 yards at Indianapolis (11/8) . . . Gained 34 yards on 12 carries and added one catch for 21 yards for the longest reception of his career vs. Buffalo (11/16) . . . Led team in rushing with 46 yards on 15 carries at New Orleans (12/14) . . . Had team-high 94 yards on 26 carries and added one catch for six yards before leaving contest late in fourth quarter with ankle injury vs. L.A. Raiders (12/14) . . . Rushed for 23 yards on nine carries in season-finale at New England (12/27) before suffering torn cartilage to right knee . . . Underwent arthroscopic surgery by Dr. Dan Kanell to repair that injury on Dec. 29 and was placed on Injured Reserve on Dec. 30.

1991 – Played in 14 games with ten starts . . . Led team in rushing with 905 yards and four touchdowns on 231 carries (3.9 yards per carry) and added 11 receptions for 80 yards . . . Finished fifth in the AFC and ninth in the NFL in rushing which marked the first time a Dolphin runner finished in the league's Top Ten in rushing since Andra Franklin finished third in the NFL with 701 yards rushing in 1982 . . . Higgs' 905 rushing yards marked the highest total by a Dolphin running back since Delvin Williams rushed for 1,258 yards in 1978 and is the eighth highest single season total in Dolphin history . . . Started ten games and rushed for 778 yards on 200 carries (3.9 yards per carry) for an average of 77.8 yards per game during his starts . . . If those figures were extrapolated over a full 16-game season, Higgs would have finished the year with 1,245 yards rushing . . . Led the Dolphins in rushing each of the Dolphins' first seven games in 1991 and 12 times overall . . .

A "MARKED" IMPROVEMENT – Gained only 67 yards rushing in 1990 compared to his 905 yards on the ground in 1991 for an improvement of 838 yards from one season to the next . . . That is the largest single season rushing improvement in Dolphin history and also is the largest improvement by any NFL running back in 1991 from his 1990 total:

In his career, with 5,284 attempts, Marino ranks third among the NFL's All-Time leaders in pass attempts (Dan Fouts is second with 5,604 attempts while Fran Tarkenton is first with 6,467 attempts) . . . With 3,128 pass completions, Marino ranks third in completions (Fouts is second with 3,297 completions, while Tarkenton is first with 3,686 completions) . . . With 39,502 yards passing Marino is in fourth place in the NFL's all-time Top Twenty list of total yards passing (Johnny Unitas is third with 40,239 passing yards) . . . With 290 touchdown passes, Marino is tied with Unitas for second on the all-time TD list, trailing only Tarkenton (342) . . .

ATTEMPTS AND COMPLETIONS: Marino's 554 pass attempts in 1992 were the most in the NFL, ahead of Washington's Mark Rypien (479) . . . It marked the fourth time in his NFL career that Marino led the NFL in pass attempts during a season; he also posted league leading totals in pass attempts in 1984, 1986, and 1988 as well as 1992 . . . Marino tied the NFL record for most seasons leading the league in pass attempts (four) with Sammy Baugh (1937, 1943, 1947-48), Johnny Unitas (1957, 1959-61), and George Blanda (1953, 1963-65) . . . Marino's 330 pass completions were the most in the NFL in 1992 as well, ahead of Dallas' Troy Aikman (302) . . . It marked the fifth time in his NFL career that Marino led the NFL in pass completions, having done so in 1984-86 and 1988 as well as 1992 . . . Marino tied the NFL record for most seasons leading the league in pass completions (five) with Sammy Baugh (1937, 1943, 1945, 1947-48) . . . On Nov. 16, 1992 vs. Buffalo, Marino completed the 3,000th pass of his career, joining Dan Fouts (3,297) and Fran Tarkenton (3,686) as the only quarterbacks to complete 3,000 passes . . . Marino now has 3,128 pass completions . . . On Nov. 16, 1992 vs. Buffalo, Marino opened the game by completing his first 11 pass attempts, and coupled with his four consecutive completions at the end of his previous contest, on Nov. 8th at Indianapolis, his 15 straight completions set a new personal high as well as a new Dolphin team record for most consecutive completions . . . The previous Dolphin record was 13 straight completions, set by Earl Morrall on December 1, 1975 against New England:

MIAMI DOLPHINS CONSECUTIVE COMPLETIONS HIGHS

NAME	DATE	OPPONENT	CONSECUTIVE COMPLETIONS

Don Strock	1/2/82	San Diego	12
DAN MARINO	1/5/91-1/12/91*	KANSAS CITY/BUFFALO	11

* playoff games

Marino has suffered just 17 sub-50 percent completion percentage games in his 151 regular season games (149 starts), including one in 1992 (on Nov. 22nd vs. Houston) and the Dolphins are 6-11 in those games, including 1-0 in 1992 . . . Including playoffs, has completed less than half his passes 19 times in 161 games (159 starts), including a playoff game in 1992 (on Jan. 17th vs. Buffalo) and the Dolphins are 6-13 in those games . . .

YARDAGE: Marino's 39,502 yards passing ranks fourth on the NFL all-time career passing yardage list and he needs 738 yards to move past Johnny Unitas into third place:

Marino threw for 4,116 yards in 1992, the fifth season he has thrown for 4,000 or more yards, extending his own NFL record for most seasons passing for 4,000 yards . . . Marino is the only quarterback in NFL history to have five 4,000-yard seasons (1984-86, 1988, 1992) . . . Dan Fouts (three, 1979-81) and Warren Moon (two, 1990-91) are the only other QBs to have multiple 4,000-yard seasons . . . Along with Fouts he is the only other QB to pass for 4,000 yards in three straight seasons (1984-86) . . . His five 4,000-yard seasons and his 3,997-yards passing year in 1989 account for six of the 20 leading single season passing yardage totals in NFL history:

On Nov. 22, 1992 vs. Houston, Marino went over 3,000 yards passing for the season, his ninth 3,000-yard season (1984-92) in only ten years, extending his NFL record for most 3,000 yard passing seasons . . . He set the record for most 3,000 yard seasons in 1991, his eighth year of passing for 3,000 or more yards . . . Before setting that NFL record, he had been tied with Joe Montana (1981, 1983-85, 1987, 1989-90) for the previous record of seven 3,000-yard seasons:

NFL LEADERS, MOST 3,000 YARD PASSING SEASONS

Dan Fouts	6	1979-81, 84-86	15	43,040
Boomer Esiason	6	1985-90	9	25,671

In addition, in that Oiler contest on Nov. 22, 1992, Marino also extended his own NFL record for most consecutive 3,000 yard seasons to nine seasons (1984-92) . . . Marino's 4,116 passing yards were the most in the NFL in 1992, ahead of Buffalo's Jim Kelly (3,457 passing yards) . . . It marked the fifth time in his NFL career that Marino led the NFL in passing yards during a season, having accomplished that feat in 1984-86 and 1988 as well as 1992 . . . Marino tied the NFL record for most seasons leading the league in passing yardage (five) with Sonny Jurgensen (1961-62, 1966-67, 1969) . . . Marino did not throw for 400 or more yards in any game in 1992 . . . Marino has ten career 400-yard games, one of his many other NFL records, and the Dolphins are 6-4 in those ten games . . . Marino had three 300-yard games in 1992, on November 16th vs. Buffalo (321 yards), October 25th vs. Indianapolis (355 yards) and on September 14th at Cleveland (322 yards) and the Dolphins were 1-2 in those contests . . . He has 44 career regular season 300-yard games (47, including playoffs), trailing only Dan Fouts' career total of 51 300-yard games, and the Dolphins are 28-16 in those 44 career 300-yard games (29-18 overall, including playoffs) . . . Owns nine of top ten and 35 of top 40 passing yardage games in Dolphin history as well as 47 of the 55 300-yard passing games in club history . . .

TOUCHDOWN PASSES: Marino cracked the NFL's all-time Top Twenty for career touchdown passes in 1988 . . . Marino's two touchdown passes on Dec. 20, 1992 vs. the N.Y. Jets gave him 290 touchdown passes for his career, tying him with Johnny Unitas for second place on the all-time TD list . . . He trails only Fran Tarkenton (342) on the all-time list:

Of all the quarterbacks in the Top 20, Marino has played the fewest number of years . . . Through his first ten seasons, Marino has averaged 29.0 touchdown passes per season and 1.92 TD passes per game . . . At his current per-game pace, Marino would become the NFL's all-time TD pass leader with 343 TD passes in the 12th game of the 1994 season, just ahead of all-time leader Fran Tarkenton (342) . . . With 290 touchdown passes, Marino needs only ten more TD passes to become the second quarterback in NFL history to throw for 300 or more touchdowns, joining Fran Tarkenton (342) . . . Marino will reach that milestone faster than Tarkenton:

Marino and the "Marks Brothers", Mark Duper and former Dolphin receiver Mark Clayton, have combined for the first and fourth (tied) most prolific quarterback to wide receiver scoring combinations in NFL history . . . Marino and Clayton combined for 79 touchdown passes, the highest scoring duo in league history, surpassing other famous quarterback-to-receiver combinations such as Baltimore's Johnny Unitas to Raymond Berry (63 touchdowns), San Francisco's Joe Montana to Jerry Rice (55 touchdowns), Buffalo's Jim Kelly to Andre Reed (46 touchdowns), Seattle's Jim Zorn to Steve Largent (43 touchdowns), and the Jets' Joe Namath to Don Maynard (42 touchdowns), while the Marino-to-Duper combination, with 55 touchdowns, ranks tied for fourth:

NOTE: Dan Marino has thrown at least one regular season touchdown pass in every current NFL stadium which he has visited . . . Marino has not played a regular season game at the Georgia Dome (or Fulton County Stadium), the Metrodome, or Sun Devil Stadium . . . In addition, in post-season play, he has 12 TD passes in the Orange Bowl, six at Joe Robbie Stadium, three at Rich Stadium, and one TD pass at Stanford Stadium.

Marino threw at least one touchdown pass in 13 of his 16 regular season games in 1992, as well as in both playoff contests and now has thrown at least one TD in 131 of his 151 regular-season games (141 of 161 overall) and 99 of his last 115, as well as in each of his ten playoff games:

Overall in Marino's career, the Dolphins won only six of the 20 regular season games in which Marino failed to throw a touchdown pass, with two victories coming in 1992 (Dec. 27th at New England and Oct. 11th vs. Atlanta), one in 1991 (September 22nd vs. Green Bay), one in 1990 (Oct. 18th vs. New England), and the other two coming in 1989 (Oct. 15th at Cincinnati and December 10th vs. New England) . . . The three games in 1992 where Marino failed to throw a touchdown pass came in a 16-13 win on Dec. 27th at New England, a 27-3 loss on Dec. 6th at San Francisco and a 21-17 win on Oct. 18th vs. Atlanta . . . Marino has 17 career games passing for four or more touchdowns, including one in 1992, when he passed for four scores on October 18th against the New England Patriots, and he is 13-4 in those 17 contests . . . His four TD passes in that Patriots game tied him with Johnny Unitas' NFL record of 17 career four-touchdown passing games . . . It was his first four-TD game since he threw four touchdown passes on December 12, 1988 against the Cleveland Browns . . . Marino holds the NFL record for most consecutive games with four or more touchdown passes (four in 1984) . . . In addition to his four TD passes against the Patriots, Marino threw for three touchdown passes one other time in 1992, on October 4th at Buffalo . . . In his career he has thrown three or more touchdowns in 48 games (52, including playoffs) and he is 32-16 in those contests (35-17 including post-season games) . . . On Nov. 22, 1992 vs. Houston, Marino threw his 20th touchdown pass of the season, extending his NFL record of most seasons with 20 or more touchdown passes to ten seasons (1983-92) . . . In 1991 Marino became the first quarterback in NFL history to throw 20 or more touchdown passes nine different times . . . He and Johnny Unitas had been tied for the old record as the only NFL quarterbacks ever to throw 20 or more touchdowns in eight different seasons before Marino broke that mark with his ninth season of 20 or more touchdown passes; Marino accomplished his record-setting feat in his first nine seasons in the league, while Unitas played 18 seasons in the NFL . . . Trailing Marino and Unitas in that category are Fran Tarkenton (18 seasons), Sonny Jurgensen (17 seasons), and John Hadl (16 seasons), all with seven seasons of 20 or more TD passes apiece:

NFL LEADERS, MOST SEASONS OF 20 OR MORE TOUCHDOWN PASSES
NAME	YEARS WITH 20-PLUS TDs	SEASONS WITH 20-PLUS TDs	NFL SEASONS	CAREER TOUCHDOWNS
DAN MARINO	10	1983-92	10	290
John Unitas	8	1957, 59-60, 62-63, 65-67	18	290
John Hadl	7	1965-68, 70-71, 74	16	244
Fran Tarkenton	7	1962, 64, 67-69, 75, 78	18	342
Sonny Jurgensen	7	1961-62, 64, 66-67, 69-70	17	255

Marino also is the only player in NFL history to throw 20 or more touchdown passes in his first ten NFL seasons and in ten consecutive seasons . . . Marino is the only quarterback to pass for 30-plus touchdowns in three different seasons, and he did it in three straight years (1984-86) . . . He is the only QB to throw 40 or more TDs in two different seasons (1984, 1986) . . .

INTERCEPTIONS: Had five games in 1992 (six, including post-season play) without throwing an interception, and the Dolphins went 3-2 in those contests (4-2 including playoffs) . . . In his career, he has not thrown an interception in 52 games (54, including playoffs), and the Dolphins are 38-14 in those 52 games in which he was not intercepted (40-14, including playoffs) . . . He threw three interceptions in 1992 that were returned for touchdowns: Bobby Houston of the N.Y. Jets on Dec. 20th, Eddie Anderson of the L.A. Raiders on Dec. 14th, and Vince Buck of the Saints on Nov. 29th . . . Anderson returned his Marino interception 102 yards for a touchdown, accounting for the Raiders' only score of the game . . . His 102-yard return was tied for the third longest interception return in NFL history and was the longest INT return against the Dolphins in club history . . .

SACKS: Marino was sacked 28 times in 1992, the highest single season sack total of his career, surpassing his 27 sacks in 1991 . . . Marino had two games in the regular season (Oct. 4th at Buffalo and Sept. 20th vs. L.A. Rams) and one in the playoffs (Jan. 10th vs. San Diego) in 1992 in which he was not sacked . . . On Nov. 29th at New Orleans, Marino was sacked five times, the most he has been sacked in a single game in his career (his previous high had been four sacks six different games, including the previous two contests) . . . It was the third straight game (including Nov. 22nd vs. Houston and Nov. 16th vs. Buffalo) that Marino was sacked four or more times, and he was sacked a total of 13 times in those three games . . . One of Marino's five sacks on Nov. 29th at New Orleans resulted in a defensive touchdown when he fumbled after being sacked by Pat Swilling and the fumble was returned for 28 yards for a touchdown by Robert Goff . . . It was the first time that Marino lost a fumble after a sack that was returned for a touchdown since Nov. 18, 1991 vs. Buffalo when Cornelius Bennett sacked Marino and returned his fumble six yards for a touchdown . . . When he was sacked in the end zone by Marvin Washington for a safety on Nov. 1st at the N.Y. Jets, it marked the first time in Marino's career he was sacked for a safety . . . In 1991, Marino and Scott Secules were sacked 28 times, which tied the Dolphins for seventh place in the NFL for the fewest sacks allowed . . . It ended a streak of nine consecutive seasons that the Dolphins allowed the fewest sacks in the league, including the first eight years of Marino's career . . .

RUSHING: In 1992 Marino finished third on the Dolphins in rushing with 66 yards on 20 carries, an average of 3.3 yards per rush . . . His 66 yards rushing was greater than his career rushing total (43 yards) that he accumulated heading into the 1992 season, and also was his single season career rushing best, surpassing his previous single season rushing high, which he set in his rookie year of 1983 when he ran for 45 yards on 28 carries . . . Marino has rushed for a touchdown six times in his regular season career (Dec. 15, 1991 at San Diego, 10 yards; Dec. 10, 1989 vs. New England, one yard; Oct. 15, 1989 at Cincinnati, one yard; Dec. 7, 1987 vs. N.Y. Jets, five yards; Nov. 20, 1983 vs. Baltimore, one yard; and Oct. 30, 1983 vs. L.A. Rams, two yards), and the Dolphins are 5-1 in those games, winning the first five games when Marino rushed for a TD before losing at San Diego in 1991 . . . Marino also had a two-yard rushing touchdown in post-season play, on Jan. 12, 1991 at Buffalo, in a game the Dolphins also lost . . .

DURABILITY: Beginning with the start of the 1984 season (he missed the last two games of the 1983 campaign, his rookie year), Marino has started 140 of the Dolphins' last 143 regular season games (only three games he missed were the replacement games of 1987) . . . Marino, the Rams' Jim Everett, and the Redskins' Mark Rypien are the only NFL quarterbacks to have started every game in each of the last two seasons . . . Marino is the only NFL quarterback to have started every game since the replacement games in 1987 . . . If those replacement games are not counted, he has started each of the last 140 Dolphin contests . . . With his start on Nov. 3, 1991 at Indianapolis, he passed Ron Jaworski and has the longest consecutive game streak of any quarterback since the 1970 merger, and he is one of only five NFL quarterbacks who have started 100 or more straight games since then (see below) . . .

Marino had to leave a game twice in 1992 due to injuries . . . He missed one snap on Dec. 27th at New England due to a twisted knee . . . Marino suffered a mild concussion late in the fourth quarter on September 27th at Seattle, forcing him to miss one snap in Miami's game-winning drive (Scott Mitchell completed a key 18-yard pass on third down in his place) before returning to throw the winning 15-yard touchdown pass to Fred Banks on his third play back, and then also missed the next series when Mitchell ran out the clock to preserve the victory . . . It was the first time Marino was forced to miss a snap due to an injury since November 26, 1989 vs. Pittsburgh, when he suffered a contusion of his right AC joint (located in his shoulder), forcing him to leave that game for good with seven minutes left in the fourth quarter . . . The only full games he missed due to an injury in his career were the two final games of the 1983 season, December 10th vs. Atlanta and December 16th vs. the New York Jets . . .

NFL RECORDS: In addition to the above records for yardage and touchdowns, Marino holds NFL single season records for yards (5,084 in 1984) and touchdowns (48 in 1984) . . . Having led the NFL in attempts in 1984, 1986, 1988, and 1992, Marino joined only three other quarterbacks (Sammy Baugh, Johnny Unitas, George Blanda) who have led the NFL in that category four times . . . Having led the NFL in completions from 1984-86, 1988 and 1992, Marino joined Sammy Baugh as the only players to have led the NFL in that category in five seasons . . . Marino and Blanda (1963-65) are the only QBs to lead the NFL in completions three consecutive years . . . Having led the NFL in passing yards from 1984-86, 1988 and 1992, Marino joined Sonny Jurgenson as the only players to have led the NFL in passing yards in five seasons, and only Dan Fouts (1979-82) has led the league longer consecutively in yardage (four seasons) . . . Having led the NFL in touchdown passes from 1984-86, if he does so again in 1993, he would join only two others (Johnny Unitas, Len Dawson) who have led the league in that category in four seasons, and only Unitas (1957-60) has led the NFL in TDs longer consecutively (four seasons) . . .

DOLPHIN RECORDS: Marino broke all of Bob Griese's team records in passing yardage, attempts, completions, and TD passes, yet remains seven interceptions shy of Griese's team record in that category:

MARINO'S MIAMI DOLPHINS CAREER RECORDS

TD PASSES	YARDS	ATTEMPTS	COMPLETIONS	INTERCEPTIONS
290 Marino	39,502 Marino	5,284 Marino	3,128 Marino	172 Griese
192 Griese	25,092 Griese	3,429 Griese	1,926 Griese	165 Marino

Griese played 14 NFL seasons (1967-80), while Marino completed his tenth year in the league (1983-92) . . . Marino also holds team career records for highest passer rating, highest completion percentage, and most 300-yard and 400-yard games . . .

COMEBACKS: In 1992, Marino led the Dolphins to six fourth quarter comebacks, Dec. 27th at New England (from 6-13 to 16-13), on Dec. 20th vs. N.Y. Jets (from 16-17 to 19-17), Nov. 22nd vs. Houston (from 13-16 to 19-16), October 11th vs. Atlanta (from 14-17 to 21-17), on September 27th at Seattle (from 12-17 to 19-17), and on September 14th at Cleveland (from 20-23 to 27-23) . . . Over the course of Marino's ten-year career with the Dolphins, he has brought the team back from a fourth quarter deficit a total of 24 times, with 14 fourth quarter triumphs at home (including three times in 1992) and ten on the road (three times in 1992) . . . Included in that total are two playoff games in which Marino has led Miami back in the fourth quarter . . . In Marino's 24 career fourth quarter comebacks, he has completed 158 of 256 passes (61.7%) for 2,175 yards with 17 touchdowns and six INTs for a rating of 101.3:

PRO BOWL: Marino was named as the starting quarterback on the 1992 AFC Pro Bowl team . . . He joined three other Dolphins who were named as starters on the AFC Pro Bowl squad: offensive lineman Richmond Webb, outside linebacker Bryan Cox, and tight end Keith Jackson (who missed the game due to injury) . . . It was Marino's seventh career Pro Bowl selection (1983-87, 1991-92) and his fifth selection as a starter (1983-1986, 1992), but due to injuries he has been able to play in only two games (1992, 1984) . . . Marino's seven Pro Bowl selections set a new Dolphin record for career selections, surpassing the former record of six selections that he had been tied with along with quarterback Bob Griese (1970-71, 1973-74, 1977-78), center Jim Langer (1973-78), and guard Bob Kuechenberg (1974-75, 1977-78, 1982-83) . . . In addition, Marino's seven Pro Bowl selections ties him with Joe Montana (1981, 1983-85, 1987, 1989-90) for the most Pro Bowl selections among active quarterbacks . . . His five Pro Bowl starts ties him with center Jim Langer (1973-77) for the most Pro Bowl starts in Dolphin history . . .

HONORS: Marino has won the AFC Offensive Player of the Week honor 12 times in the regular season (and 13 times overall), as well as two AFC Player of the Month Awards in his ten-year NFL career . . . It is the most times any player has won AFC Player of the Week honors since the award was instituted in 1984 . . . John Elway, Boomer Esiason, and Jim Kelly all are tied for second with eight AFC awards each (with Kelly also earning two AFC Player of the Month Awards and Esiason one Player of the Month Award), while Warren Moon has five AFC awards (as well as one monthly honor) . . . League-wide in 1992, Marino was named to the All-AFC first team by Football News and United Press International and was named second-team All-Pro by College and Pro Football Newsweekly and Newspaper Enterprise Association . . . Marino won the Dolphins' Most Valuable Player Award in 1992 in balloting of South Florida media for the tenth straight year . . . Marino passed Bob Griese, who won that award six times (1967-68, 1970-71, 1974, 1977), and no Dolphin besides Marino has ever won more than two consecutive MVP awards . . . He also won the Dolphins' Outstanding Offensive Back award, the ninth time in his ten years he won that award (1983-90, 1992) . . . His nine years winning that award surpassed the former team high set by Larry Csonka (1970-74, 1979), who had won that award six times . . .

PLAYOFFS: In his two games in the 1992 playoffs, Marino was 39-74 (52.7%) for 435 yards, four touchdowns, two interceptions, and four sacks for a 77.3 rating . . . He extended his Dolphin career playoff records for most attempts, completions, yards passing, and touchdown passes, playing in ten playoff games, while Bob Griese, runner-up in all four categories, played in 12 post-season contests:

387 Marino	212 Marino	2659 Marino	22 Marino	14 Marino
208 Griese	112 Griese	1467 Griese	10 Griese	12 Griese

Marino also has thrown at least one touchdown pass in each of his ten playoff contests . . . His ten-game post-season streak with at least one touchdown pass is tied for the most consecutive games with a touchdown pass in NFL playoff history, along with the Oakland Raiders' Ken Stabler, who threw a touchdown pass in ten straight playoff games from 1973 through 1977 . . . Marino's ten consecutive games with a touchdown pass is the longest active streak in the NFL:

In AFC title game vs. Buffalo on January 17th, Marino was 22-45 for 268 yards, one touchdown, two interceptions, and four sacks . . . In first playoff game in 1992, on January 10th vs. San Diego, Marino was 17-29 for 167 yards, three touchdowns, and no interceptions or sacks . . . His three touchdown passes is tied for the third best single game mark in Dolphin playoff history . . .

GAME HIGHLIGHTS - AT NEW ENGLAND (DEC. 27): On Dec. 27th at New England, Marino was 21-39 for 217 yards, no touchdowns, one interception, and one sack . . . Marino went over 4,000 yards passing for the season in the contest, giving him 4,000 yards passing for the fifth time in his career, extending his own NFL record for most years passing for 4,000 or more yards . . . It was the 20th time in his career (and third time in 1992) that he did not throw a touchdown pass, and the Dolphins are 6-14 (including 2-1 in 1992) in those 20 games . . . In addition, Marino brought the Dolphins back from a 13-6 fourth quarter deficit to a 16-13 overtime win, marking the sixth time in 1992 and the 24th time in his career that Marino has led the Dolphins to a fourth-quarter win . . .

VS. N.Y. JETS (DEC. 20): On Dec. 20th vs. the N.Y. Jets, Marino was 15-30 for 206 yards, two touchdowns, two interceptions, and one sack . . . His two touchdown passes gave him 290 TD passes for his career, tying him with Johnny Unitas for second place on the NFL's all-time list of career touchdown passes . . . His TD passes came on a 39-yard completion to Mark Clayton and a 55-yard completion to Tony Martin with 2:30 left in the contest to pull the Dolphins to within one point, 17-16 before they won the game with a Pete Stoyanovich field goal with seven seconds left in the contest . . . Marino brought the Dolphins back from a 14-7 fourth quarter deficit to their 19-17 win, marking the fifth time in 1992 and the 23rd time in his career that Marino has led the Dolphins to a fourth-quarter comeback win . . . One of Marino's two interceptions was by the Jets' Bobby Houston, who returned the INT 20 yards for a touchdown, the second straight game and the third time in 1992 that Marino had an interception returned for a TD . . .

VS. L.A. RAIDERS (DEC. 14): On Dec. 14th vs. the L.A. Raiders, Marino was 16-26 for 234 yards, one touchdown, one interception, and one sack . . . His one touchdown pass came on a 62-yard "flea-flicker" completion to Mark Duper, the longest play by a Dolphin since Marino and Duper combined for a 64-yard score on January 12, 1991 in the AFC Divisional Playoff game at Buffalo . . . His one interception was by the Raiders' Eddie Anderson, who returned it 102 yards for a touchdown, the Raiders' only score of the game . . . It was tied for the third longest interception return in league history and was the longest INT return against the Dolphins in club history . . .

AT SAN FRANCISCO (DEC. 6): On Dec. 6th at San Francisco, Marino was 19-31 for 192 yards, no touchdowns or interceptions, and one sack . . . His 192 yards passing was his lowest single game total of 1992 and was the only time he has failed to throw for 200 or more yards in 1992 . . . It was his 52nd career game without an interception (and fifth in 1992), and the Dolphins are 38-14 in those contests (3-2 in 1992) . . . It was his 19th career game without throwing a touchdown pass (and second in 1992) . . .

AT NEW ORLEANS (NOV. 29): On Nov. 29th at New Orleans, Marino was 26-42 for 259 yards, one touchdown, one interception, and five sacks . . . His five sacks is a single game career high, and was the third straight game that he was sacked four or more times. Marino was victimized by two defensive touchdowns in that contest . . . The first came when Marino fumbled after being sacked by Pat Swilling and the fumble was returned for 28 yards for a touchdown by Robert Goff . . . It was the first time that Marino lost a fumble after a sack that was returned for a touchdown since Nov. 18, 1991 vs. Buffalo when Cornelius Bennett sacked Marino and returned his fumble six yards for a touchdown . . . The other defensive touchdown came when the Saints' Vince Buck intercepted a Marino pass and returned it 34 yards for a touchdown . . .

VS. HOUSTON (NOV. 22): On Nov. 22nd vs. Houston, Marino was 19-40 for 237 yards, one touchdown, one interception, and four sacks . . . It marked the first time in 1992 and just the 17th time in Marino's career that he completed less than half of his passes in a game and the Dolphins are 6-11 in those 17 contests . . . His 237 yards in the contest gave him over 3,000 yards passing for the season, extending his NFL record for most seasons with 3,000 or more passing yards to nine seasons (1984-92) . . . His one touchdown pass, coming on a 39-yard toss to Fred Banks, was the 20th TD pass of the year, extending his NFL record for most seasons with 20 or more touchdown passes to ten seasons (1983-92) . . . The Dolphins entered the fourth quarter trailing 16-13 before pulling out the 19-16 victory, and it was the fourth fourth-quarter comeback for Marino in 1992 and it was the 22nd fourth quarter comeback of his career . . . His four sacks tied for his second highest single game total and it was the second of three straight games Marino was sacked four or more times . . .

VS. BUFFALO (NOV. 16): On Nov. 16th vs. Buffalo, Marino was 22-33 for 321 yards, two touchdowns, one interception, and four sacks . . . It was his third 300-yard game in 1992 and his 44th career 300-yard game (47, including playoffs), and the Dolphins were 1-2 in 1992 and 28-16 in his career (29-18, including playoffs) in those contests . . . He opened the game by completing his first 11 pass attempts, and coupled with his four consecutive completions at the end of his previous contest, on Nov. 8th at Indianapolis, his 15 straight completions set a new personal high as well as a new Dolphin team record for most consecutive completions . . . The previous Dolphin record was 13 straight completions, set by Earl Morrall on December 1, 1975 against New England . . . He also went over 3,000 completions in his career, joining Dan Fouts and Fran Tarkenton as the only quarterbacks in NFL history to complete 3,000 passes . . . Marino's four sacks tied the second highest single game total of his career, and was the first of three consecutive games when Marino was sacked four or more times . . .

AT INDIANAPOLIS (NOV. 8): On Nov. 8th at Indianapolis, Marino was 22-28 for 245 yards, two touchdowns, no interceptions, and one sack . . . Marino's completion percentage of 78.6% in that contest is the fourth highest single game percentage of his career . . . It was the 51st game Marino did not throw an interception . . .

AT N.Y. JETS (NOV. 1): On Nov. 1st at N.Y. Jets, Marino was 14-26 for 225 yards, two touchdowns, no interceptions, and two sacks . . . One of those sacks came when Marino was tackled by Marvin Washington in the end zone for a safety, the first time in Marino's career that he was sacked in the end zone for a safety . . . It also was the 50th game of Marino's career when he did not throw an interception . . .

VS. INDIANAPOLIS (OCT. 25): On Oct. 25th vs. Indianapolis, Marino was 25-45 for 355 yards, two touchdowns, three interceptions, and one sack . . . It was his second 300-yard game in 1992 and his 43rd career 300-yard game (46, including playoffs) . . . When Marino threw an incomplection in the first quarter, it broke his string of 11 straight completions, dating back to his previous game on Oct. 18th vs. New England . . . Those 11 consecutive completions matched the third highest consecutive completion total of his career and also matched the fifth longest completion streak in Dolphin history . . .

VS. NEW ENGLAND (OCT. 18): On Oct. 18th vs. New England, Marino had one of the best games of his career . . . He was 21-30 for 294 yards, four touchdowns, one interception and one sack . . . It was the 17th time in his career that Marino threw four or more touchdown passes, which tied him with Johnny Unitas' NFL record for most career games with four or more touchdown passes, and he is 13-4 in those 17 games . . . It was Marino's first game of four or more touchdown passes since he threw for four scores on December 12, 1988 against the Cleveland Browns . . . He has thrown three or more touchdowns in 48 games (51, including playoffs) and he is 32-16 in those contests (34-17 including post-season games) . . . In addition, in that contest, Marino moved past Joe Montana into third place on the NFL's all-time list of pass completions . . .

VS. ATLANTA (OCT. 11): On Oct. 11th vs. Atlanta in Miami, Marino was 20-40 for 250 yards, no touchdowns or interceptions and one sack . . . It was the 18th time in Marino's career he did not throw a touchdown pass, and only the fifth time that the Dolphin won when Marino did not throw a TD pass . . . It also was the 49th time Marino did not throw an interception . . . Marino led the Dolphins back from a 17-14 fourth quarter deficit to a 21-17 win, the third time in 1992 and the 21st time in Marino's career he led the Dolphins to a fourth quarter comeback victory . . .

AT BUFFALO (OCT. 4): On October 4th at Buffalo, Marino was 21-33 for 282 yards, three touchdowns, and one interception . . . It was the 47th time in his career (50, including playoffs) that he has thrown three or more touchdown passes . . .

AT SEATTLE (SEPT. 27): On September 27 at Seattle, Marino made his first-ever appearance in the Kingdome and went 23-39 for 254 yards, one touchdown, three interceptions, and two sacks . . . He led the Dolphins back from a 17-12 deficit in the fourth quarter to a 19-17 win . . . It was the second time in 1992 and the 20th time in his career he has brought the Dolphins back from a fourth quarter deficit to a victory . . . In the Dolphins' final drive, Marino was forced to leave the game with a mild concussion, but after missing one play (his place was taken by Scott Mitchell), in his third play back despite still being groggy, he threw a 15-yard touchdown pass to Fred Banks with 2:15 left in the game to give the Dolphins the win, a touchdown pass he didn't even remember throwing until long after the game's conclusion . . . It was the first time Marino was forced to miss a snap due to an injury since November 26, 1989 vs. Pittsburgh, when he suffered a contusion of his right AC joint (located in his shoulder), forcing him to leave that game for good with seven minutes left in the fourth quarter . . .

VS. L.A. RAMS (SEPT. 20): On September 20, 1992 vs. the L.A. Rams, Marino was 21-37 for 223 yards, two touchdowns, and one interception . . . In that contest, he moved past Johnny Unitas and into fourth place on the NFL's all-time completion list . . .

AT CLEVELAND (SEPT. 14): Had an outstanding game on September 14 at Cleveland . . . Was 25-35 for 322 yards, one touchdown, and no interceptions . . . Led Dolphins on game-winning drive that started on Miami 16-yard line with 1:15 left in contest and Miami trailing 23-20 . . . Marino went 4-4 for 68 yards to set up Mark Higgs' one-yard dive with ten seconds left in the game to give the Dolphins their comeback 27-23 victory . . . For Marino, it was the 19th time overall in his career (and eighth time on the road) that he led the Dolphins back from a fourth quarter deficit to a victory . . . It also was the 48th game of his career that he did not throw an interception . . . It also was his 42nd career 300-yard game (45, including playoffs), and the Dolphins are 28-14 in those contests (29-16, including playoffs) . . .

PRESEASON: During the preseason Marino played in four of five games and was 39-71 (55.0%) for 525 yards, two touchdowns, three interceptions, and two sacks for a 70.5 rating . . . The one preseason game he missed was on August 1st vs. Washington in Orlando . . .

1991 – In 1991 he started all 16 games and was 318-549 (57.9%) for 3,970 yards, 25 touchdowns and 13 interceptions for a rating of 85.8 . . . In his first eight games of the year, Marino was 142-260 (54.6%) with 1,811 yards (an average of 226 yards per game), eight touchdowns and six interceptions, with the Dolphins going 3-5 . . . In his last eight games, Marino was 176-289 (60.1%) for 2,159 yards (an average of 270 yards per game), 17 touchdowns and seven interceptions, and the Dolphins were 5-3 in those contests . . . He threw 16 touchdown passes in his last seven games . . . Underwent arthroscopic surgery (performed by Dr. Dan Kanell) to repair loose cartilage in his left knee on December 26, 1991 . . . Marino finished third in the AFC and seventh in the NFL in passing with a rating of 85.8 . . . Was second in the AFC and the NFL in passing yards with 3,970 yards, was second in the AFC and fourth in the NFL in touchdown passes with 25, was second in the AFC and the NFL in completions with 318, and was second in the AFC and the NFL in attempts with 549 . . . With 3,970 yards passing in 1991, Marino missed by 30 yards passing to reach the 4,000-yard passing mark . . . On Dec. 1, 1991 vs. Tampa Bay, Marino went over 3,000 yards passing for the season, and he became the first quarterback in NFL history to throw for 3,000 or more yards in eight seasons (1984-91) . . . Before setting that NFL record, he had been tied with Joe Montana (1981, 1983-85, 1987, 1989-90) for the previous record of seven 3,000-yard seasons . . . Marino did not throw for 400 or more yards in any game in 1991 . . . Marino threw for 300 or more yards three times in 1991: on Oct. 6th at New England (321 yards), on Nov. 18th vs. Buffalo (326 yards), and on Dec. 1st vs. Tampa Bay (307 yards) . . . Marino threw at least one touchdown pass in 13 of his 16 regular season games in 1991 . . . The three games in 1991 where Marino failed to throw a touchdown pass came in a 42-7 loss at Kansas City on Oct. 13th, a 16-13 win vs. Green Bay on September 22nd and in a 17-14 loss at Detroit on September 15th . . . The games against Green Bay and Detroit were only the second time in his career he failed to throw a touchdown pass in back-to-back games, with the other time coming on December 10, 1989 vs. New England and December 17, 1989 at Indianapolis . . . Those back-to-back touchdown-less games against the Packers and Lions comprised the bulk of a streak of nine consecutive quarters that

Marino did not throw a touchdown pass, the longest such stretch of his career . . . The streak ran from the first quarter of the game on September 15th at Detroit through the first quarter of the game on September 29th at N.Y. Jets, covering two full games and the first quarter of a third, before ending when Marino threw a TD pass to Mark Clayton on the first play of the second quarter on Sept 29th at N.Y. Jets . . . Marino threw for three touchdown passes in four games in 1991: On Sept. 1st at Buffalo, Nov. 10th vs. New England, Dec. 9th vs. Cincinnati, and Dec. 15th at San Diego . . . On Dec. 9, 1991 vs. Cincinnati, Marino threw his 20th touchdown pass of the season, marking the ninth time in his nine-year career he has thrown for 20 or more touchdowns passes in a season . . . He became the first quarterback in NFL history to throw 20 or more touchdown passes nine different times . . . He and Johnny Unitas had been tied for the old record as the only NFL quarterbacks ever to throw 20 or more touchdowns in eight different seasons before Marino broke that mark with his ninth season of 20 or more touchdown passes; Marino accomplished his record-setting feat in his first nine seasons in the league, while Unitas played 18 seasons in the NFL . . . Marino threw 13 interceptions in 1991, tied for the third lowest total of his career . . . His three interceptions Oct. 20th at Houston was his 1991 single game high, and it was the first time he threw three or more interceptions since he had three INTs on September 9, 1990 at New England . . . Had seven games in 1991 without throwing an interception, and the Dolphins went 4-3 in those contests . . . Marino was sacked 27 times for 182 yards in losses in 1991, the second highest total of his career, surpassed only by his 28 sacks in 1992 . . . Overall in 1991, Marino and Scott Secules (one sack), were sacked 28 times, which tied the Dolphins for seventh place in the NFL for the fewest quarterback sacks allowed . . . It ended a streak of nine consecutive seasons that the Dolphins allowed the fewest sacks in the league, including the first eight years of Marino's career . . . On Dec. 15th at San Diego he was sacked by the Chargers' Leslie O'Neal in the fourth quarter, forcing Marino to fumble and the Chargers recovered on the Dolphins' 13-yard line . . . San Diego went in to score a touchdown to give them a 24-23 lead that they did not relinquish . . . On Nov. 18th vs. Buffalo, he was sacked for a nine-yard loss by Cornelius Bennett, forcing Marino to fumble . . . Bennett recovered the fumble and returned it six yards for a touchdown . . . Had one touchdown rushing in 1991, coming on a 10-yard scramble on Dec. 15th at San Diego . . . It was the longest touchdown run of his career . . . Was named as a reserve quarterback on the AFC Pro Bowl team in 1991, his sixth career Pro Bowl selection (1983-87, 1991), but he was unable to play in the game due to his recovery from arthroscopic knee surgery . . . His selection broke a three-year streak (1988-90) in which he did not make the Pro Bowl . . . Marino was named as the AFC's Offensive Player of the Week for December 1-2 after going 20-32 for 307 yards, two touchdowns and no interceptions in Dolphins' 33-14 victory over Tampa Bay . . . In that game, Marino went over 3,000 passing yards for the eighth time in his career to set an NFL record for most 3,000 yard seasons, and he also extended his own NFL record to eight consecutive 3,000 yard seasons (1984-91) . . . Marino won the Dolphins' Most Valuable Player Award in 1991 in balloting of South Florida media for the ninth straight year . . .

1990 – Was 306-531 (57.6%) for 3563 yards, 21 touchdowns, 11 interceptions, 15 sacks and a final rating of 82.6 . . . His 21 touchdown passes was the second fewest of his career (behind only his 20 TD passes as a rookie in 1983), but his 11 interceptions also was the second fewest of his career (behind his six INTs as a rookie in 1983) . . . His 6.71 average yards per gain was the second lowest among the top twenty quarterbacks in the NFL (by rating) and had only five completions of 40 or more yards . . . In his final ten games, Marino was 195-340 (57.4%) for 2334 yards, 15 touchdowns, and four interceptions, a rating of 88.3 . . . Marino finished fifth in the AFC and eighth in the NFL in passing with a rating of 82.6 . . . His 531 attempts were second in the AFC and third in the NFL, his 306 completions were second in the AFC and fourth in the NFL, his 3,563 passing yards were second in the AFC and fourth in the NFL, his 21 touchdown passes were fifth in the AFC and eighth in the NFL, and his 2.1 interception percentage was second lowest in the AFC and fourth in the NFL . . . Marino's 13-yard completion to Jim Jensen in the second quarter on Nov. 25, 1990 at Cleveland gave Marino over 30,000 career yards passing, becoming the 11th quarterback in NFL history to throw for 30,000 yards . . . Marino reached the 30,000 yard mark in 114 career regular season games, reaching that milestone faster than any QB in league history . . . The previous record for fastest to reach 30,000 yards was 131 games by former San Diego Charger QB Dan Fouts . . . Marino joined San Francisco's Joe Montana as the only active quarterbacks with 30,000-plus passing yards, while Steve DeBerg joined that group in 1991, and Warren Moon, Phil Simms, and John Elway joined that group in 1992:

Did not throw for 400 or more yards in any game in 1990, but did have two 300-yard efforts, on Dec. 9th vs. Philadelphia (365 yards), and in the AFC Divisional Playoff Game on Jan. 12th at Buffalo (323 yards) . . . Marino had a span of 99 straight pass attempts without throwing an interception, from the first quarter on Oct. 18th vs. New England to the second quarter on Nov. 11th at the N.Y. Jets . . . After throwing an interception in that Jets contest, then went another 91 pass attempts until his next interception, in the first quarter on Dec. 2nd at Washington . . . Overall during that entire span, starting on Oct. 18th and ending on Dec. 2nd (covering five full games and parts of two others), he had 191 pass attempts and threw just one interception . . . Marino was sacked an NFL-low 15 times in 1990 for 90 yards in losses . . . Overall Dolphin quarterbacks were sacked 16 times in 1990, the ninth year in a row that the Dolphins allowed the fewest sacks in the league (a streak that ended in 1991), including each of Marino's first eight years with the club . . . Marino had one carry for 14 yards to lead the Dolphins in rushing on Nov. 19, 1990 vs. the L.A. Raiders . . . It was the first time in his career that he led the Dolphins in rushing in a single game . . . Marino scored one touchdown rushing, coming on a two-yard run in the Divisional Playoff game at Buffalo on January 12th . . . In the 1990 regular season, Marino led the Dolphins back in the final period at New England (from 20-24 to 27-24), vs. the N.Y. Jets (from 13-16 to 20-16) and vs. the Philadelphia Eagles (10-20 to 23-20 in overtime) . . . In Miami's 17-16 playoff win over the Kansas City Chiefs on January 15, 1991, Marino led the Dolphins back from a 16-3 fourth quarter deficit by completing all eight of his pass attempts for 101 yards and a pair of scores . . . Marino's rally from the 13-point deficit against the Chiefs was the largest fourth-quarter comeback of his career; prior to the Chiefs game, Marino's largest comeback was 11 points (17-28 to 31-38) against the San Diego Chargers on October 16, 1988 . . . In his two playoff games in 1990, Marino was 42-79 (53.2%) for 544 yards, five touchdowns and two interceptions, a rating of 85.6 . . . In the playoffs, Marino had a string of 11 straight pass completions over a two-game stretch . . . Completed his last ten pass attempts against Kansas City Chiefs in AFC First Round Playoff Game on Jan. 5th, going 10-10 for 130 yards and two touchdowns (including 8-8 for 101 yards and two TDs in final quarter), and in next game, in AFC Divisional Playoff Game on Jan. 12th at Buffalo, hit on his first pass attempt before throwing an incompletion . . . Marino's 11 consecutive pass completions is the fourth-longest streak in team history and the longest in Dolphin post-season history . . . Marino was named AFC Offensive Player of the Week for December 9-10 after going 27-54 for 365 yards, two touchdowns, and no interceptions in 23-20 overtime win over the Eagles . . . Also was named NFL Player of the Week for the first round playoff games (January 5-6) after going 19-30 for 221 yards, two touchdowns, and no interceptions in Miami's 17-16 win over the Chiefs . . . Marino won the Dolphins' Most Valuable Player Award in 1990 in balloting of South Florida media for the eighth straight year . . . Marino also was voted the Dolphins' Outstanding Offensive Back by the media for the eighth consecutive year.

1989 – In 1989 was 308-550 for 3,997 yards with 24 touchdowns and 22 interceptions . . . Had a quarterback rating of 76.9, finishing fifth in the AFC and 11th in the NFL in passing . . . Reached the 100-games played plateau on Dec. 3rd at Kansas City . . . Was named AFC Offensive Player of the Week for the week ending September 18th after going 17-28 for 226 yards, three touchdowns (including his 200th career TD pass) and three INTs on September 17th in New England to lead Miami to a 24-10 win over the Patriots . . . Marino finished first in the AFC and third in the NFL (behind Don Majkowski's 4,318 yards and Jim Everett's 4,310 yards) in passing yardage (3,997), first in the AFC and second in the NFL (behind Majkowski's 599) in attempts (550), first in the AFC and second in the NFL (behind Majkowski's 353) in completions (308), third in the AFC and sixth in the NFL in touchdown passes (24), and first in the AFC and tied for first in the NFL (with Vinny Testaverde) in interceptions (22) . . . Marino's 11-yard completion to Mark Duper in the second quarter vs. Cleveland on Oct. 8th put him over 25,000 career yards passing, becoming the 25th player in NFL history to reach the 25,000 yards passing milestone . . . With 3,997 yards passing in 1989, Marino missed his fifth 4,000-yard season by three yards . . . Marino went over the 3,000 yards passing mark on Dec. 3rd at Kansas City, his sixth straight 3,000-yard season . . . Threw for 400 yards once in 1989, accumulating 427 yards passing against the Jets Sept. 24th, the most yards passing by an AFC quarterback in 1989 . . . It remains the last time Marino has thrown for 400 yards . . . Marino threw for 300 or more yards five times in 1989: Dec. 24th vs. Kansas City (339 yards), Dec. 10th vs. New England (300 yards), Nov. 12th at N.Y. Jets (359 yards), Oct. 22nd vs. Green Bay (333 yards), and on Sept. 24th vs. the Jets (427 yards) . . . Marino's five 300-yard games tied him for second with Washington's Mark Rypien for the most 300-yard games in the NFL in 1989, surpassed only by Green Bay's Don Majkowski, who had six 300-yard games . . . His 10-yard touchdown pass to Jim Jensen with 7:15 elapsed in the second quarter on September 17th at New England was the 200th career TD pass of his career, and he became the 13th player in NFL history to throw 200 TD passes . . . He reached that plateau faster than any quarterback in NFL history; Johnny Unitas, the former record-holder, threw for his 200th touchdown in the 121st game of his career, while Marino threw his 200th career TD pass in but his 89th career game (covering 3,152 pass attempts):

Threw 22 interceptions in 1989, and his +2 touchdown to interception differential (24 TD passes, 22 interceptions) was the lowest of his career . . . Marino was sacked an NFL-low ten times in 1989 for a total of 86 yards in losses . . . When the Bills' NT Jeff Wright tackled Marino for an 11-yard loss on Oct. 29th, it stopped the Dolphins' NFL record of 19 consecutive games (the last 12 games in 1988 and the first seven in 1989) without allowing a quarterback sack, covering 775 total passes, including 759 attempts by Marino (as well as 11 by Ron Jaworski, three by Scott Secules, and one by Troy Stradford and Jim Jensen) . . . The last time Marino had been sacked prior to the Bills game was on September 25, 1988 at Indianapolis, when he was sacked by Duane Bickett of the Colts in the third quarter of that game . . . Had two rushing touchdowns in 1989, on Oct. 15th vs. Cincinnati and on Dec. 10th vs. New England . . . They were the fourth and fifth rushing TDs of his career . . . His TD against the Bengals came on a one-yard bootleg with 6:42 elapsed in the third quarter . . . It was his first rushing touchdown since December 7, 1987 vs. the Jets in Miami . . . In 1989, Marino (who already held the Dolphin team record for touchdown passes entering the season) broke Bob Griese's club career records in attempts, completions, and yards . . . On Sept. 24th against the Jets, Marino broke Griese's team record of 1,926 completions and on Oct. 8th vs. Browns his 20-yard pass to Fred Banks in overtime broke Griese's team record of 25,092 career passing yards . . . Griese played 14 NFL seasons (1967-80), while Marino was finishing his seventh year in the league . . . Was 8-16 for 128 yards, one touchdown and no interceptions Nov. 26th vs. Pittsburgh . . . His eight completions and his 16 pass attempts both are the lowest single game figures of his career . . . Suffered a contusion of his right AC joint (located in the shoulder) in the second quarter on a hit by Carnell Lake, forcing him to leave the game for good with seven minutes left in the third quarter . . . It was the first time Marino was forced to leave a game due to an injury since he suffered a left knee sprain in the fourth quarter at Houston on December 4, 1983.

1988 – Was 354-606 for 4,434 yards with 28 touchdowns and 23 interceptions . . . Was sacked six times for 31 yards lost . . . Had a passing efficiency rating of 80.8, finishing fifth in the AFC and tenth in the NFL in passing . . . Led the NFL in attempts (606), completions (354), and yards (4,434), and finished tied for second in the NFL (and tied for first in the AFC with Cincinnati's Boomer Esiason) in touchdown passes (28), behind the Rams' Jim Everett (31) . . . Also finished second in the NFL (and first in the AFC) in interceptions (23), behind Tampa Bay's Vinny Testaverde (35) . . . Threw for over 400 yards twice (521 yards vs. Jets on October 23rd and 404 yards vs. Cleveland on Monday, December 12th), and his 521 yards passing vs. Jets on October 23rd was the high yardage figure by a QB in 1988 and not only was a new Dolphin single game record, but it also is the third highest single game passing yardage total by a QB in NFL history:

TOP FIVE PASSING YARDAGE GAMES IN NFL HISTORY

PLAYER	ATT-COM	YARDS	TDs	RESULT/OPPONENT	DATE
Norm Van Brocklin, Rams	41-27	554	5 TDs	Won vs. N.Y. Yanks	9/28/51
Warren Moon, Houston	45-27	527	3 TDs	Won vs. K.C.	12/16/90
DAN MARINO, MIAMI	60-35	521	3 TDs	Lost vs. N.Y. Jets	10/23/88
Phil Simms, Giants	62-40	513	1 TD	Lost vs. Cin.	10/13/85
Vince Ferragamo, Rams	46-30	509	3 TDs	Lost vs. Chi.	12/26/82

In that October 23rd game vs. the Jets, Marino also set a team record with 60 attempts (completing 35) and tied a team record with five interceptions . . . It was his first-ever game of five interceptions; his previous high had been four interceptions, twice (vs. San Francisco on November 28, 1986, and vs. Atlanta on November 30, 1986) . . . Had two games of four or more touchdown passes: November 27th at Jets (five TD passes) and December 12th vs. Cleveland (four TDs) . . . His five-TD game at the Jets was the fifth five-plus TD game of his career and his first since December 14, 1986 . . . Marino's first TD pass on December 12th vs. Cleveland was his 193rd career TD pass, breaking Bob Griese's Dolphin team record of 192 career touchdown passes . . . Had a ratio of one sack every 101 pass attempts (606 attempts/six sacks) . . . Was not sacked in his last 12 games, with his last sack coming on September 25th at Indianapolis . . . Carried ball 20 times for -17 yards . . . Made the first opposition fumble recovery of his career on December 12th vs. Cleveland . . . Had three sub-50 percent completion percentage games (September 4th at Chicago, October 9th at the Raiders, and November 27th at the Jets) . . . Became the 45th quarterback in NFL history to go over 20,000 career yards passing, reaching that milestone September 18th vs. Green Bay . . . With his 4,434 yards passing, Marino went over 4,000 yards in a season for the fourth time . . . Enjoyed the finest game percentage wise (81.3) of his career on December 4th vs. Indianapolis, hitting on 26 of 32 passes for 304 yards and three TDs with only one interception . . . Threw an 80-yard touchdown pass to tight end Ferrell Edmunds at the Jets on November 27th, the longest pass play of the season and tied for the fourth longest pass play in Dolphin history . . . On September 25th at Indianapolis, Marino was sacked four times for only the third time in his career . . . Against Bears at Chicago on September 4th, had then-career low nine completions, while his 113 yards passing was the third lowest figure of his career.

1987 – Led AFC in attempts (444) and completions (263) . . . Was second in NFL in attempts behind Neil Lomax (463) and third in completions behind Lomax and Montana (266) . . . Finished second in AFC in passing with 89.2 rating behind Bernie Kosar (95.4) . . . Placed fourth in league passing rating . . . Was behind Boomer Esiason (3,321) in AFC passing yards with 3,245 yards . . . Led AFC in touchdowns with 26 (Montana topped league with 31) . . . Did not play in three replacement games, breaking his string of 50 straight starts . . . Had a streak of 30 consecutive games with at least one TD pass stopped at Buffalo on November 29th, marking the end of the second-longest string in NFL history behind Johnny Unitas' 47 straight games with a TD pass.

1986 – Led AFC in passing (92.5); second in league to Tommy Kramer (92.6) . . . Only QB in league to throw TD pass in every game in '86 . . . Threw for 4,746 yards, third-highest total in NFL history . . . Threw 44 TDs in '86, second-highest total ever behind his own 48 . . . At one point, had 103 straight pass attempts without interception . . . Was named AFC offensive player of the week following week 15 (OT win over Rams in Anaheim) when he hit on 29 of 46 for 403 yards and five TDs, including 20-yard loss to Mark Duper in OT for the win . . . Tabbed AFC's player of the month for November when in five games he completed 122 of 198 (61.6%) for 1,510 yards (302 per-game average) and 16 TDs . . . Had longest pass completion in league (85 yards for TD to Duper vs. Houston, 11/2/86) . . . Tied team record, set personal high with six TD passes versus Jets (9/21/86) . . . With his second touchdown pass on September 7th at San Diego, he set an NFL record for 100 career TD passes in the fewest amount of games to start a career, reaching that milestone in his 44th contest, breaking the previous mark (53 games) held by Johnny Unitas . . . Went over 15,000 yards passing in career versus Atlanta (11/30/86) . . . For first time in career, threw four INTs in a game; did it twice, vs. 49ers (9/28) and Atlanta (11/30).

1985 – Finished fourth in AFC in passing; fifth in league . . . Led league in yards (4,137), completions (336) and touchdowns (30) . . . Was second in AFC in attempts behind John Elway (605) . . . Threw for over 300 yards six times; Dolphins won all six games . . . Was 45 of 93 for 486 yards, three TDs and three INTs in two playoff games.

1984 – Had sensational season in '84; named in nationwide poll by CBS and The New York Times as most popular pro football player in America despite second-year status . . . Led NFL in attempts (564), completions (362), yards (5,084), average gain per pass attempt (9.0), percentage of TDs per attempt (8.5), TDs (48) and rating (108.9) . . . His yards, TDs and completions were new NFL records . . . His completions record was later broken by Warren Moon in 1991 . . . Threw four TDs versus Patriots (10/21/84), breaking Bob Griese's single-season team record for TD passes in just eight games . . . In game number nine, broke Griese's seasonal team mark for passing yards that was set in '68 . . . Set AFC Championship Game records by throwing for 421 yards and four TDs in 45-28 win over Pittsburgh on 1/6/85 . . . In Super Bowl XIX, completed 29 of 50 for 318 yards and one TD.

1983 – Enjoyed unparalleled success for first-year QB in '83 . . . Named Rookie of the Year and was first rookie QB named to start in Pro Bowl . . . Amazingly, accumulated all stats and honors despite playing only the equivalent of 10 games . . . Miniscule interception rate of 2.0 shattered Griese's '71 team record of 3.4 . . . Led AFC in passing with 96.0 rating; first rookie QB since 1970 league merger to lead a conference in passing (fifth in NFL history) . . . Third in league behind Steve Bartkowski (97.6) and Joe Theismann (97.0) . . . Tied for fourth in AFC in TDs with 20 . . . In relief appearance against Raiders (9/18/83), engineered TD drives on first two possessions as an NFL quarterback . . . Made first start in overtime loss to Buffalo (10/9/83) and was 19 of 29 for 322 yards and three TDs . . . At one point, threw 95 passes without an INT and tossed just three in 242 attempts . . . First play as an NFL QB was a sideline pass completion thrown to Duper for nine yards versus the Raiders (9/18/83) . . . Marino's first NFL TD came at the end of his first drive in the league: a six-yarder to TE Joe Rose . . . Marino's first NFL INT came a week later (10/2/83) in New Orleans as Reggie Lewis returned it 27 yards for a TD . . . Suffered left knee sprain in fourth quarter at Houston (12/4/83) and missed last two regular-season games (Strock quarterbacked Dolphins to wins in both) . . . With knee brace, returned to complete 15 of 25 in playoff loss to Seattle . . . First-round draft choice (27th overall and sixth QB, behind John Elway, Todd Blackledge, Jim Kelly, Tony Eason, and Ken O'Brien) of Miami in 1983.

COLLEGE: Had record-setting career at University of Pittsburgh from 1979-82 . . . In four seasons at Pitt, completed 693 of 1,204 passes (57.5) for 8,597 yards, 79 touchdowns and 69 interceptions . . . Graduated as Panthers' record-holder in passing yards for season (2,876 in 1981) and career (8,597); in passes attempted and completed for season (226 of 380 in 1981) and career (693 of 1,204), and in touchdown passes for season (37 in 1981) and career (79) . . . Graduated as school's all-time total offense leader with 8,290 yards compared to 6,526 of runner-up Tony Dorsett . . . Along with Dorsett, Hugh Green (Dolphins) and Bill Fralic (Atlanta) is one of only four players to have Pitt jersey retired . . . Finished college career ranked on NCAA all-time lists as fifth in passing yardage, fourth in completions and fourth in TD passes . . . During tenure at hometown school, Panthers posted records of 11-1, 11-1, 11-1 and 9-3, including four bowl appearances (Fiesta, Gator, Sugar and Cotton)

. . . In senior season, stats show 221 completions in 378 attempts (58.4) for 2,432 yards, 17 TDs and 23 interceptions, including Pitt's 7-3 Cotton Bowl loss to SMU . . . Earned All-America honors as a junior and finished fourth in Heisman Trophy balloting . . . Connected on 226 of 380 attempts (59.5) for 2,876 yards, 37 touchdowns and 23 interceptions . . . Was MVP at Sugar Bowl that year for second-ranked Panthers, completing 26 passes for 261 yards and three TDs in 24-20 edging of Georgia . . . Led Pitt to Gator Bowl in 1980, completing 116 of 224 throws (51.8) for 1,609 yards, 15 TDs and 14 interceptions . . . Became starter midway through freshman season of '79 hitting on 130 of 222 passes (58.6) for 1,680 yards, 10 scores and nine pick-offs . . . Suffered knee injury versus West Virginia that season, missing three games and later requiring off-season surgery . . . Has B.A. in communications.

PERSONAL: Married to Claire (1/30/85), Marino and his wife have four children, Daniel Charles (9/4/86), Michael Joseph (5/18/88), Joseph Donald (7/26/89) and Alexandra Claire (5/13/92) and reside in Fort Lauderdale . . . An outstanding golfer . . . Teamed with golf pro Dan Pohl to win the championship at the AT&T Pebble Beach National ProAm in February 1988, at Pebble Beach, Calif. . . In '91 off-season worked as color commentator on USA cable network's coverage of World League of American Football . . . PRO: 1992 – Provides big plays for Dolphins from free safety position . . . Started all 16 regular season games and both playoff contests . . . Ranked among team leaders in almost every defensive statistical category . . . Finished second team in tackles with 90 (66 solo), first on team with five interceptions and second on team with 12 passes defensed and added a fumble recovery . . . Named second-team All-Pro by the Associated Press and first-team All-AFC by United Press International . . . Voted as team's Outstanding Defensive Back for second consecutive season by South Florida media . . . Had four or more tackles in 13 games . . . Opened season with eight tackles at Cleveland (9/14) . . . Had seven tackles vs. L.A. Rams (9/20) . . . Had career game in Miami's 37-10 win at Buffalo (10/4) with three tackles, three passes defensed, three interceptions and a team-record 103-yard return for a touchdown (see below) . . . Named AFC Defensive Player of the Week and earned Miller Lite NFL Player of the Week honors following performance against Bills . . . Marked second time in career he won AFC Defensive Player of the Week honors as he won that award after the fifth weekend of the 1989 season following a three-tackle, one interception game against Cleveland in Miami's 13-10 overtime win . . . Joined LB Bryan Cox as the only two players in Dolphin history to win AFC Defensive Player of the Week honors more than once in their careers . . . Recorded ten tackles at N.Y. Jets (11/1) . . . Finished with six tackles and a pass defended vs. Buffalo (11/16) . . . Had two interceptions of quarterback Browning Nagle vs. N.Y. Jets (12/20) . . .

PLAYOFFS: Finished second on team with 17 tackles and tied for team lead with two interceptions . . . Added a forced fumble and two passes defended . . . Had four tackles and an interception in AFC Divisional Playoff game vs. San Diego (1/10/93) . . . Led team with 13 tackles and also added an interception and a forced fumble in AFC Championship game vs. Buffalo (1/17/93) . . .

INTERCEPTIONS: Oliver recorded team-high five interceptions in 1992 which tied his single season career high that he established in 1990 and 1991 . . . Has led or tied for team lead in interceptions in each of his four seasons in league and is the only player in team history to lead or tie for team lead in interceptions in each of his first four professional seasons . . . Overall, he is first Dolphin player to lead or share the team lead in interceptions for four consecutive years since Glenn Blackwood (1984-87) . . . His five interceptions placed him tied for 11th in the AFC . . . Has career total of 19 INTs which ranks eighth among team's all-time interception leaders . . . His five interceptions in '92 came in two games as he had three interceptions at Buffalo (10/4) and two picks vs. the N.Y. Jets (12/20) to up his career total to three games of two or more interceptions . . . Had a career game in Miami's 37-10 win at Buffalo (10/4) with three tackles, three passes defended and a career-high three interceptions . . . His three INTs surpassed his previous best of two interceptions which he recorded on October 20, 1991, against Houston . . . Became first Dolphin player to record three interceptions in a game since William Judson recorded the feat at the N.Y. Jets on October 16, 1983 . . . In addition, Oliver also returned one of his interceptions for a touchdown as he intercepted a Jim Kelly pass three yards deep in the end zone and returned the ball 103 yards for a touchdown . . . Oliver's 103-yard return tied the NFL record for the all-time longest interception return, which had been set by San Diego's Vencie Glenn against Denver on November 29, 1987:

LONGEST INTERCEPTION RETURNS IN NFL HISTORY

NAME	TEAM	DATE	OPPONENT	INTERCEPTION RETURN
1. LOUIS OLIVER	MIAMI	10/4/92	AT BUFFALO	103 YARDS
Vencie Glenn	San Diego	11/29/87	Denver	103 yards
3. Bob Smith	Detroit	11/24/49	Chicago	102 yards
Erich Barnes	N.Y. Giants	10/15/61	Dallas	102 yards
Gary Barbaro	Kansas City	12/11/77	Seattle	102 yards
Louis Breedon	Cincinnati	11/8/81	San Diego	102 yards
Eddie Anderson	L.A. Raiders	12/14/92	at Miami	102 yards

In addition, the 103-yard return broke the team record for longest interception return, which was a 96-yard return for a touchdown by Dick Anderson on November 24, 1966, off a Tom Sherman pass at Boston . . . The touchdown return was Oliver's first career touchdown (in fact, it was his first touchdown on any level, including high school, college, or pro), and he became the first Dolphin player to return an interception for a touchdown since Jarvis Williams had a 42-yard scoring return at Washington on December 2, 1990 . . . Overall, Oliver's three interceptions netted him a total of 170 return yards in the game, which is the most in Dolphin history, breaking the record held by Dick Anderson with 121 yards on four interceptions against Pittsburgh on December 3, 1973 . . . It also was the second-highest single-game total in NFL history, behind only San Diego's Charlie McNeil, who had 177 yards on interception returns against Houston on September 24, 1961 . . . In addition, Oliver's three interceptions is tied for the second highest single game total in Dolphin history, surpassed only by Anderson's four interception game against the Steelers on December 3, 1973.

1991 - Started all 16 games at free safety . . . Finished season with team-leading totals of 88 tackles (73 solo) and five interceptions . . . Added a fumble recovery and eight passes defended . . . Voted as Miami's Outstanding Defensive Back by South Florida media . . . Became first Dolphin defensive back to lead team in tackles since Willie West in 1966 . . . His five interceptions placed him tied for fourth in the AFC and tied for fifth in the NFL . . . Total of five interceptions matches his previous career best of five INTs in 1990 (equalled in 1992) . . . Opened season with team-leading 13 tackles and added an interception (picked off a Jim Kelly pass in end zone and returned it 37 yards) at Buffalo (9/1) . . . Had team-high eight tackles at Detroit (9/15) . . . Had three interceptions in a two-game span vs. Houston (10/20) and at Indianapolis (11/3) . . . Registered three tackles and first career game with two interceptions vs. Houston (10/20) by picking off two Warren Moon passes and returning them a total of 26 yards . . . Missed seven games on IR and was activated on November 3 . . . Made return to action at Indianapolis (11/8) and had three punts for 103 yards for an average of 34.3 yards per kick . . . Recorded four punts for 199 yards with an average of 49.8 yards per kick vs. Houston (11/22) . . . Had an average of 46.5 yards per kick on four punts for 186 yards at New Orleans (11/29) . . . Registered season-best 47.6 yards per kick on five boots for 238 yards with season-long 60-yarder vs. L.A. Raiders (12/14) . . . Had the shortest kick of career with a one-yard punt at New England (12/27) . . .

PLAYOFFS: Had 12 punts for 476 yards for an average of 39.7 yards per punt and a long of 51 yards in playoffs . . . Had an outstanding contest in AFC Divisional Playoff game vs. San Diego (1/10/93) . . . Averaged 41.0 yards on eight kicks (with a long punt of 51 yards) and had four kicks downed inside the 20-yard line, including three that were downed inside the five-yard line . . . Recorded four kicks for 148 yards with an average of 37.0 yards per punt in AFC Championship game vs. Buffalo (1/17/93) . . .

ALL-TIME LISTS: Roby is second on the all-time Dolphin punt chart with 555 career punts (behind current Miami receivers coach Larry Seiple's 633 punts) . . . His career average of 43.3 yards per punt is the highest career average in Dolphin history . . . Qualified for NFL's all-time top twenty punt list in 1989 when he registered his 300th career punt . . . Career average of 43.3 yards per punt is ninth best in NFL history . . . Has suffered just three blocked punts in career which is tied with Sean Landetta for the third fewest blocked punts among the top ten all-time NFL punters:

1991 – Finished season as NFL leader in overall punting with an average of 45.7 yards per kick (2,466 yards on 54 punts), his single season career best . . . He also set a new Dolphin team record for the highest season punting average, surpassing his former team mark of 44.7 yards per punt (set in 1984) . . . Became first Dolphin punter to lead NFL in punting average . . . Averaged 52.3 yards on four kicks at Detroit (9/15) and had a long kick of 56 yards . . . Had seven punts for an average of 52.7 yards per punt vs. Green Bay (9/22), including a 58-yard kick, with six of his seven punts going 50 yards or longer . . . His punting yardage in that game was a career high and his average yards per punt was the third best single game average of his career . . . Helped set-up tying touchdown against Green Bay with 54-yard punt which went out of bounds on the Packer two-yard line, and two plays later Chuck Klingbell recovered a Don Majkowski fumble in the end zone to give the Dolphins their only touchdown and a 13-13 tie en route to their eventual 16-13 win . . . Had an average of 45.3 yards per kick on four punts at N.Y. Jets (9/29), but also had one of his punts blocked and returned 11 yards for a touchdown by the Jets' Chris Burkett just prior to halftime . . . It was the first time a Dolphin blocked punt was returned for a touchdown since Jewel Thomas of the L.A. Rams recovered a blocked punt in the end zone on November 19, 1980 . . . It was only the third time in Roby's career (fourth, including playoff games) that he had a punt blocked and it was the first time one of his blocked punts was returned for a touchdown . . . After his first blocked punt as a rookie in 1983, Roby went 117 regular season games and suffered only one other blocked punt (in 1989) before Burkett's block in 1991 . . . Had one of his best career games vs. Houston (10/20) by averaging 53.8 yards per punt (215 total yards) on four kicks, which was his 1991 single game best as well as the second-highest single game average (minimum four punts) in Dolphin history and in his career (surpassed only by his average of 58.5 yards per punt on Sept. 28, 1986 vs. San Francisco), and he had a season-long kick of 64 yards . . . Had one punt for 62 yards (his second longest punt of the season) vs. Buffalo (11/18) . . . However, on his only punt vs. the N.Y. Jets (12/22), he suffered a torn Achilles tendon in his left leg that sidelined him the rest of the game . . . Underwent surgery on Dec. 23 by Dr. Dan Kanell and Dr. Peter Indelicato to repair the tendon . . . His injury in that Jets game forced Pete Stoyanovich to punt twice in that contest, his first-ever NFL punts . . . It also was the first time since 1987 that someone other than Roby punted for the Dolphins . . .

1991 NFL PUNTING CHAMPION: Roby led the entire NFL in punting average in 1991 . . . Finished season with an average of 45.7 yards per kick (2,466 yards on 54 punts), his single season career best . . . Also set new Dolphin team record for the highest season punting average, surpassing his former team mark of 44.7 yards per punt (set in 1984) . . . Became first Dolphin to lead NFL in punting average:

1990 – Finished season with 72 punts for 3,022 yards, 42.0 avg. and a net average of 35.6 yards per kick . . . Ranked fourth in the AFC and tied for ninth in the NFL in punting average . . . Averaged 43.4 yards per punt in 50 kicks over last 11 games after averaging just 38.8 yards per punt over his first five games . . . Booted a 59-yard punt vs. Buffalo (9/16) . . . Averaged 46.4 yards on five punts with a long of 56 yards vs. New England (10/18) . . . Had four kicks for a 46.0 yards per punt against Indianapolis (10/28) . . . Averaged 42.3 yards per punt in three kicks vs. Phoenix (11/4) . . . Recorded a season-high 50.5 yard average in two kicks at Cleveland

(11/25) . . . Averaged 48.8 yards in six kicks at Washington (12/2) . . . Had a 45.8 yards per punt average on five kicks vs. Seattle (12/16), including a season-long punt of 62 yards that was fumbled by Seattle's Chris Warren and recovered by Stevon Moore to set up Miami's first touchdown of the game.

PLAYOFFS: In two playoff games, he booted four punts for 199 yards for an average of 49.8 yards per kick . . . Had two punts for 119 yards, an average of 59.5 yards per kick in playoff opener vs. Kansas City (1/5) . . . Also had a punt blocked by the Chiefs' Charles Washington in contest, his third career (first in playoffs) blocked punt . . . Had two punts for 80 yards, an average of 40.0 yards per kick at Buffalo (1/12) . . . Also recovered a fumble by Al Edwards late in first half that resulted in touchdown.

1989 – Earned second Pro Bowl selection in 1989, having been named to the AFC Pro Bowl team following 1984 season . . . Finished season with 58 punts for 2,458 yards, 42.4 avg. and a net average of 35.3 yards per kick . . . Ranked third in the AFC and seventh in the NFL in punting average . . . Finished third in the AFC and tied for sixth in the NFL in net average . . . Had 18 punts inside the 20-yard line which ranked fifth in the AFC and tied for tenth in the NFL . . . Booted three kicks for 140 yards (46.7 avg.) at New England on Sept. 17 . . . Knocked ball out of end zone for safety after Brian Kinchen's center snap sailed over Roby's head vs. N.Y. Jets (9/24) . . . Forced to take a safety for second straight week when he failed to handle Kinchen's high snap and knocked the ball out of end zone at Houston (10/1) . . . Punted four times for 183 yards for a 45.7 avg. (long of 51 yards) vs. Cleveland (10/8) . . . Placed four of five kicks inside twenty-yard line, including two inside the five yard line, while also booting his season-high kick of 58 yards at Dallas (11/19) . . . Charged with fumble (loss of 19 yards) and a rush (for no yardage) when he failed to handle a bad snap vs. Pittsburgh (11/26) . . . Suffered blocked punt at Indianapolis (12/17) when his punt was blocked by the Colts' Chris Goode and recovered by Goode at Miami's one-yard line . . . Blocked punt was only the second regular season one of Roby's career, with his first blocked punt coming in his rookie season on Oct. 16, 1983, against the Jets (by Darrol Ray).

1988 – Finished fifth in NFL with 43.0 average in '88, which was sixth best in Dolphins history . . . Dressed for all 16 games in 1988, punting in 15 contests . . . Punted 64 times for 2,754 yards with nine touchbacks 18 inside the 20 and no blocks in '88 . . . Handled kick off duties in second half of San Diego game (10/16) after regular kicker Fuad Reveiz suffered thigh injury in contest . . . Had 1988 single-game high with 52.0 average (on four punts) at Indianapolis (9/25) . . . Was not called upon to punt in Cleveland contest (12/12) for third time in his career (and fourth time in Miami history).

1987 – Played in 10 games in '87, punting in nine . . . Only game he did not kick in was '87 opener at New England (9/13) . . . Suffered severely sprained right ankle and mild groin pull in that contest when tackled by Patriots' Rod McSwain after bad center snap . . . Was placed on injured reserve on 9/16 and activated on 10/31 . . . For second straight year had longest punt in NFL; booted 77-yarder versus Buffalo (11/29), tying Steve Cox of Washington for that honor in '87 . . . That 77-yarder marked longest punt in Dolphin history, breaking previous record of 73 yards done twice by Roby and once by Seiple . . . Punted 32 times for 1,371 yards with three touchbacks, eight inside the 20 and no blocks in '87 . . . Handled kick off chores versus Jets (12/7) after Fuad Reveiz was injured . . . For second straight year (and third time of career, also 1984) had best net average in AFC (38.3) . . . His 42.8-yard average was just behind AFC leader Ralf Mojsiejenko (San Diego, 42.9) but Roby (32 punts) did not have necessary 2.5 punts per game (38 total) to qualify among league leaders because of games missed due to his injuries . . . Named All-AFC in '87 by Pro Football Weekly.

1986 – Finished second in AFC in 1986 with 44.2 average (behind Colts' Rohn Stark at 45.2) . . . Punted fewest times of any regular in AFC (56) . . . Saw action in 15 games in '86 with rare non-appearance (first time in career) versus Buffalo (10/12/86) as Dolphins did not have to punt all afternoon . . . Was only second time in team history that Dolphins did not punt at least once in a game . . . His game average (58.5, 4-234) vs. San Francisco shattered Miami record of 52.0, set by Seiple vs. Jets in '73 . . . Following '86 campaign, was named honorable mention All-NFL by AP and second-team All-NFL by UPI.

1985 – Played in all 16 regular-season games along with two playoff contests in 1985 . . . Finished second in league in punting . . . Named College and Pro Football Newsweekly first-team All-Pro . . . Also NEA second-team All-Pro and UPI second-team All-AFC . . . Finished 1985 with 59 punts for 2,576 yards (43.7 average).

1984 – Was most honored NFL punter or kicker in 1984 . . . Enjoyed banner season despite fewest punts (51) among league regulars . . . Kicker

#10

College: Indiana '89

Acquired: D8, 1989

NFL: Fifth Season

Dolphins: Fifth Season

PRO: 1992 – With 124 points (30-37 in field goals and 34-36 in PATs), Stoyanovich led the Dolphins in scoring and finished first in scoring in the NFL . . . He was first in the AFC and tied for first in the NFL (along with Washington's Chip Lohmiller) in field goals made (30) and was first in the AFC and second in the NFL (behind Lohmiller) in field goals attempted (37) . . . His accuracy percentage of 81.1% (30-37) was fourth in the AFC and sixth in the NFL . . . Stoyanovich's 124 points is a new Dolphin single season scoring record, breaking the former team record of 121 points which he set in 1991 . . . He also became only the second Dolphin ever to lead the NFL in scoring, joining Garo Yepremian, who led the NFL in scoring in 1971 with 117 points . . . Was named first team All-Pro by both the Associated Press and The Sporting News and was a first-team All-AFC selection by United Press International . . . Also was the kicker named among the 1992 NFL Alumni Players of the Year . . . He reached 100 points on Dec. 14, 1992 vs. the L.A. Raiders, the third time in his career (1990-92) that he scored 100 or more points . . . He joined Garo Yepremian (1971-73) as the only Dolphins to score 100 or more points in three different seasons . . . On Dec. 27, 1992 at New England he kicked his 100th career field goal and qualified for the NFL's rankings for career accuracy . . . By converting all three field goals in that contest, he qualified for the rankings with a percentage of 80.8% (101 field goals made of 125 field goals attempted), which ranks him first among the NFL's all-time field goal percentage leaders . . . In 1992 he was 27-29 in field goal attempts inside 50 yards but was 3-8 in field goal tries from 50 yards or more . . . Over the course of his four-year NFL career, Stoyanovich ranks third in field goals made (101), third in points (440), and second in field goal percentage (80.8%) among kickers in the regular season over that four-year span, and has kicked more field goals of 50 or more yards (nine) in the regular season than any kicker in the league:

In addition to his duties as a placekicker, on September 14, 1992 at Cleveland he also was called on to handle the punting duties after Reggie Roby's knee injury and punted twice for 90 yards (including a 48-yard punt) in that contest, an average of 45.0 yards per kick, without a return . . . It was only the second time in his NFL career that he was used as a punter, punting twice for 85 yards (42.5 yards per kick) on December 22, 1991 vs. the N.Y. Jets following Roby's Achilles heel injury . . . Struggled during the preseason, going 9-14 in field goal tries, in part because he worked with a new holder (Jim Jensen) and snapper (Jeff Dellenbach) in the last two preseason games following injuries to holders Scott Mitchell and Scott Secules and snapper Jeff Uhlenhake . . . Did lead the Dolphins in scoring during the preseason with 36 points . . .

SCORING: With 124 points in 1992, Stoyanovich registered his third consecutive 100-point season and the third overall 100-point season of his four-year career (he scored 100 or more points in 1991 and 1990) . . . He joined Garo Yepremian (1971-73) as the only Dolphins to score 100 or more points in three seasons . . . It was the ninth time a Dolphin scored 100 or more points, and Stoyanovich has three of those nine 100-point seasons . . . Stoyanovich led the NFL in scoring in 1992, and he joined Yepremian (117 points in 1971) as the only Dolphin players ever to have led the NFL in scoring . . . His 124 points established a new Dolphin single season scoring record, and with his three seasons of 100 or more points, Stoyanovich holds the top two and three of the top ten single season scoring totals in Dolphin history after just four years in the NFL:

			Uwe von Schamann	1983	99

In his career, Stoyanovich has scored 440 points, going 101-125 in field goals and 137-141 in extra points . . . His 440 career points ranks fifth among the Dolphins' all-time leading scorers . . . On September 27th at Seattle, Stoyanovich passed Larry Csonka, who had been fifth with 342 points . . . Stoyanovich needs 11 points to move past Nat Moore (450 points) into fourth place, while Mark Clayton is third with 492 points, Uwe von Schamann is second with 540 points, and Garo Yepremian is first with the Dolphins career scoring record of 830 points . . .

LONG FIELD GOALS: On Sept. 29, 1991 at the N.Y. Jets, Stoyanovich kicked a 53-yard field goal, his sixth career field goal of 50 or more yards, breaking the team record (previously held by Garo Yepremian) for the most career field goals of 50 or more yards . . . Stoyanovich accomplished the feat in just his third season, while Yepremian's Dolphin career lasted nine years (1970-78) . . . He has kicked 11 field goals in his career of 50 or more yards, including four in 1992 (52 yards on Nov. 22nd vs. Houston, 50 yards on Nov. 16th vs. Buffalo, 53 yards on Sept. 27th at Seattle, and 51 yards in the AFC title game on Jan. 17th vs. Buffalo):

Stoyanovich has booted the two longest field goals in team history with a 59-yarder on November 12, 1989 at the N.Y. Jets at Giants Stadium and a 58-yarder on January 5, 1991 in a playoff game against the Kansas City Chiefs at Joe Robbie Stadium . . . His 59-yard effort against the Jets set an NFL record for the longest field goal by a rookie and broke Garo Yepremian's team record for the longest field goal in Dolphin history . . . Yepremian had booted a 54-yard field goal on Oct. 22, 1972 vs. Buffalo . . . Stoyanovich's 59-yard field goal is tied for the fourth longest field goal in NFL history, and his 58-yard FG against the Chiefs in the 1990 playoffs is tied for the sixth longest field goal, giving Stoyanovich two of the six longest field goals in NFL history:

58	Nick Lowery, K.C.	vs. Washington	Sept. 18, 1983
58	Dan Miller, Baltimore	vs. San Diego	Dec. 26, 1982

His 58-yard field goal in the AFC First Round playoff game vs. Kansas City on Jan. 5, 1991 is the longest field goal ever kicked in NFL post-season history, breaking the previous record of 54 yards set by Detroit's Eddie Murray on December 31, 1983 against San Francisco . . . Combined with his 51 yard field goal in the AFC Championship Game at Joe Robbie Stadium against Buffalo on January 18, 1993, Stoyanovich has two of the six longest field goals in NFL post-season history:

LONGEST FIELD GOALS, NFL PLAYOFFS

LENGTH	KICKER	OPPONENT	DATE

It also broke the Dolphin playoff record for the longest field goal, which was 51 yards by Fuad Reveiz on January 4, 1986 against Cleveland . . .

CLUTCH KICKS: Three times in 1992, Stoyanovich won games by kicking a field goal in the fourth quarter or in overtime . . . On Nov. 22, 1992 vs. Houston, his 52-yard field goal with two seconds left in regulation broke a 16-16 tie and gave the Dolphins a 19-16 victory . . . On Dec. 20, 1992 vs. the N.Y. Jets, his 37-yard field goal with seven seconds left in regulation brought the Dolphins back from a 17-16 deficit and gave them a 19-17 victory . . . On December 27, 1992 in New England his 35-yard field goal with 6:43 left in overtime provided the winning points in the Dolphins' 16-13 comeback victory . . . Nine times in his career (covering eight games) Stoyanovich has kicked a field goal that has won a game in either overtime or the fourth quarter or tied a contest in the final period that the Dolphins would later win in overtime:

In 1992 his accuracy percentage of 81.1% (30-37) was fourth in the AFC and sixth in the NFL . . . In his career he is 92-106 (86.8%) of field goals of under 50 yards . . . Stoyanovich was 27-29 in 1992 in field goal attempts under 50 yards, with his only misses coming on a 36-yard field goal attempt on Dec. 14th vs. the L.A. Raiders and on a 35-yard attempt on Nov. 16th vs. Buffalo . . . Before his miss at Buffalo, he had converted his first 14 field goals of under 50 yards in 1992 . . . Was just 3-8 in field goal tries from 50 or more yards away in '92 . . . Missed both his 50-yard attempts on Oct. 11, 1992 vs. Atlanta, ending his streak of converting ten consecutive field goals, dating back to his third attempt on September 20, 1992 vs. the L.A. Rams . . . The only seven field goals he missed in 1992 was a 50-yard attempt vs. the Rams, his two 50-yard kicks against the Falcons, a 54-yard attempt on Nov. 8th at Indianapolis, a 35-yard miss on Nov. 16th vs. Buffalo, a 55-yard attempt on Nov. 29th at New Orleans, and a 36-yard attempt on Dec. 14th vs. the L.A. Raiders . . . In addition by going 0-2 in that Falcon contest, Stoyanovich ended his streak of having at least one field goal in his previous 13 games, seven games short of Garo Yepremian's club record of 20 straight games with at least one field goal . . . Has missed four extra points in his career, on Dec. 20, 1992 vs. the N.Y. Jets (an important miss to leave the Dolphins trailing 17-16 with 2:30 left in the game, but the Dolphins went on to win 19-17 when Stoyanovich kicked a 37-yard field goal with seven seconds left in regulation), on October 25, 1992 vs. Indianapolis, on Dec. 15, 1991 at San Diego (a critical PAT miss in the Dolphins' 38-30 loss to the Chargers) and on Sept. 24, 1989 vs. the Jets . . .

1992 PLAYOFFS: Finished the playoffs as the Dolphins' second leading scorer, going 2-2 in field goal attempts and 5-5 in extra points for 11 points . . . In AFC title contest on Jan. 17th vs. Buffalo, Stoyanovich was 1-1 in field goals, hitting on a 51-yard field goal attempt . . . It was the longest field goal kicked in an AFC Championship Game, it was the second longest field goal in Dolphin playoff history (surpassed only by Stoyanovich's 58-yard field goal vs. Kansas City on January 5, 1991), and it tied for the sixth longest field goal in NFL playoff history . . . In playoff contest vs. San Diego on Jan. 10th, he was 1-1 in field goal attempts, connecting from 22 yards out, and made all four of his PATs . . .

GAME HIGHLIGHTS - AT NEW ENGLAND (DEC. 27):

Kicked a game-winning 35-yard field goal 6:43 left in overtime on Dec. 27th at New England to give the Dolphins a comeback 16-13 win . . . It was the third time in 1992 and the ninth time in his career that Stoyanovich won a game for the Dolphins with a field goal in the fourth quarter or in overtime or tied a game in the fourth quarter that the Dolphins would go on to win in overtime . . . Was 3-3 in field goals in that contest, with his second kick in the game giving him 100 field goals made in his career and qualifying him for the NFL's all-time accuracy ranking . . . By converting all three of his field goals, he became the NFL's all-time leader in field goal accuracy when he qualified for that ranking . . . His ten points gave him 124 points for the season, setting a Dolphin single season scoring record and he also finished as the leading scorer in the NFL . . .

VS. N.Y. JETS (DEC. 20): Kicked a 37-yard field goal with seven seconds left in contest to give the Dolphins a comeback 19-17 win . . . It was the second time in 1992 and the eighth time in his career that Stoyanovich kicked a fourth quarter (or overtime) game-winning (or tying) field goal . . . Redeemed himself for missing an extra point with 2:30 left in the contest following a Dan Marino to Tony Martin 55-yard touchdown pass that left the Dolphins trailing the Jets by one point, 17-16 . . .

VS. HOUSTON (NOV. 22): Had one of the best games of his career on Nov. 22nd vs. Houston . . . Scored 13 points, going 4-4 in field goals (converting from 38, 40, 29, and 52 yards) and 1-1 in extra points . . . It was the third time in 1992 and the fourth time in his career that he kicked four field goals in a game, his single game career high . . . His final field goal was a 52-yard game-winning kick with two seconds left in the game that broke a 16-16 tie and gave the Dolphins a 19-16 victory . . . It marked the seventh time in his NFL career that Stoyanovich kicked a field goal in the fourth quarter or overtime to win a game or to tie a game that the Dolphins would win in overtime . . . It also was his tenth career field goal (including one FG in the playoffs) of 50 or more yards, extending his team record of most 50-yard field goals . . .

VS. BUFFALO (NOV. 16): Was 2-3 in field goals on Nov. 16th vs. Buffalo, hitting on 21 and 50 yards out and missing from 35 yards . . . His two field goals made ended his streak three straight games without kicking a field goal, the longest such streak of his career . . . In addition, his miss from 35 yards out ended his streak of 14 consecutive field goals made from under 50 yards and was one of only two field goals he missed from less than 50 yards out in 1992 . . . His 50-yard field goal was his second FG of 50 or more yards in 1992 and was the ninth 50-yard field goal of his career (including playoffs) . . .

AT INDIANAPOLIS (NOV. 8): Was 0-1 in field goal attempts on Nov. 8th at Indianapolis, missing a 54-yard attempt . . . It was his third straight game without kicking a field goal, the first time in his career he went three consecutive games without a field goal . . . Did not attempt a field goal in his previous two contests, on Nov. 1st at N.Y. Jets, and on Oct. 25th vs. Indianapolis, only the third time in his career that Stoyanovich went back-to-back games without a field goal attempt . . .

VS. INDIANAPOLIS (OCT. 25): Vs. Colts he was 2-3 in extra points, with his missed extra point coming with 6:01 left in the game and the Dolphins ahead 20-17 in a contest the Colts came back to win 31-20 . . . It was only the third extra point he missed in his career . . .

VS. ATLANTA (OCT. 11): Missed both his field goal attempts (both from 50 yards) on Oct. 11th vs. Atlanta . . . It broke his streak of 10 consecutive field goals made and also ended his streak of kicking at least one field goal in 13 consecutive games . . .

AT BUFFALO (OCT. 4): Scored 13 points on Oct. 4th at Buffalo by going 3-3 in field goals made (converting from 30, 43, and 34 yards out) and 4-4 in extra points . . .

AT SEATTLE (SEPT. 27): Scored 13 points by going 4-4 in field goals and 1-1 in extra points on September 27th at Seattle . . . It was the third time in his career (and the second straight game) that he kicked four field goals in a game . . . His first field goal against the Seahawks was a 53-yard kick, which is tied for the fourth longest field goal in Dolphin history (including playoffs) and was tied for the third longest kick of his career . . . It also was the eighth field goal (including playoffs) of 50 or more yards in his career . . . His 13 points in that contest moved him past Larry Csonka and into fifth place on Miami's all-time scoring list . . .

VS. L.A. RAMS (SEPT. 20): Was 4-5 in field goals and 2-2 in PATs vs. L.A. Rams on September 20th . . . His four field goals tied his single game career high (he kicked four field goals on December 1, 1991 vs. Tampa Bay), and his 14 points was his second highest single game total, surpassed only by his 15 points on Dec. 1, 1991 vs. the Bucs . . .

AT CLEVELAND (SEPT. 14): Was 2-2 in field goals on September 14th at Cleveland, and along with his three PATs, his nine points in that contest moved him past Fuad Reveiz into sixth place on the Dolphins' all-time scoring list . . . Also was called on to handle the punting duties after Reggie Roby's knee injury and punted twice for 90 yards (including a 48-yard punt), an average of 45.0 yards per kick, without a return . . . It was only the second time in his NFL career that he was used as a punter, punting twice for 85 yards (42.5 yards per kick) on December 22, 1991 vs. the N.Y. Jets following Roby's Achilles heel injury.

1991 – Scored 121 points, going 31-37 (83.8%) in field goals and 28-29 in extra points, playing in only 14 games . . . His 121 points ranked first in the AFC and second in the NFL (behind the Redskins' Chip Lohmiller's 149 points) in scoring and he led the Dolphins in that category . . . Also ranked first in the AFC and tied for first the NFL (with Lohmiller) in field goals made with 31 FGs . . . He became only the second Dolphin in club history to lead the AFC in scoring (Garo Yepremian led the NFL in scoring with 117 points in 1971) and he became only the second Dolphin to lead the AFC in field goals (Yepremian led the NFL in field goals with 28 in 1971) . . . At the time, Stoyanovich's 121 points set a new Dolphin individual single season scoring record, breaking Garo Yepremian's former team record of 117 points in a season (he then broke his own record in 1992 with 124 points) . . . Stoyanovich's 31 field goals made also set a new Dolphin single season record for most field goals, breaking the former team record which was set when Garo Yepremian kicked 28 field goals in 1971 . . . His accuracy mark of 83.8% (31-37) was the Dolphins' second best single-season accuracy mark, surpassed only by his team mark of 84.0% (21-25) which he set in 1990 . . . His 83.8% accuracy percentage in 1991 ranked second in the AFC and fourth in the NFL, behind the Rams' Tony Zendejas (who was 17-17 for 100%), the Raiders' Jeff Jaeger (29-34 for 85.3%), and Philadelphia's Roger Ruzek (28-33 for 84.8%) . . . Stoyanovich made his first nine field goals of 1991 before missing on a 58-yard attempt on the last play of the first half on October 6th at New England . . . Scored 73 points in his last seven games, going 18-21 in field goals and 19-20 in extra points . . . As an unsigned veteran he missed the first regular season game at Buffalo on Sept. 1st as well as all of training camp, including all five preseason games . . . After signing a contract on September 6th was granted a two-week roster exemption and was not activated for game vs. Indianapolis on September 8th, missing his second regular season game . . . Was activated on September 14th and made his season debut on September 15th at Detroit . . . On September 29th at the N.Y. Jets, Stoyanovich kicked a 53-yard field goal, his sixth career field goal (including playoff games) of 50 or more yards, breaking the team record (previously held by Garo Yepremian) for the most career field goals of 50 or more yards . . . Stoyanovich accomplished the feat in just his third season, while Yepremian's Dolphin career lasted nine years (1970-78) . . . Twice in 1991, Stoyanovich won games by kicking a field goal in the fourth quarter or in overtime . . . On Nov. 24th in Chicago, his 27-yard field goal with 4:11 gone in overtime provided the winning points in the Dolphins' 16-13 victory over the Bears . . . On September 22nd in Miami's 16-13 win over Green Bay, Stoyanovich booted a 31-yard field goal with 8:21 remaining in the game to provide the winning points for the Dolphins . . . After missing a 49-yard field goal vs. New England on Nov. 10, 1991, he made 14 straight field goals covering five-plus games (his last kick in that Patriot game followed by all of his kicks in each of the next five games, through Dec. 15th at San Diego) before missing from 53 yards out in his first field goal attempt on Dec. 22nd vs. the N.Y. Jets . . . That streak matched his previous career high for most consecutive field goals, which he set by making his last field goal in 1989 and his first 13 field goals in 1990, and was two field goals short of Garo Yepremian's single season team record of 16 consecutive field goals, which he set during the eighth through 16th weeks in 1978 . . .

GAME HIGHLIGHTS: Was 2-4 in field goals on Dec. 22nd vs. N.Y. Jets . . . It was only the fourth time in career that he missed two field goals in a contest . . . His first miss in that game, from 53 yards out, broke his streak of 14 straight field goal conversions, stretching from his last kick vs. New England on Nov. 10th through his only kick at San Diego on Dec. 15th, covering five-plus games . . . Also was forced into punting duties in that Jets contest following Achilles heel injury to Reggie Roby . . . Stoyanovich became the first Dolphin to punt in a contest other than Roby since 1987 . . . Stoyanovich punted twice for 85 yards (42.5 yards per kick) in that contest, the first two punts of his NFL career, and had a long kick of 49 yards . . . Scored 13 points on Dec. 9th vs. Cincinnati, going 3-3 in field goals (hitting from 50, 22, and 36 yards out) and 4-4 in extra points . . . Was blocked hard by Bengals' special team player Alex Gordon following a kickoff that precipitated an altercation along the Bengal sideline, and while shaken up was not seriously injured . . . Scored a career-high 15 points on Dec. 1st vs. Tampa Bay, going 4-4 in field goals and 3-3 in extra points . . . His four field goals surpassed his previous single game high of three field goals (accomplished eight times previously) and was tied for the second highest number of field goals made in a game by a Dolphin, behind Yepremian's club record of five field goals made, set on September 26, 1971 at Buffalo . . . Stoyanovich's 15 points vs. the Bucs eclipsed his former single game high of 12 points, set Nov. 10, 1991 vs. New England . . . Scored ten points on Nov. 24th at Chicago, going 3-3 in field goals . . . His final field goal, from 27 yards out with 4:11 elapsed in overtime, provided the winning points in Miami's 16-13 victory over the Bears . . . Had 12 points on Nov. 10th vs. New England, going 3-3 in extra points and 3-4 in field goals . . . Missed a 37-yard field goal Nov. 3rd at Indianapolis, his first miss from under 40 yards since Dec. 30, 1990 vs. Indianapolis, hitting on six in a row since then before that miss . . . Was 3-3 in field goal attempts on September 29th at N.Y. Jets, including a 53-yard field goal that was his sixth career FG of 50 or more yards, setting a new Dolphin record . . . Also was 3-3 in field goal attempts on September 22 vs. Green Bay, including a 52-yard field goal . . . Made his season debut on September 15th after being activated the previous day and was 2-2 in field goal attempts.

1990 - Finished sixth in the AFC and 11th in the NFL in scoring among kickers with 100 points, and led the Dolphins in scoring . . . Hit on 21 of 25 field goal attempts (84.0%) and all 37 PATs . . . His 21 field goals were the most by a Dolphin player since Fuad Reveiz kicked 22 field goals in 1985 . . . His 100 points exceeded his rookie total of 95 points in 1989 . . . He became the first Dolphin to score 100 or more points since Fuad Reveiz's 116 points in 1985 and his 100 points is the ninth best single season scoring total in Dolphin history . . . His 84.0% accuracy mark is the best single season accuracy mark in Dolphins history and was fourth best in the AFC in 1990 behind Kansas City's Nick Lowery (34 of 37 for 91.9%), San Diego's John Carney (19 of 21 for 90.5%), and the N.Y. Jets' Pat Leahy (23 of 26 for 88.5%) . . . Stoyanovich made his first 13 attempts in 1990 before missing a 53-yard FG on Nov. 11th at N.Y. Jets and was the last kicker in the NFL to miss a field goal in 1990 . . . Dating back to his last kick in 1989, he connected on 14 consecutive field goals over two seasons before missing against the Jets . . . His 14 straight field goals broke his former single season best of eight consecutive FG, which he accomplished earlier in 1989 and fell two short of Yepremian's club record of 16 consecutive field goals made . . . His last miss before the Nov. 11th Jet game was a 56-yard attempt on Dec. 24, 1989 vs. Kansas City, his second-to-last FG attempt that season (he then hit a 22-yard FG vs. the Chiefs in that game to begin his two-season streak of 14 straight field goals) . . . Converted 18 straight field goal attempts under 40 yards before missing a 28-yard FG attempt Dec. 23rd at Buffalo . . . That miss also was his first career miss of a field goal attempt under 30 yards . . .

PLAYOFFS: Finished as the Dolphins' leading scorer in the postseason with 15 points, going 3-4 (75%) in field goal attempts and 6-6 in point after touchdown kicks . . . Hit on field goals of 58, 49, and 22 yards while missing from 57 yards out . . . Was 1-2 in field goal attempts in playoff game on Jan. 5th vs. Kansas City, hitting his record 58-yard field goal and missing on a 57-yard attempt . . . In playoff game at Buffalo on Jan. 12th was 2-2 in field goal attempts, connecting from 49 and 22 yards out . . .

GAME HIGHLIGHTS: Was 3-3 in field goals Dec. 9th vs. Philadelphia, including two clutch kicks . . . His 34-yard field goal with :03 seconds left in the fourth quarter gave the Dolphins a 20-20 tie with the Eagles, sending the game into overtime, and his 39-yard FG with 2:28 left in OT provided the game-winner in the Dolphins' 23-20 comeback victory . . . It was the second time in his career he won a game with a field goal in overtime . . . On Oct. 28th at Indianapolis he kicked a 53-yard field goal, the third longest of his career, tied for the fourth longest in Dolphin history, and the longest FG ever kicked against the Colts . . . Connected on his only field goal attempt on Sept. 23rd vs. the Giants in Giants Stadium, hitting a 51-yard field goal . . . It was the only points the Dolphins scored in their 20-3 loss to the Giants.

1989 – Had an impressive rookie season . . . Finished initial NFL campaign hitting on 19 of 26 field goal attempts and 38 of 39 extra points for 95 total points . . . Connected on 14 of 15 FG attempts inside the 40-yard line . . . Point total placed him sixth in the AFC and 14th in the NFL in scoring among kickers . . . His 95 points was the third highest total by a Dolphin rookie in club history, surpassed only by Fuad Reveiz' 116 points in 1985 and Uwe von Schamann's 99 points in 1979 . . . His 19 field goals were the third most in team history by a rookie, trailing only Reveiz's 22 FGs in 1985 and von Schamann's 21 FGs in 1979 . . . Finished eighth in the AFC and 17th in the NFL with 19 field goals made . . . Hit 59-yard field goal Nov. 12th at N.Y. Jets . . . It was tied for the fourth longest field goal in NFL history and it set an NFL record for the longest field goal by a rookie . . . It also broke Garo Yepremian's team record for the longest field goal in Dolphins history . . . Yepremian had booted a 54-yard field goal on Oct. 22, 1972 vs. Buffalo . . . Went from goal to hero with overtime field goal vs. Cleveland on Oct. 8th . . . Missed potential game-winning 45-yard field goal with eight seconds left in regulation and score tied 10-10 . . . Rebounded in overtime with game-winning 35-yard FG to give Miami a 13-10 victory . . . Recorded season-high three field goals, including 33-yard boot with six seconds left in contest to break a 20-20 tie and give Miami a 23-20 victory over Green Bay on Oct. 22nd . . . Made professional debut vs. Bills (Sept. 10) and converted a 29-yard field goal and all three of his PATs . . . Eighth-round draft choice (203rd overall) of Miami in 1989.

Coupled with his Pro Bowl selections as a reserve in 1990 and 1991 (although he started the 1990 game due to a shoulder injury to Cincinnati's Anthony Munoz), he became the third player in Dolphin history to be selected to the Pro Bowl team each of his first three seasons in the league . . . He joined quarterback Dan Marino (who was selected to the Pro Bowl each of his first five seasons in the league, 1983-87) and linebacker John Offerdahl (who was a Pro Bowl selection in each of his first five seasons in the league, 1986-90) . . . Webb's three Pro Bowl selections also represents the most Pro Bowl selections by an offensive tackle in Dolphin history, breaking his previous tie with Norm Evans (1972, 1974).

1991 – Started each of the last 14 games at left tackle in 1991, . . . Was selected for the AFC Pro Bowl team in 1991 for second consecutive season . . . Voted by South Florida media as team's Outstanding Offensive Lineman . . . Was inactive for first two games of season while recovering from preseason knee injury . . . Had suffered ligament damage to left knee vs. L.A. Raiders in Tokyo (9/4), however no surgery was necessary . . . Missed the final three preseason games and first two regular season contests as a result of knee injury . . . Was one of two inactive players in season-opener at Buffalo (9/1) . . . Dressed but did not play vs. Indianapolis (9/8) . . . Saw first action of season as starting left tackle at Detroit (9/15) . . . Held Pro Bowl linebacker Derrick Thomas (13.5 sacks in '91) to just three tackles and no sacks at Kansas City (10/13) . . .

PRO BOWL: Was selected as reserve tackle for 1991 Pro Bowl squad . . . Coupled with his rookie Pro Bowl selection in 1990, he became just the third player in Dolphin history to be selected to the Pro Bowl team each of his first two seasons in the league, joining Marino and Offerdahl . . . In addition, Webb's two Pro Bowl selections tied him with Evans for the most Pro Bowl selections by an offensive tackle in team history, a club mark he broke with his third Pro Bowl selection in 1992.

1990 – Started all 16 regular season games and two playoff contests at left tackle . . . Actually played in all 1,028 offensive downs for Miami in regular season and playoffs . . . In fact, only missed one offensive series (seven plays) in preseason . . . Selected as reserve to 1990 AFC Pro Bowl squad, but started game due to injury to Cincinnati's Anthony Munoz . . . Named NFL Rookie of the Year by United Press International, Sports Illustrated, The Sporting News and Pro Football Weekly (see complete list of honors below) . . . Key member of the Dolphin front line that allowed an NFL-low 16 sacks . . . Was accountable for only two sacks . . . Amazingly, Webb was called for only one holding call in '90 . . . Made first NFL start in season opener at New England (9/9) . . . Anchored offensive line which allowed Miami to rush for 177 yards which was team's highest single-game rushing output in a non-replacement contest since 178-yard effort on December 5, 1982 against Minnesota . . . Started in opener alongside rookie left guard Keith Sims (second round pick) and became the first Dolphin rookie draft choices ever to start in the season opener on the offensive line . . . They also became just the third and fourth rookie draft choices to start on opening day on offense in the history of the Dolphins; the only other rookie draft choices to start for Miami on offense on opening day were WR Otto Stowe (1971) and FB Larry Csonka (1968) . . . In addition, rookie NT Alfred Oglesby (third round pick) also started in season opener at New England which marked the first time in Dolphin history that each of the team's top three draft choices all started on opening day . . . First-round draft choice (ninth overall) of Miami in 1990 . . .

HONORS: Many post-season honors in 1990 included: UPI AFC Rookie of the Year, Sports Illustrated Rookie of the Year, The Sporting News Rookie of the Year, Pro Football Weekly Rookie of the Year . . . Earned second team All-Pro from College and Pro Football Newsweekly and second team All-AFC by UPI . . . Named to All-Rookie teams of UPI, Pro Football Weekly, College and Pro Football Newsweekly, Football Digest, Football News and the Pro Football Writers . . . Named as Dolphins' Outstanding Offensive Lineman and Rookie of the Year in 1990 by South Florida media . . . Also won Tommy Fitzgerald Award as outstanding rookie in training camp . . .

PRO BOWL: Voted by NFL peers as backup offensive tackle for the 1990 AFC Pro Bowl team . . . Started in contest due to shoulder injury to Cincinnati's Anthony Munoz . . . Webb became the first rookie offensive tackle and just the second rookie offensive lineman to be selected to the Pro Bowl (other was Colts' guard Chris Hinton in 1983) . . . His rookie selection to the Pro Bowl places him ahead of All-Pro tackles such as Cincinnati's Anthony Munoz, who was a first-round pick in 1980 and was first selected to the Pro Bowl following the '81 season; St. Louis' Dan Dierdorf, who was a second-round pick in 1971 and was first selected following the '74 season; Washington's Joe Jacoby, who joined the NFL as a free agent in 1981 and was first selected following the 1983 season; and Chicago's Jim Covert, who was a first-round pick in 1983 and was first selected following the 1985 season . . . Became the first Dolphin rookie to be selected to the Pro Bowl since John Offerdahl in 1986 . . . One of only three Miami rookies ever selected to the Pro Bowl with the others being Offerdahl and QB Dan Marino (1983) . . . Also is the first Dolphin offensive lineman selected to the Pro Bowl since center Dwight Stephenson earned the recognition in 1987 . . . Joined Norm Evans (1972 and '74) and Wayne Moore (1973) as the only Dolphin tackles ever selected to the Pro Bowl . . .

AGAINST SACK LEADERS: As Miami's starting left tackle, Webb was responsible for blocking some of the NFL's best pass rushers . . . Miami allowed an NFL-low 16 sacks in '90 and Webb was accountable for only two of them . . . Faced Kansas City's Derrick Thomas (20 sacks) in playoffs and held him to three tackles and no sacks . . . Battled Buffalo's Bruce Smith (19 sacks) on three occasions in '90 (twice in regular season and once in playoffs) and held him to a combined total of no sacks and seven tackles . . . Also faced Giants' Lawrence Taylor (10.5 sacks) and held him to three tackles and a half-sack.

DOLPHIN FACT

Despite having 111 players selected to appear in the Pro Bowl since 1970, the Dolphins have never had a cornerback play in the post-season all-star contest. Offensive guard is the position which Miami has been represented at most often (16 times, led by Bob Kuechenberg's six appearances). Surprisingly, despite the high number of appearances by the rest of the offensive line (also, 12 by centers), Dolphins offensive tackles have played in the Pro Bowl on only six occasions (Richmond Webb, three times; Norm Evans, twice and Wayne Moore, once).

DOLPHINS 27, CLEVELAND 23
September 14, 1992

Cleveland Stadium
Cleveland, OH

Mark Higgs scored his second touchdown of the game on a one-yard run with seven seconds remaining in the game to help lift the Miami Dolphins to a come-from-behind 27-23 win over the Cleveland Browns in the season opener before a crowd of 74,765 at Cleveland Stadium and a national audience on Monday Night Football. In the contest, Dan Marino completed 25 of 35 passes for 322 yards and a touchdown to help bring the team back from a fourth quarter deficit for the 19th time in his career. Marino hit on nine of 13 passes for 121 yards in the fourth quarter and completed all four of his pass attempts for 68 yards in the final drive to guide the Dolphins to Higgs' winning touchdown. Higgs rushed 25 times for 90 yards and a pair of scores in the game. In the contest, Miami jumped out to a 14-0 first quarter lead as the Dolphins took the opening kickoff and drove 64 yards in ten plays and capped the drive as Marino connected with Mark Duper on a 25-yard scoring toss. Miami increased its lead to 14-0 on its next possession as Higgs scored on a seven-yard run. The Dolphins' 14-0 lead at the half marked the first time that Miami held an opponent scoreless at the half since September 16, 1990, when the Dolphins led the Buffalo Bills by a 16-0 score and won the game by a 30-7 score. The teams traded field goals in the third quarter as Cleveland closed the score to 14-3 on a 28-yarder by Matt Stover and the Dolphins countered with Pete Stoyanovich hitting a 22-yard effort to take a 17-3 lead. Miami increased its lead to 20-3 in the fourth quarter on a 32-yard field goal by Stoyanovich. However, the Browns countered with two quick touchdowns to close the score to 20-17. First, Bernie Kosar connected with Michael Jackson for a six-yard touchdown to narrow the margin to 20-10. On Miami's next possession, Higgs fumbled the ball and Cleveland's David Brandon returned the ball 32 yards for a touchdown. It was the first time that a fumble was returned for a touchdown against the Dolphins since Buffalo's Cornelius Bennett returned a Marino fumble six yards for a touchdown on November 18, 1991. Miami was forced to punt on its next possession and the Browns drove the ball 77 yards in nine plays and took a 23-20 lead as Kosar hit Mark Bavaro for a three-yard touchdown with 1:18 remaining in the game. Stover's extra point hit the left upright and bounced out. Miami received the kickoff with 1:15 remaining in the game on its own 16-yard line. Marino completed all four of his pass attempts in the drive with the key play being a 22-yarder to Fred Banks and a 15-yard penalty for roughing the passer added to the play to set the ball on the Browns' 19-yard line with :29 seconds remaining in the game. Marino then threw a second completion to Banks for 18 yards to get the ball to the one-yard line and Higgs scored the winning touchdown on the next play.

DOLPHINS 26, L.A. RAMS 10

Joe Robbie Stadium

September 20, 1992

Miami, FL

Mark Higgs rushed for 111 yards and the Dolphin defense forced four turnovers to lead Miami to a 26-10 home opening win over the Los Angeles Rams before a crowd of 55,945 at Joe Robbie Stadium. The win improved Miami's record in home openers to 21-5-1, including an 20-3 mark since Don Shula joined the Dolphins in 1970. In addition, Miami improved its league-best record in inter-conference play to 59-15, including 32-4 at home. In fact, the Dolphins have not lost a regular season game to an NFC opponent at home since the team moved into JRS in 1987. Over that time, the Dolphins are 8-0 at home against the NFC which includes wins over Washington (23-21) in 1987; Green Bay (24-14) and Minnesota (24-7) in 1988; Green Bay (23-20) in 1989; Phoenix (23-3) and Philadelphia (23-20 in OT) in 1990; Green Bay (16-13) and Tampa Bay (33-14) in 1991; and the L.A. Rams (26-10) in 1992. Higgs cracked the 100-yard rushing mark for the fourth time in his career and Miami improved to 3-1 in those games. Overall, the Dolphins improved to 11-2 in games in which a running back has gained 100 or more yards with Dan Marino at quarterback. Miami dominated the first quarter and jumped out to a 17-0 lead. The Dolphins took the opening kickoff and marched the ball 76 yards in 11 plays and capped the drive as Marino connected on a one-yard scoring pass to Ferrell Edmunds. Miami's defense forced the Rams to punt on their next possession and the Dolphins increased the lead to 14-0 as Marino threw a 38-yard scoring strike to Mark Duper. On the Rams' next possession, Dolphins linebacker Bryan Cox sacked Los Angeles QB Jim Everett and forced a fumble which was recovered by Miami's T.J. Turner at the Rams' 22-yard line. The Dolphins closed the first quarter scoring on a 36-yard field goal by Pete Stoyanovich. The Rams narrowed the score to 17-7 in the third quarter as Marino's pass attempt was intercepted by the Rams' Anthony Newman and on the next play Everett connected on a 23-yard touchdown pass to Willie Anderson. Miami increased its lead to 20-7 later in the quarter as Stoyanovich booted a 44-yard field goal. The two teams exchanged field goals in the final period as the Rams scored on a 31-yarder by Tony Zendejas and Miami countered with 27 and 20 yard boots by Stoyanovich. Stoyanovich hit on four field goals on the day to tie his career high for field goals in a game which was set on December 1, 1991, with a four field goal effort against Tampa Bay.

GAME 3

DOLPHINS 19, SEATTLE 17

September 27, 1992

Kingdome

Seattle, WA

Dan Marino returned from a slight concussion to throw a 15-yard touchdown pass to Fred Banks with 2:15 left in the contest to help lead the Dolphins to a come-from-behind 19-17 win at the Seattle Seahawks before a crowd of 59,374 in the Kingdome. Marino was forced to leave the contest late in the fourth quarter as he suffered a slight concussion and dizziness and returned behind center after missing one play and responded two plays later with the winning touchdown pass to Banks. Marino was replaced by reserve quarterback Scott Mitchell for the play and again later in the period by Mitchell as Marino was held out of the Dolphins' final possession as a precaution. It was the first time that Marino was forced to leave a game due to injury since November 26, 1989, against the Pittsburgh Steelers, when he suffered a contusion of his right AC joint (located in the shoulder), forcing him to leave the game for good with seven minutes left in the fourth quarter. Miami scored the only points of the first quarter as Pete Stoyanovich connected on a 53-yard field goal. Seattle took a 7-3 lead early in the second quarter as Kelly Stouffer completed a 26-yard scoring toss to Louis Clark. The Seahawks increased their lead to 10-3 in the period as John Kasay hit on a 35-yard field goal. Miami closed the first half scoring as Stoyanovich booted a 31-yard field goal that brought the score to 10-6. The Dolphins scored the only points of the third quarter as Stoyanovich connected on a 37-yard field goal to narrow the score to 10-9. Miami took a 12-10 lead early in the fourth quarter as Stoyanovich booted his fourth field goal of the game with a 27-yard effort. Seattle rebounded to take a 17-12 lead as fullback John L. Williams scored on a four-yard run on a third-and-goal play. The touchdown was set-up as Marino's pass from his own eight-yard line was deflected by Seattle's Tony Woods and intercepted by Terry Wooden and returned to the six-yard line. However, Marino and the Dolphins recovered as the quarterback guided the team to a 12-play, 80-yard drive to take a 19-17 lead with 2:10 left in the game. Starting on his own 20-yard line, Marino completed four passes to lead Miami to Seattle's 34-yard line. From the 34-yard marker on a second-and-ten play, Marino went back to pass and threw an incomplection and was hit on the play by Wooden and had to leave the game for a play after suffering dizziness following the hit. Mitchell entered the game to face the first regular season action of his NFL career and a third-and-ten play with a 17-12 deficit. Mitchell responded by connecting with Tony Martin on an 18-yard slant pattern to get the first down. Marino returned on the next play and connected with Banks for the winning score.

GAME 4

DOLPHINS 37, BUFFALO 10
October 4, 1992

Rich Stadium
Buffalo, NY

Miami Dolphins safety Louis Oliver recorded a career-high three interceptions and returned one of his pass thefts for a touchdown to help the Dolphins improve to 4-0 and take over sole possession of first place in the AFC East with a 37-10 win over the Buffalo Bills in front of 80,368 at Rich Stadium. The win snapped Miami's six-game losing streak to the Bills at Rich Stadium. The Dolphins' last triumph in Buffalo was a 34-24 win on November 16, 1986. With the win, Miami (4-0) moved into first place (ahead of the second-place Bills' 4-1 mark) in the AFC East for the first time since the second week of the 1990 season when the Dolphins owned a 2-0 record and Buffalo, New England and the N.Y. Jets were each tied for second place in the division with 1-1 records. It had been 34 weeks since Miami had an undisputed claim to first place in the division. In the contest, Oliver helped lead a defensive effort which recorded four interceptions, three sacks, two forced fumbles and a fumble recovery. Buffalo entered the game as the NFL's highest-scoring team (38.2 points per game) and rushing team (166.3 yards per game) and was held to ten points and 63 rushing yards on 22 carries. The Bills opened the scoring and took their only lead of the game midway through the first quarter as kicker Steve Christie booted a 40-yard field goal to give the Bills a 3-0 lead. Miami tied the score at 3-3 later in the quarter as Pete Stoyanovich countered with a 30-yard field goal. Miami took a 10-7 lead as Dan Marino connected with tight end Keith Jackson on a 24-yard touchdown pass. The Dolphins increased their lead to 17-3 as Marino hit Tony Paige on a five-yard touchdown pass. The Bills closed the first half scoring with a 16-yard scoring pass from Jim Kelly to Andre Reed. The Dolphins opened the third quarter scoring on the opening possession of the half as Marino threw a nine-yard scoring pass to Bobby Humphrey to up the lead to 24-10. Miami increased the lead to 31-10 as Oliver intercepted a Kelly pass three yards deep in the endzone and returned the ball 103 yards for a touchdown. Oliver's return tied for the NFL's all-time longest interception return with a 103-yard return by San Diego's Vencie Glenn against Denver on November 29, 1987, as the Dolphins increased their lead to 31-10. It was Oliver's first career touchdown and he became the first Dolphin player to return an interception for a touchdown since Jarvis Williams turned the trick with a 42-yard scoring return at Washington on December 2, 1990. Miami scored the final points of the game on a pair of Stoyanovich field goals from 43 yards and 34 yards.

GAME 5

DOLPHINS 21, ATLANTA 17
October 11, 1992

Joe Robbie Stadium
Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins improved to 5-0 for only the third time in team history with a 21-17 come-from-behind win over the Atlanta Falcons before a crowd of 68,633 at Joe Robbie Stadium. The only other seasons that the Dolphins opened with a 5-0 record was 1972 and 1984 and the team qualified for the playoffs and advanced to the Super Bowl both years (winning Super Bowl VII in 1972 and losing Super Bowl XIX in 1984). In the contest, Miami entered the final period trailing by a 17-14 score and Dan Marino helped lead the Dolphins to the 21st fourth-quarter comeback of his career and the third such game in 1992. Overall, Marino completed 20 of 40 passes for 250 yards with no touchdowns and no interceptions. The Dolphins improved to 5-13 in games in which Marino has been held without a touchdown pass. Running backs Mark Higgs and Bobby Humphrey combined to lead the Dolphin ground attack as Higgs gained 58 yards on 13 carries with two touchdowns and Humphrey added 42 yards on seven carries. Higgs' two touchdown effort marked the second time in his NFL career that he has scored a pair of touchdowns with the only other such game at the Cleveland Browns on September 14, 1992. With the win, Miami improved its NFL-best inter-conference mark to 60-15 (.800), which includes a 33-4 mark at home. In fact, the Dolphins have not lost a regular season game to an NFC opponent at home since the team moved into JRS in 1987. Over that time, the Dolphins are 10-0 at home against the NFC including wins over Washington (23-21) in 1987; Green Bay (24-14) and Minnesota (24-7) in 1988; Green Bay (23-20) in 1989; Phoenix (23-3) and Philadelphia (23-20 in OT) in 1990; Green Bay (16-13) and Tampa Bay (33-14) in 1991 and the L.A. Rams (26-10) and Atlanta (21-17) in 1992. In addition, the Dolphins improved to 16-2 when their game is televised by CBS since the 1980 season. Miami jumped out to a 7-0 lead and scored the only points of the first quarter by taking their opening drive and marching 75 yards in 11 plays and capped the drive off on a 14-yard touchdown run by Higgs. Atlanta tied the score at 7-7 on their next possession as quarterback Chris Miller lofted an 18-yard scoring pass to Mike Pritchard. The Falcons took a 10-7 halftime lead on their next possession as Norm Johnson hit a 52-yard field goal midway through the period. Atlanta had a chance to increase their lead to 17-7 early in the third period, however Miller fumbled the center snap at the Dolphins' one-yard line and linebacker David Griggs recovered the ball on the two-yard line for the Dolphins. However, the Falcons were able to increase their lead to 17-7 later in the third quarter as Miller threw his second touchdown pass of the game with a 22-yarder to Andre Rison. Miami closed the score to 17-14 later in the third quarter as cornerback Vestee Jackson intercepted a Miller pass and returned the ball 30 yards for a touchdown. It was Jackson's first interception since he joined the Dolphins in a trade from the Chicago Bears prior to the 1991 season and his first interception overall since he recorded a 45-yard INT return for a touchdown against Atlanta on November 11, 1990, as a member of the Bears. Miami scored the winning points late in the fourth quarter as Marino helped guide the team on an eight-play, 77-yard drive which was capped-off by a one-yard run by Higgs with 5:01 remaining in the game. The key play in the drive was a 46-yard completion from Marino to wide receiver Tony Martin which moved the ball from Miami's 39-yard line to the Falcons' 15 on a second-and-ten play. Atlanta had a chance to retake the lead on their final possession as the team drove from its own 21-yard line to the Dolphins' 12-yard line and faced a fourth-and-seven play with :43 seconds remaining in the contest but Miller's fourth down pass fell incomplete in the endzone.

GAME 6

DOLPHINS 38, NEW ENGLAND 17

October 18, 1992

Joe Robbie Stadium

Miami, FL

Dan Marino threw four touchdown passes and the Dolphin defense held New England to just 18 rushing yards as Miami earned a 38-17 win over the Patriots before a crowd of 57,282 at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the contest, Marino threw for four touchdowns and tied the all-time NFL record for most career games with four or more touchdown passes. It was Marino's 17th career game of four-plus touchdown throws and tied him with Johnny Unitas for the all-time NFL record. In addition, it marked Marino's first four-touchdown game since December 12, 1988, when Marino threw four TDs against the Cleveland Browns. The Dolphin defense held the Patriots to just 18 rushing yards on 18 carries. New England's 18 total yards on the ground was the second lowest total ever allowed by the Dolphins. The only better defensive effort by Miami against the run was on September 2, 1966, when the Dolphins held the Oakland Raiders to just 16 rushing yards in the first game played in Miami's history. In the contest, New England jumped out to a 10-0 first quarter lead. On the first play from scrimmage, Patriots' safety Jerome Henderson intercepted a Marino pass and returned the ball to Miami's nine-yard line. However, the Dolphin defense held the Patriots out of the endzone and New England was forced to settle for a 19-yard field goal by Charlie Baumann. The Patriots increased their lead to 10-0 later in the period as quarterback Tommy Hodson hit Irving Fryar for a 54-yard touchdown pass to take a 10-0 lead as time ran out in the opening period. Miami rebounded to dominate the second quarter as the team scored 17 unanswered points to take a 17-10 halftime lead. Miami closed the score to 10-7 early in the period as Marino threw a 44-yard scoring bomb to Mark Clayton. Miami tied the score at 10-10 later in the period as Pete Stoyanovich hit a 34-yarder. The Dolphins took the lead for good later in the quarter as Marino connected with tight end Keith Jackson for a six-yard touchdown pass. Miami scored 21 unanswered points in third quarter to take a 38-10 lead. The Dolphins increased the lead to 31-10 early in the quarter as Marino threw a 43-yard scoring bomb to Mark Duper and an 11-yard TD pass to Keith Jackson. Miami closed the third quarter scoring at 38-10 as Mark Higgs rushed for a three-yard touchdown. New England scored the only points of the final period on a 14-yard touchdown pass from Hodson to wide receiver Michael Timpson to close the scoring at 38-17.

GAME 7

INDIANAPOLIS 31, DOLPHINS 20

October 25, 1992

Joe Robbie Stadium

Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins dropped to 6-1 as the team lost its first game of the 1992 season by dropping a 31-20 decision to the Indianapolis Colts before a crowd of 61,117 at Joe Robbie Stadium. Rookie defensive end Marco Coleman had an exceptional game as he recorded nine tackles (eight solo) and three sacks. Coleman's three sacks tied the all-time Dolphin rookie record for most sacks in a contest with A.J. Duhe's three-sack performance at the New York Jets on November 6, 1977. Following a scoreless first quarter, Miami jumped out to a 7-0 lead as Mark Higgs scored a two-yard touchdown to cap a 15-play, 80-drive which took 8:38 off the game clock. The Colts tied the game later in the period as running back Rodney Culver scored on a four-yard run. The Dolphins had a chance to score once more before the half, however Dan Marino's pass from the Colts' 39-yard line was intercepted by Tony Stargell with just :05 seconds left in the half. Miami took a 14-7 lead midway through the fourth quarter on a flea-flicker play as Marino handed off to Higgs who tossed the ball back to Marino and the quarterback completed a 48-yard scoring bomb to Mark Duper. However, the Colts were able to tie the score at 14-14 as Clarence Verdin returned a Joe Prokop punt 84 yards for a touchdown. The 84-yard scoring return was the longest return ever recorded against Miami with the previous long being an 83-yarder by Billy Johnson at Houston on November 16, 1975. In addition, it was the first punt return for a score against Miami since Robbie Martin of Indianapolis had a 70-yard punt return for a touchdown on November 17, 1985, in the Hoosier Dome. The Colts took a 17-14 lead midway through the final quarter as Dean Biasucci booted a 32-yard field goal. Miami rebounded to take a 20-17 lead on their next drive as Marino threw a 12-yard scoring strike to Tony Martin. Pete Stoyanovich's extra point attempt was wide to the left. The key play in the drive was a 48-yard completion from Marino to Martin on a third-and-17 play from Miami's 39-yard line. The Colts came right back to take a 24-20 lead as George scored on a one-yard run 1:32 left in the contest. The Dolphins got the ball back on their own 38-yard line and drove the ball to the Colts' seven-yard line with just :17 seconds left in the contest and faced a fourth-and-goal situation when Indianapolis' Steve Emtman intercepted Marino's pass on his own ten-yard line and raced 90 yards for the clinching score. It was the second-longest interception return in history against Miami, behind only a 97-yard effort by the L.A. Raiders' Mike Haynes in the Orange Bowl on December 2, 1984.

GAME 8

N.Y. JETS 26, DOLPHINS 14
November 1, 1992

Giants Stadium
East Rutherford, NJ

Jets running back Brad Baxter recorded 103 yards on the ground and reserve quarterback Ken O'Brien threw three touchdown passes to lead the New York Jets to a 26-14 win over the Dolphins before a crowd of 69,313 at Giants Stadium. The Jets dominated in almost every statistical category by holding the advantage in total first downs (21 to 11), total net yards (363 to 296), net yards rushing (160 to 83), third down conversions (10 of 18 to 1 of 9) and time of possession (40:26 to 19:34). In the contest, New York dominated the first half and jumped out to a 23-0 lead at intermission. The Jets opened the scoring to take a 7-0 lead midway through the first quarter as O'Brien connected with tight end Johnny Mitchell for a 37-yard touchdown pass. New York increased their advantage to 9-0 later in the opening period as defensive tackle Marvin Washington sacked Dan Marino in the endzone for a safety. It marked the first time that an opponent has scored a safety against Miami since October 1, 1989, when Miami punter Reggie Roby fumbled a snap out of the endzone at the Houston Oilers. It also marked the first time in his ten-year NFL career that Marino was sacked for a safety. The Jets increased their lead to 16-0 in the second period on a 12-play, 71-yard drive which took 7:36 off the game clock as O'Brien threw his second touchdown of the game and combined with wide receiver Al Toon for a four-yard score. The Jets scored the final points of the half as O'Brien hit wide receiver Rob Moore for a 20-yard touchdown and a 23-0 halftime lead. The Jets' 23-0 advantage at halftime marked the first time that Miami was shut out at the half since a 28-0 deficit at Kansas City on October 13, 1991. Miami scored the only points of the third quarter as Marino connected with tight end Keith Jackson on a five-yard touchdown pass to cut the lead to 23-7 at the end of the third period. The Dolphin closed to 23-14 early in the fourth quarter as cornerback Vestee Jackson intercepted an O'Brien aerial and Marino took advantage of the takeaway to combine with Mark Duper on a 39-yard touchdown pass. However, New York came back on a 47-yard field goal by Cary Blanchard to close the scoring at 26-14.

GAME 9

DOLPHINS 28, INDIANAPOLIS 0

November 8, 1992

Hoosier Dome

Indianapolis, IN

Running back Mark Higgs gained 148 yards of total offense (107 rushing and 41 receiving) and the Dolphin defense recorded a shutout to lead Miami to a 28-0 win over the Indianapolis Colts before a crowd of 59,892 at the Hoosier Dome. Miami's shutout was the first by the team since October 11, 1987, when the Dolphins posted a 42-0 win over the Kansas City Chiefs in a replacement contest at Joe Robbie Stadium. In addition, it was the first Dolphin shutout in a non-replacement game since December 22, 1985, in a 28-0 win over the Buffalo Bills in the Orange Bowl and the first road shutout since September 4, 1983, in a 12-0 win at the Buffalo Bills at Rich Stadium. Miami dominated every major statistical category of the game by leading in total first downs (28 to 11), total net yards (453 to 193), net yards rushing (212 to 68), net yards passing (241 to 125), third down efficiency (7/12 for 58 percent to 4/11 for 36 percent) and time of possession (38:26 to 21:34). In addition, the Dolphin defense recorded four takeaways (two interceptions and a pair of fumble recoveries) and held the Colts' ten possessions to end in five punts, two interceptions, two fumbles lost and once on downs. On offense, Higgs and Bobby Humphrey (ten carries for 56 yards) led the ground game as Miami recorded 212 rushing yards. It marked the first time that the Dolphins have recorded a 200-yard rushing game since a 206-yard rushing performance on October 28, 1990, at the Indianapolis Colts. In addition, Miami's 212 rushing yards was the most by the team since a 236-yard ground effort on October 21, 1984, at the New England Patriots. In the game, the Dolphins opened the scoring and took a 7-0 lead on the game's first possession as Dan Marino threw a two-yard scoring pass to tight end Keith Jackson. Miami increased its lead to 14-0 later in the quarter as Higgs scored on a three-yard run. The Dolphins closed the first half scoring at 21-0 with just :50 seconds left in the second quarter as Marino threw his second touchdown pass of the game with a three-yard score to wide receiver Fred Banks. Miami closed the scoring in the fourth quarter as fullback Tony Paige scored on a one-yard run to increase the score to 28-0. Humphrey was the workhorse on the 13-play, 90-yard scoring drive as he rushed four times for 41 yards and caught two passes for 32 yards.

GAME 10

BUFFALO 26, DOLPHINS 20
November 16, 1992

Joe Robbie Stadium
Miami, FL

Buffalo running back Kenneth Davis scored two touchdowns and the Bills' defense sacked Miami's Dan Marino a total of four times to lead Buffalo to a 26-20 win over the Dolphins before a sold-out crowd of 70,629 at Joe Robbie Stadium and a national television audience on Monday Night Football. At the time, the attendance was the second-largest to ever witness a Dolphin game at JRS. In the contest, Marino completed 22 of 33 passes for 321 yards with two touchdowns and one interception. Marino opened the game by hitting on his first 11 pass attempts and coupled with his last four completions of the previous game at the Indianapolis Colts (November 9), Marino completed a team-record 15 consecutive passes. The completion streak smashed Marino's previous career high of 12 consecutive completions which was accomplished between games against Atlanta (last completion) on November 20, 1986, and at New Orleans (first 11 completions) on December 7, 1986, and also broke Earl Morrall's team record of 13 straight pass completions in a game against New England on December 1, 1975. The Dolphins opened the scoring on their first possession as the team drove on a 12-play, 75-yard drive in 7:51 which was capped by a one-yard scoring toss from Marino to tight end Greg Baty. The Bills came back on their next possession to narrow the score to 7-3 as kicker Steve Christie booted a 26-yard field goal. Miami increased its lead to 14-3 early in the second quarter as Marino threw a 19-yard strike to Mark Clayton. The Bills scored the next ten points of the game to close the score to 14-13 on a 54-yard field goal by Christie and a five-yard touchdown run by Kenneth Davis. Miami rebounded to take a 17-13 halftime lead as Pete Stoyanovich booted a 21-yard field goal. The Bills dominated the third quarter as the team turned two Miami turnovers into a 13-0 advantage in the quarter and a 26-17 lead in the game as the third period ended. Buffalo took the lead for the first time in the game at 20-17 as Davis scored his second touchdown of the game with a one-yard run and increased their lead on Christie's field goals from 23 and 19 yards. Miami closed the scoring later in the period with a 50-yard field goal by Stoyanovich.

GAME 11DOLPHINS 19, HOUSTON 16
November 22, 1992Joe Robbie Stadium
Miami, FL

Miami kicker Pete Stoyanovich booted a dramatic 52-yard field goal with just two seconds remaining in regulation to lead the Miami Dolphins to a 19-16 win over the Houston Oilers before a crowd of 63,597 at Joe Robbie Stadium. With the win, Miami quarterback Dan Marino recorded the 22nd fourth-quarter comeback of his NFL career. In the final period, Marino completed eight of 14 passes for 86 yards with no touchdowns or interceptions as the Dolphins rebounded from a 16-13 deficit to a 19-16 win as Stoyanovich's 52-yard field goal cleared the crossbar with just two seconds left in regulation. After the Dolphins stopped Houston on three downs to open the game, Miami punt returner Tony Martin muffed the punt return and the Oilers' Eddie Robinson recovered the ball on the Dolphins' 39-yard line. Following the fumble recovery, Houston opened the scoring nine plays and 32 yards later as Al Del Greco's 24-yard field goal gave the Oilers a 3-0 lead. Houston increased its lead to 10-0 later in the period as quarterback Cody Carlson threw a five-yard touchdown pass to Haywood Jeffires. Miami rebounded in the second quarter as cornerback Troy Vincent intercepted a Carlson pass and returned the ball to the Oilers' 18 to set up a 38-yard field goal by Stoyanovich to close the score to 10-3. Houston increased its lead to 13-3 on its next possession as Del Greco booted a 41-yard field goal. However, the Dolphins scored the final points of the first half as Marino connected with a wide open Fred Banks on a 39-yard touchdown pass to close the score to 13-10 at the half. Miami tied the game at 13-13 midway through the third quarter as Stoyanovich booted a 40-yard field goal to cap a 12-play, 57-yard drive. The Oilers rebounded on their next possession to take a 16-13 advantage on Del Greco's 23-yard field goal to lead 16-13 at the end of the third quarter. Miami tied the score at 16-16 early in the final period as Stoyanovich booted a 29-yard field goal. The teams traded possessions until the Oilers received the ball on their own 36-yard line with 4:17 remaining in regulation. Houston drove from their 36-yard line to Miami's 23 where Del Greco's 41-yard field goal attempt with 1:54 remaining went wide to the right. Following the missed field goal attempt, Miami received the ball on their own 23-yard line with just 1:49 left in regulation. Marino completed all five of his pass attempts for 38 yards to drive the Dolphins to the Oilers' 35-yard line where Stoyanovich converted his game-winning field goal.

GAME 12

NEW ORLEANS 24, DOLPHINS 13
November 29, 1992

Superdome
New Orleans, LA

The Saints' defense scored a pair of touchdowns and recorded five quarterback sacks to lead New Orleans to a 24-13 win over the Miami Dolphins before a crowd of 68,591 at the Superdome. The Saints scored defensive touchdowns on a 28-yard fumble return by nose tackle Robert Goff and a 34-yard interception return by cornerback Vince Buck. In addition, Miami quarterback Dan Marino was sacked a career-high five times by New Orleans' defense. Marino's previous high for times sacked in a game was four which was accomplished on six occasions. New Orleans opened the scoring late in the first quarter as the team capped a seven-play, 62-yard drive as running back Dalton Hilliard ran for a one-yard touchdown. Miami tied the score at 7-7 in the second quarter as Marino threw a one-year touchdown pass to wide receiver Mark Duper. The touchdown was the 58th score of Duper's career and he moved past Larry Csonka (57 career touchdowns) for third place on Miami's all-time scoring list. The key play in the drive was a one-yard run by Mark Higgs on a fourth-and-one play from the Saints' 41-yard line to maintain possession. Miami had a chance to take the lead just before halftime but kicker Pete Stoyanovich's 55-yard field goal attempt fell short of the goalpost and the half ended with the score tied at 7-7. The Dolphins took the lead at 10-7 early in the third quarter as Stoyanovich booted a 48-yard field goal. The drive was set-up when Miami cornerback Kerry Glenn forced a fumble by the Saints' Patrick Newman on a punt return which was recovered by tight end Greg Baty on the New Orleans' 31-yard line. The Saints tied the score at 10-10 on their next possession as Morten Anderson booted a 26-yard field goal. The Saints took a 17-10 lead later in the period as linebacker Pat Swilling sacked Marino and forced a fumble which was returned for a 28-yard touchdown by Goff. It was the first time that a Marino fumble off a sack was returned for a touchdown since Buffalo's Cornelius Bennett sacked Marino and scored on a fumble return on November 18, 1991. The Dolphins opened the fourth quarter scoring and cut the deficit to 17-13 as Stoyanovich booted a 34-yard field goal. However, the Saints came right back to score the final points of the game as Buck returned a Marino interception for a 34-yard touchdown and a 24-13 lead.

GAME 13

SAN FRANCISCO 27, DOLPHINS 3
December 6, 1992

Candlestick Park
San Francisco, CA

San Francisco wide receiver Jerry Rice set the NFL record for career touchdown receptions as he helped lead the 49ers to a 27-3 win over the Miami Dolphins before a crowd of 58,474 at Candlestick Park. The game marked the first time that Miami was held without a touchdown since the team dropped a 20-3 decision at the New York Giants on September 23, 1990. In the contest, Rice set an NFL record as he scored on the 101st touchdown catch of his NFL career. Rice entered the game with 100 career touchdown receptions and was tied with Hall of Fame wide receiver Steve Largent for the NFL record. Following a scoreless first quarter, San Francisco took a 6-0 lead early in the second period as quarterback Steve Young threw a 27-yard touchdown pass to a diving Tom Rathman. The extra point attempt was blocked by Jeff Cross. The 49ers increased their lead to 13-0 later in the period. Following a fumble by Miami tight end Keith Jackson on San Francisco's 42-yard line, the 'Niners capitalized as Rathman scored on a one-yard run. Miami closed the score to 13-3 on their first possession of the third quarter as Pete Stoyanovich booted a 32-yard field goal. On the ensuing kickoff, San Francisco's Marc Logan returned the ball 82 yards to Miami's eight-yard line which set-up a one-yard run by Amp Lee to increase the lead to 20-3. Miami had a chance to score later in the period as the team drove down to the 49ers' seven-yard line, however Dan Marino's pass attempt on fourth-and-one fell incomplete. San Francisco closed the scoring at 27-3 in the fourth quarter as Rice caught his record-setting touchdown on a 12-yard pass from Young.

GAME 14

DOLPHINS 20, L.A. RAIDERS 7
 December 14, 1992

Joe Robbie Stadium
Miami, FL

Linebacker Bryan Cox had a pair of sacks and cornerback J.B. Brown returned an interception for a touchdown as the Dolphin defense held the Los Angeles Raiders to a total of 151 net yards in Miami's 20-7 win before a crowd of 67,098 and a national, prime-time television audience on Monday Night Football at Joe Robbie Stadium. Miami reversed history in the contest as the team posted its first win over the Raiders in a game played in Miami since a 23-6 triumph on December 10, 1978, in the Orange Bowl. The win also improved the Dolphins' record to 1-4 against Los Angeles on MNF. Miami dominated every major statistical category in the contest by leading in total first downs (20 to 9), total net yards (360 to 151), rushing yards (132 to 73), and net passing yards (228 to 73). In addition, the Dolphin defense recorded three sacks, three forced fumbles, one fumble recovery and also returned an interception for a touchdown. In fact, the Raiders' only touchdown of the game was scored on an interception return. Following a scoreless first quarter, Miami took a 3-0 lead as the team drove 49 yards in 13 plays and scored on Pete Stoyanovich's 26-yard field goal. The Dolphins increased their lead to 10-0 on the next series as J.B. Brown intercepted a Jay Schroeder aerial and returned the ball for a 35-yard touchdown. It was the first touchdown of Brown's career and marked the third time during the 1992 season that a Dolphin defensive back has returned an interception for a touchdown. Miami's three touchdowns off interception returns was the most by the team since 1983 when the Dolphins also scored three touchdowns off interceptions and trails only the team-record four interception returns for touchdowns posted by the team in 1966. The half ended with Miami holding a 10-0 lead. Miami scored the only points of the third period and took a 17-0 lead as Dan Marino connected with Mark Duper on a 62-yard touchdown bomb. The score was the longest passing play by Miami since a 64-yard scoring pass from Marino to Duper against the Buffalo Bills in the AFC Divisional Playoffs on January 12, 1991. The Raiders closed the score to 17-7 early in the fourth period as the Raiders' Eddie Anderson intercepted a Marino pass in the endzone and raced 102 yards for a touchdown. The interception return tied for the third-longest in NFL history and was the longest interception return against Miami. The Dolphins closed the scoring later in the quarter as Stoyanovich booted a 25-yard field goal.

GAME 15

DOLPHINS 19, N.Y. JETS 17
December 20, 1992

Joe Robbie Stadium
Miami, FL

Pete Stoyanovich booted a 37-yard field goal with just seven seconds remaining in regulation as Miami clinched a playoff berth with a 19-17 come-from-behind win over the New York Jets before a crowd of 68,275 at Joe Robbie Stadium. It was the eighth time in his career that Stoyanovich won a game in the fourth quarter or overtime or tied a contest in the final period that the Dolphins would later win in overtime. In addition, the game also marked the 23rd time in his NFL career that Dolphin quarterback Dan Marino has helped bring his team back from a fourth quarter deficit, including his fifth such game of the 1992 season. In the final period, he completed five of 10 passes for 104 yards with one touchdown and no interceptions. Miami scored the only points of the first half and took a 7-0 lead midway through the first quarter as Marino threw a 39-yard touchdown pass to Mark Clayton on a fourth-and-two play. The Jets tied the score at 7-7 and then took a 14-7 lead in the third quarter by scoring twice within 16 seconds. First, New York tied the score at 7-7 on a 48-yard touchdown pass from Browning Nagle to wide receiver Rob Moore. The Jets increased their lead to 14-7 as linebacker Bobby Houston intercepted a Marino aerial and returned the ball 20 yards for a touchdown. Miami closed the score to 14-10 early in the fourth quarter as Pete Stoyanovich booted a 31-yard field goal. The Jets increased their lead to 17-10 as the team marched 47 yards in 12 plays and capped the drive with a 35-yard field goal by Cary Blanchard. Miami received the ball back following the field goal with just 4:16 remaining and on their own 20-yard line. The Dolphins drove to their own 45-yard line where the team faced a fourth-and-two situation. Marino converted the fourth down into six points as he hit wide receiver Tony Martin on a slant pattern and Martin ran 55 yards for the touchdown to close the score to 17-16. Miami had a chance to tie the game, however Stoyanovich missed the extra point by hooking the ball wide to the right. Following the touchdown, the Jets received the ball on their own 14-yard line with 2:30 left in regulation. Miami's defense held New York to just two yards on three carries and forced the Jets to punt. New York's Louis Aguiar had a 29-yard punt and the Dolphins received the ball with just 1:05 left in the contest on New York's 45-yard line. Marino hit on two of three passes for 28 yards to drive Miami down to the Jets' 19-yard line and Stoyanovich booted the 37-yarder to win the game.

GAME 16

DOLPHINS 16, NEW ENGLAND 13 (OT)
December 27, 1992

Foxboro Stadium
Foxboro, MA

Bobby Humphrey scored on a one-yard touchdown with 2:53 remaining in regulation and Pete Stoyanovich booted a 35-yard field goal in overtime to lead the Miami Dolphins to a 16-13 win over the New England Patriots in the regular season finale before a crowd of 34,726 at Foxboro Stadium. Miami closed the regular season with an 11-5 record and coupled with Buffalo's 27-3 loss at Houston later in the day, the Dolphins won their first AFC East title since 1985. The win increased Miami's record to 8-11-1 in overtime contests, including a mark of 4-5 on the road. The Dolphins upped their record to 3-0 in overtime against the Patriots. The game was played in 23-degree weather which was tied for the third coldest game in team history and the team improved to 2-4 in games in which the temperature was 23 degrees or colder. Miami opened the scoring early in the contest and took a 3-0 lead as New England running back Jon Vaughn fumbled on the first play of the game and Jarvis Williams recovered the ball on the Patriots' 18-yard line. Miami converted the takeaway into three points as Stoyanovich booted a 38-yard field goal. New England rebounded to take a 7-3 later in the period as Sam Gash scored on a one-yard run. The Patriots scored the only points of the second quarter and took a 13-3 lead at halftime as Charlie Baumann hit on a pair of field goals from 25 and 29 yards. The Dolphins scored the only points of the third quarter on Stoyanovich's 23-yard field goal early in the period to cut the lead to 13-6. Miami tied the game at 13-13 with just 2:53 remaining in regulation as Humphrey capped a nine-play, 75-yard drive with a one-yard run. The key play in the drive was an 11-yard completion from Marino to Tony Martin on a third-and-eight play from New England's 38-yard line. On New England's last play in regulation, QB Jeff Carlson's pass attempt fell incomplete in the endzone and the game went to overtime. New England won the overtime coin toss and elected to receive. The Dolphins forced the Patriots to punt. Miami received the ball on their own 35-yard line and drove to the Patriots' 18-yard line for Stoyanovich's game winning kick. The key players in the drive were Marino, who completed all three of his pass attempts for 33 yards, and Humphrey, who touched the ball six of the nine plays in the winning drive with five rushes for 19 yards and one catch for 12 yards.

New England: Tippet 1.

THE ORANGE BOWL

The 1986 season marked the end of an era for the Miami Dolphins as the team played its final season in the Orange Bowl. In 21 years, the Dolphins posted a 110-38-3 (.738) regular-season record.

In the playoffs, Miami was 10-4 at the 75,206-seat Orange Bowl, giving the team a 120-43-3 (.736) mark at the OB in all games.

Miami played in the Orange Bowl from the team's initial season in 1966 through the 1986 campaign. From 1966 to 1969, the Orange Bowl had a grass playing field. The playing surface was changed to Poly-Turf in 1970, was replaced in 1972 and finally removed in March, 1976, so that Prescription Athletic Turf could be installed.

The Orange Bowl has been the site of many great sporting events, including five Super Bowls, the annual Orange Bowl Classic and championship boxing matches.

DOLPHINS 13-0 VS. 2 CLUBS

The Miami Dolphins have built a perfect 13-0 regular-season record against two clubs in the National Football League through the 1992 season.

Those teams which never have beaten Miami are Green Bay (0-7), and Phoenix (0-6).

Eight other NFL teams have beaten Miami only once in the regular season. Those teams are Atlanta (1-5), Chicago (1-5), Dallas (1-5), L.A. Rams (1-5), Minnesota (1-4), New York Giants (1-1), Seattle (1-4), and Tampa Bay (1-4). The Dolphins are scheduled to play the Cowboys and Giants in 1993.

Miami set an NFL record with 20 consecutive wins over Buffalo from 1970 through 1979.

PRESEASON GAME 1

DOLPHINS 22, WASHINGTON 21
August 1, 1992

Citrus Bowl
Orlando, FL

Miami quarterback Scott Mitchell, starting in place of the rested Dan Marino and playing the entire contest at quarterback for the Dolphins, threw for 214 yards and a touchdown to lead the Dolphins to a 22-21 preseason win over the defending Super Bowl champion Washington Redskins before a crowd of 63,100 at the Citrus Bowl in Orlando, Fla. The win was the first by Miami in a preseason opener since 1988 when they defeated the San Francisco 49ers by a 27-21 score in American Bowl '88 in London on July 31, 1988. Mitchell, who was the starting quarterback for the World League's Orlando Thunder in 1992 on loan from the Dolphins, improved his record to 7-0 in contests played in the Citrus Bowl, home of the Thunder. Washington scored the only points of the first quarter on their first possession by taking the opening kickoff and driving 61 yards on 12 plays and scoring on a three-yard touchdown pass from Cary Conklin to Ron Middleton. The Dolphins rebounded to score 16 points in the second quarter and take a 16-7 lead at the half. Miami kicker Pete Stoyanovich cut Miami's deficit to 7-3 with a 22-yard field goal. The key play in the drive was a five-yard run by Mark Higgs on a fourth-and-one play from the Redskins' 28-yard line. On the ensuing kickoff following Stoyanovich's score, the Dolphins forced a fumble by returner Joe Johnson and Miami cornerback Kerry Glenn recovered the ball on the Redskins' nine-yard line. The Dolphins took a 10-7 lead on the first play following the fumble recovery as Mitchell hit fullback James Saxon with a nine-yard TD pass. Miami increased its lead to 16-7 later in the period as Higgs capped off an 11-play, 69-yard drive with a one-yard dive over the top for the score. In that drive, the Dolphins converted a fourth-and-one play on their own 40-yard line as Saxon rushed up the middle for four yards and a first down. Miami opened the third quarter scoring with a 42-yard field goal by Stoyanovich to take a 19-7 lead. However, the Redskins came right back and closed the score 19-14 as Conklin completed a five-yard TD pass to Robert Green. Miami closed the third period scoring as Stoyanovich booted a 28-yard field goal. Washington scored the only points of the fourth quarter and narrowed the margin to 22-21 as Conklin threw his third touchdown pass of the night and found Ricky Sanders open for a 44-yard touchdown pass. The Redskins had a chance to take the lead late in the contest, however Washington kicker Chip Lohmiller hooked a 35-yard field goal attempt wide to the left.

PRESEASON GAME 2

DALLAS 27, DOLPHINS 24

August 7, 1992

Joe Robbie Stadium

Miami, FL

The Dolphins saw their preseason record fall to 1-1 as the team dropped a 27-24 decision to the Dallas Cowboys before a crowd of 50,803 at Joe Robbie Stadium. The Cowboys opened the scoring on the game's first drive as running back Emmitt Smith capped a nine-play, 75-yard drive with a 14-yard scoring run. Smith was the workhorse on the drive by gaining 39 yards on five carries to move Dallas. Miami tied the score at 7-7 later in the opening period as Mark Higgs scored on a four-yard run. The Dolphins took a 14-7 lead later in the period as Dan Marino combined with Mark Duper on a two-yard scoring pass. Miami held Dallas on their next drive as rookie defensive end Larry Webster blocked a Brad Daluiso 38-yard field goal attempt to maintain Miami's 14-7 lead. Following the blocked field goal, the Dolphins increased their lead to 21-7 as running back Bobby Humphrey, playing in his first game as a Dolphin since being acquired by Miami in a trade with the Denver Broncos in the off-season, scored on a four-yard run. Marino started the contest and played the entire first half. He finished his playing stint by completing 16 of 17 passes for 163 yards and a TD. Following an incompleteness on his first pass attempt, Marino completed 16 straight passes to close the half. Had this been a regular season contest, Marino's 16 straight pass completions would have broken Earl Morrall's team record of 13 consecutive pass completions set on December 1, 1975, against New England. Dallas closed the score to 21-17 in the third quarter as Daluiso booted a 46-yard field goal and reserve quarterback Steve Beuerlein completed a 13-yard touchdown pass to Tommie Agee. The Cowboys took a 24-21 lead early in the final period as Beuerlein hit Alexander Wright with a 51-yard touchdown pass. The Dolphins tied the score at 24-24 on their next possession as kicker Pete Stoyanovich booted a 50-yard field goal. On Dallas' next possession, Miami CB Chuck Carswell forced and recovered Curvin Richards' fumble to give the Dolphins possession of the ball on their own 35-yard line. However, following the fumble recovery Miami tight end Doug Wellsandt caught a five-yard pass from quarterback Scott Mitchell and fumbled the ball with the Cowboys recovering on the Dolphins' 40-yard line. Dallas drove to Miami's six-yard line where Daluiso converted a 24-yard field goal attempt with :14 seconds remaining in the contest to win the game for the Cowboys.

PRESEASON GAME 3

DOLPHINS 31, DENVER 27

August 16, 1992

Olympic Stadium

Berlin, Germany

Miami rookie Marco Coleman recorded seven tackles, three sacks, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery and quarterback Scott Mitchell threw a pair of touchdown passes to pace the Dolphins to a 31-27 win over the Denver Broncos before a crowd of 60,813 fans at Berlin's Olympic Stadium in American Bowl '92. Had this been a regular season contest, Coleman's three sacks would have tied Miami's all-time record for sacks by a rookie in a contest with A.J. Duhe who had a three-sack performance as a rookie on November 6, 1977, at the N.Y. Jets. The game marked the third time overall and second consecutive season that the Dolphins travelled abroad to play a preseason contest. The win improved Miami's record to 3-0 in games played on foreign soil and allowed the Dolphins to join the L.A. Rams as only teams which have recorded wins in contests played in the three American Bowl sites (London, Tokyo and Berlin). In the contest, Dan Marino threw an INT on the game's first play and the Broncos took a 3-0 lead as kicker David Treadwell converted on a 35-yard field goal. Following another Marino interception — his third INT of the half — the Broncos increased their lead to 10-0 when QB Shawn Moore threw a five-yard touchdown pass to RB Jeff Alexander. Miami scored on its next possession as Marino threw a 38-yard touchdown pass to Mark Clayton to narrow the margin to 10-7. Denver closed the first half scoring with a 20-yard field goal by Treadwell. RB Aaron Craver gave the Dolphins a 14-13 lead in the third quarter by rushing ten yards up the middle for a touchdown. J.B. Brown intercepted a Tommy Maddox pass on Denver's next drive and returned the ball to the Broncos' 17-yard line. On the first play following the interception, Miami reserve quarterback Scott Mitchell lofted a 17-yard touchdown pass to fullback James Saxon and later in the period connected on a 28-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Tony Martin to take a 28-13 lead. Denver narrowed the score to 28-20 as Maddox completed a nine-yard scoring toss to Barry Johnson, before Dolphins kick returner Mike Williams had a 69-yard kickoff return to set up a 26-yard field goal by Stoyanovich and give the Dolphins a 31-20 advantage. Denver scored the final points of the contest in the fourth quarter as Maddox hit on a 39-yard touchdown pass to Cedric Tillman and closed the score to 31-27.

PRESEASON GAME 4

DOLPHINS 22, TAMPA BAY 7
 August 22, 1992

Joe Robbie Stadium
Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins used four takeaways (two fumble recoveries and a pair of interceptions) to pace the team to a 22-7 win over the Tampa Bay Buccaneers before a crowd of 42,136 at Joe Robbie Stadium. The win increased Miami's preseason record to 3-1 and guaranteed the team a winning preseason record. Coupled with 1991's 3-2 preseason mark, Miami recorded back-to-back winning records in preseason action for the first time since a ten-year time span from 1973-82. The Dolphins opened the scoring and registered the only points of the first quarter as Pete Stoyanovich connected on a 34-yard field goal. Stoyanovich had missed a pair of field goals from 52 and 53 yards earlier in the quarter. The Dolphins ended the first half scoring and increased their lead to 6-0 as Stoyanovich booted a 47-yard field goal in the second period. Miami had a chance to score just before halftime, however running back Bobby Humphrey was stopped on a fourth-and-one play from Tampa Bay's one-yard line with just :07 seconds remaining in the half. The Buccaneers scored the only points of the third quarter and took a 7-6 lead as running back Mazio Royster capped a twelve play, 81-yard drive as he scored on a one-yard run. A pair of takeaways by safety Louis Oliver helped Miami regain the lead in the final period. First, Oliver intercepted a pass from Tampa Bay quarterback Mike Pawlawski and the Dolphins capitalized as reserve quarterback Doug Pederson threw a 23-yard touchdown pass to fullback James Saxon to take a 13-7 lead. On the Buccaneers' next series, Oliver recovered a fumble by the Bucs' Willie McClendon (forced by E.J. Junior) and Miami was able to turn the recovery into a touchdown and a 19-7 lead as Pederson threw an eight-yard touchdown pass to Mike Williams. The extra point attempt by Jim Gallery was wide to the left. Miami closed the scoring at 22-7 as Stoyanovich booted a 32-yard field goal.

PRESEASON GAME 5

NEW ORLEANS 17, DOLPHINS 3
August 27, 1992

Memorial Stadium
Baltimore, MD

The Miami Dolphins closed the preseason with a 17-3 loss to the New Orleans Saints before a crowd of 60,021 at Memorial Stadium in Baltimore. The contest was Miami's first game back in Memorial Stadium since October 23, 1983, when the Dolphins earned a 21-7 win over the Colts. Overall, Miami was 8-6 (all regular season) against the Colts in games played in Memorial Stadium. In addition, the contest was the first NFL game played in Memorial Stadium since December 18, 1983, when the Baltimore Colts posted a 20-10 win over the Houston Oilers. The game was a homecoming to Baltimore for Dolphins Head Coach Don Shula. Memorial Stadium was home to Shula for 11 years of his tenure in professional football. Shula was a player with the Colts from 1953-56 and was head coach of the Colts from 1963-69, before joining the Dolphins in 1970. In the game, New Orleans scored the only points of the first quarter as the Saints took the opening kickoff and drove 77 yards in 13 plays and scored as quarterback Bobby Hebert threw a 22-yard touchdown pass to Patrick Newman. New Orleans increased its lead to 14-0 in the second quarter as Dalton Hilliard ran two yards for a touchdown. Miami closed the first half scoring as kicker Pete Stoyanovich booted a 47-yard field goal with two seconds left in the half to narrow the deficit to 14-3. New Orleans scored the only points of the second half as kicker Morten Anderson booted an 18-yard field goal in the third quarter to increase the lead to 17-3.

DOLPHIN FACT

Since 1973 when the local TV blackout first could be lifted provided that a game is sold out 72 hours in advance of kickoff, Miami is 63-56 (.529) in games where the game is locally televised. The Dolphins are 35-9 (.795) when a home game has been televised in the Miami area. When a road game has been televised in the city of the opposing team, Miami is 28-47.

DOLPHIN FACT

In the 1991 Pro Bowl, wide receiver Mark Clayton caught a nine-yard touchdown pass from Jim Kelly (Buffalo). He joined tight end Ferrell Edmunds, who caught a five-yard scoring toss from Dave Krieg (Seattle) in the '89 game, and Hall of Fame wide receiver Paul Warfield, who caught a 32-yard TD pass from Dolphin teammate Bob Griese in the '74 contest, as the only Dolphin players to have scored a touchdown in the all-star game.

DOLPHIN INDIVIDUAL RECORDS

The following individual records relate solely to service with the Miami Dolphins. They include National Football League regular-season statistics only – with the exception of those single-game records marked by "*" or "."

DOLPHIN FACT

The only player for whom the Dolphins received trade value twice is QB John Stofa. Stofa, who joined Miami as a free agent in 1966, was traded on Dec. 26, 1967, to Cincinnati for first and second round draft choices in 1968. He re-joined the Dolphins as a free agent in 1969 and was traded on Nov. 23, 1971, to Denver for a seventh-round pick in 1972.

- March 6 - Gary Stevens, formerly of the University of Miami, is named quarterbacks/pass offense coach for the Dolphins.
- May 15 - Chuck Connor, the Dolphins director of player personnel for 11 seasons, announces his resignation to join the Atlanta Falcons as director of pro scouting.
- June 12 - Tom Heckert, formerly a college scout with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and Cleveland Browns, is named Miami's Director of College Scouting.
- Sept. 10 - Jim Kelly scores on a two-yard run on the game's last play to give the Buffalo Bills a 27-24 win over the Dolphins. The loss dropped Miami's record in season openers to 10-13-1 and in home openers to 18-5-1 and it also snapped a 13-game winning streak in home openers, which had been the NFL's longest active home opener winning streak.
- Sept. 17 - In Miami's 24-10 win at New England, Dan Marino throws his 200th career touchdown pass, becoming the 13th player in NFL history to throw for 200 TDs. It was just his 89th career game, and he reaches the 200 touchdown pass mark faster than any quarterback in NFL history.
- Oct. 8 - In Miami's 13-10 overtime win vs. Cleveland, Dan Marino goes over 25,000 yards passing in his career, becoming the 25th player in NFL history to reach the 25,000 yards passing milestone. Marino also breaks Bob Griese's Dolphin team record of 25,092 career passing yards.
- Nov. 5 - Sammie Smith rushes for 123 yards in Miami's 19-13 win over the Indianapolis Colts, the third best single game rushing total ever by a Dolphin rookie. It also breaks a 27-game streak in which the Dolphins did not have a running back gain 100 or more yards.
- Nov. 12 - Pete Stoyanovich kicks a team-record 59-yard field goal in a 31-23 victory over the New York Jets, a kick that also tied the third longest field goal in NFL history.
- Nov. 19 - Miami defeats Dallas 17-14 in Shula Bowl IV, as Don Shula extends his record to 4-0 in Shula vs. Shula contests. This time Shula was opposed by son Dave, the Assistant Head Coach of the Cowboys. The win also was the Dolphins' sixth win in their last seven games and moved them into a first-place tie with the Buffalo Bills atop the AFC East.
- Dec. 3 - Dan Marino goes over 3,000 yards passing for the year in Miami's 26-21 loss at Kansas City. It was his sixth season passing for 3,000 yards and he ties Dan Fouts' NFL record of six 3,000 yard seasons.

- Dec. 24 – The Dolphins are eliminated from playoff contention with a 27-24 loss to the Kansas City Chiefs in the season finale at Joe Robbie Stadium. The game is played in 40 degree weather, the coldest home game in the history of the Dolphins.

- Jan. 7 – Joseph Robbie, founder and owner of the Dolphins and the driving force behind the construction of Joe Robbie Stadium, dies of respiratory failure at age 73.
- Jan. 12 – The Miami Dolphins and Robbie Stadium Corporation undergo an organization realignment to ensure continued administration of both entities by the Robbie family. Tim Robbie becomes President of the Dolphins, Dan and Janet Robbie are named Executive Vice Presidents of the team, while Eddie Jones is named Executive Vice President and General Manager of the club. In addition, J. Michael Robbie is named Executive Vice President of Robbie Stadium Corporation.
- Jan. 19 – Dolphin President Tim Robbie announces that the Dolphins have signed Don Shula to a three-year contract to remain as head coach.
- Jan. 27 – Former Dolphin great Bob Griese is among a group of seven named to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. The Dolphin quarterback becomes the fourth player in Miami history to earn the honor with induction scheduled for August 4.
- Feb. 7 – Monte Clark, former San Francisco and Detroit Head Coach and Dolphin Assistant Coach, is named Miami's Director of Pro Personnel, while Charley Winner is given expanded duties and is named the club's Director of Player Personnel.
- March 7 – H. Wayne Huizenga, Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of Blockbuster Video, purchases fifty percent of the Robbie Stadium Corporation (the parent company of Joe Robbie Stadium) as well as a fifteen percent limited partnership in the Miami Dolphins.
- Sept. 9 – Sammie Smith rushes for an opening-day record 159 yards and a touchdown as the Dolphins break a five-year losing streak in season openers with a 27-24 win at the New England Patriots.
- Sept. 16 – Team founder Joe Robbie is the first enshrinee on the "Dolphin Honor Roll" at Joe Robbie Stadium. In addition, the Dolphins end a six-game losing streak to the Buffalo Bills and move into undisputed first place in the AFC East for the first time since Week 15 of the 1985 season with a 30-7 triumph. It is also Don Shula's 200th career regular season win as head coach of the Dolphins.
- Oct. 18 – In Miami's 17-10 win over the New England Patriots, Don Shula coaches in his 400th career regular season game as a head coach in the NFL.
- Nov. 19 – During halftime of Miami's 13-10 loss to the Los Angeles Raiders, the team's four Hall of Fame enshrinees, Larry Csonka, Bob Griese, Jim Langer and Paul Warfield, are inducted into the "Dolphin Honor Roll."
- Nov. 25 – Miami improves its record to 9-2 and clinches the team's first winning season since 1987 with a 30-13 win over the Cleveland Browns. Also, Dan Marino goes over 30,000 yards passing in his career, becoming the 11th player in NFL history to reach the 30,000-yard mark. It is just his 114th career game, and he reaches the 30,000-yard plateau faster than any quarterback in NFL history.
- Dec. 9 – The Dolphins earn a 23-20 overtime win over the Philadelphia Eagles and clinch the team's first playoff berth since 1985.
- Dec. 16 – In Miami's 24-17 win over the Seattle Seahawks, Dan Marino goes over 3,000 yards passing for the year. It is his seventh season passing for 3,000 yards and he ties Joe Montana's NFL record of seven 3,000-yard seasons.
- Dec. 19 – Richmond Webb becomes the first rookie offensive tackle – and second rookie offensive lineman overall – to be selected to the NFL's annual Pro Bowl contest. He joins Miami teammates Jeff Cross, Ferrell Edmunds and John Offerdahl in the all star contest.
- Dec. 23 – Dan Marino throws his 20th touchdown pass of the season in Miami's 24-14 loss at the Buffalo Bills. It is his eighth season with 20 or more touchdown passes and he ties Johnny Unitas' NFL record of eight 20-plus touchdown seasons.

- Jan. 5 – The Dolphins return to the playoffs after a four-year absence with a 17-16 win over the Kansas City Chiefs in Joe Robbie Stadium. In the contest, Pete Stoyanovich sets an NFL playoff record with a 58-yard field goal.
- Jan. 12 – Miami drops a 44-34 playoff decision at the Buffalo Bills. The two teams combine for 78 points – the highest scoring non-overtime playoff game in history. The only higher scoring playoff contest was Miami's 41-38 overtime loss to the San Diego Chargers on Jan. 2, 1982.
- Jan. 24 – Monte Clark, the Dolphins director of pro personnel, announces his resignation.
- Jan. 27 – Larry Csonka is named to the NFL's all-time Super Bowl Silver Anniversary team.
- Feb. 2 – Richmond Webb is named NFL Rookie of the Year by The Sporting News.
- March 8 – Mike Shula joins Dolphins as a Coaches' Assistant.
- March 26 – The Robbie Family and Wayne Huizenga purchase 107 acres of land adjacent to Joe Robbie Stadium for additional parking and future development.
- May 23 – At the NFL owners meetings in Minneapolis, Joe Robbie Stadium is selected as the site for Super Bowl XXIX (1995).
- Aug. 3 – The Dolphins make the longest road trip in team history as they travel 14,912 round-trip miles to Tokyo to take on the Los Angeles Raiders at the Tokyo Dome in American Bowl '91. Miami comes from behind to defeat the Raiders, 19-17, before 51,122 Japanese fans.
- Aug. 20 – Dan Marino signs a five-year contract extension to remain as quarterback of the Miami Dolphins.
- Sept. 22 – Don Shula captures the 300th win of his coaching career with Miami's 16-13 win over the Green Bay Packers. With career coaching win number 300, Shula joins the immortal George Halas (325 wins) as the only NFL coaches to win 300 or more games.
- Nov. 10 – In Miami's 30-20 win over New England, both Mark Duper and Mark Clayton surpass Nat Moore's team record of 7,547 career receiving yards. Duper is the first to move past Moore with a 17-yard reception in the first quarter, while Clayton passes Moore with a 32-yard touchdown catch in the fourth quarter.
- Nov. 18 – During halftime of Miami's 41-27 loss to the Buffalo Bills, former Dolphin great middle linebacker Nick Buoniconti is inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll. The game is witness by 71,062 fans which is the largest crowd to watch a Dolphin game at Joe Robbie Stadium.
- Nov. 24 – The Dolphins record a 16-13 overtime win in Chicago in 27-degree snowy weather, only the second win ever for the Dolphins in their nine games in which the temperature has been 27 degrees or colder.
- Dec. 1 – Dan Marino sets an NFL record as he goes over 3,000 yards passing in a season for the eighth time in his career in Miami's 33-14 win over Tampa Bay. Marino entered the 1991 campaign with seven such seasons and was tied with Joe Montana for the record.
- Dec. 9 – Miami defeats Cincinnati 37-13 in Shula Bowl V as Don Shula extends his record to 5-0 in Shula vs. Shula contests. This time, Shula teamed with son Mike, a Dolphins' coaches assistant, and was opposed by son David, the receivers coach for the Bengals. In the contest, Dan Marino set an NFL record by throwing his 20th touchdown pass of the season. It is his ninth season with 20 or more touchdown passes. He entered 1991 with eight such seasons and was tied with Johnny Unitas for the record. Also, Mark Clayton breaks Nat Moore's team record for career TDs (75) and career receiving scores (74) with a 16-yard TD reception in the fourth quarter to give Clayton his 76th career score (75 catch, one punt return) and 75th receiving TD.
- Dec. 15 – Pete Stoyanovich breaks Garo Yepremian's single-season team record of 28 field goals in Miami's 38-30 loss to the San Diego Chargers. Stoyanovich boots his 29th of the year with a 24-yarder in the first quarter. He would go on to hit on 31 field goals during the 1991 season which tied for the league high with Washington's Chip Lohmiller.

- Dec. 22 - The Dolphins drop a 23-20 overtime decision to the New York Jets in a winner-take-all battle for the AFC's final wild card spot. Miami takes a 20-17 lead with just :44 seconds left in regulation on a one-yard scoring loss from Dan Marino to Ferrell Edmunds. However, the Jets move the ball and tie the game at 20-20 on a 44-yard field goal by Raul Allegre with no time left on the clock. New York wins the game in overtime on a 30-yard field goal by Allegre.

1992

- Feb. 1 - Former Dolphin All-Pro center Dwight Stephenson rejoins Miami as assistant offensive line coach.
- Feb. 3 - Hall of Fame defensive tackle Joe Greene is named as the Dolphins' defensive line coach. Greene replaced Dan Sekanovich, who announced his resignation.
- May 20 - Dolphins sign a long-term agreement to build a new training facility at Nova University in Davie, to be ready by the start of the 1993 training camp.
- June 1 - Charley Winner announces his retirement as Miami's Director of Player Personnel. Winner, who had served 37 years in the NFL as a coach and administrator, originally joined the Dolphins in 1981.
- June 4 - Tom Heckert is named as the Dolphins' Director of Player Personnel. Heckert had worked the previous three years as Miami's Director of College Scouting.
- June 12 - Tom Braatz, a 27-year NFL executive with the Atlanta Falcons and Green Bay Packers, is named as Miami's Director of College Scouting.
- July 17 - Don Shula signs a two-year contract extension to continue as the Dolphins' Head Coach through the 1994 season. The extension takes effect at the conclusion of Shula's current contract which expires following the 1992 season.
- Aug. 16 - The Dolphins travel 9,908 round-trip miles and earn a 31-27 preseason win over the Denver Broncos before a crowd of 60,813 fans at Berlin's Olympic Stadium. The game marks the third time overall and second consecutive season that the Dolphins have travelled abroad to play a preseason contest and the win improves Miami's record to 3-0 in games played on foreign soil. The Dolphins join the L.A. Rams as only teams which have recorded wins in contests played in each of the three American Bowl sites (London, Tokyo and Berlin).
- Aug. 31 - Miami's season opening contest, scheduled for September 6 at Joe Robbie Stadium against the New England Patriots, is rescheduled for October 18, the National Football League announces. The date change is made in the aftermath of Hurricane Andrew, which struck the South Florida area on August 25. Both teams originally were off that weekend, based on the NFL's 16-games-over-17-weeks schedule which allows each team one bye during the season. The Patriots and Dolphins will have their Open Week on September 6, which marks the beginning of the 1992 regular season.
- Sept. 29 - The Dolphins dip into the free agent market and sign perennial all-pro tight end Keith Jackson.
- Oct. 4 - The Dolphins improve to 4-0 and take over sole possession of first place in the AFC East for the first time in 34 weeks with a 37-10 win over the Buffalo Bills at Rich Stadium. The win snaps Miami's six-game losing streak to the Bills at Rich Stadium. The Dolphins' last triumph in Buffalo was a 34-24 win on November 16, 1986. With the win, Miami moves ahead of the second-place Bills (4-1) in the AFC East for the first time since the second week of the 1990 season. Individually, safety Louis Oliver records three interceptions and returns one of his INTs for a 103-yard touchdown. Oliver's return ties for the NFL's all-time longest interception return with a 103-yard return by San Diego's Vencie Glenn against Denver on November 29, 1987.
- Oct. 18 - Dan Marino throws four touchdown passes as Miami earns a 38-17 win over the Patriots at Joe Robbie Stadium in a game that is rescheduled from September 6 due to the effects of Hurricane Andrew. Marino throws four-or-more touchdowns in a game for the 17th time in his career and ties the all-time NFL record for most career games with four or more touchdown passes with Johnny Unitas.

- Nov. 8 – The Dolphins record a 28-0 win at the Indianapolis Colts. Miami's shutout is the first by the team since October 11, 1987, when the Dolphins posted a 42-0 win over the Kansas City Chiefs in a replacement contest at Joe Robbie Stadium. In addition, it is the first Dolphin shutout in a non-replacement game since December 22, 1985, in a 28-0 win over the Buffalo Bills in the Orange Bowl and the first road shutout since September 4, 1983, in a 12-0 win at the Buffalo Bills in Rich Stadium.
- Nov. 16 – During halftime ceremonies of Miami's 26-20 loss to the Buffalo Bills, the 1972 Miami Dolphins team, holders of the only perfect season in NFL history and winners of Super Bowl VII, are honored and inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll.
- Dec. 14 – Miami reverses history by earning a 20-7 win over the Los Angeles Raiders on Monday Night Football at Joe Robbie Stadium. The contest marks the Dolphins' first win over the Raiders in a game played in Miami since a 23-6 triumph on December 10, 1978, in the Orange Bowl.
- Dec. 20 – The Dolphins clinch the team's second trip to the playoffs in the last three seasons with a 19-17 come-from-behind win over the New York Jets at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the contest, Dolphins quarterback Dan Marino throws the 290th touchdown pass of his NFL career and ties John Unitas for second place on the NFL's all-time touchdown pass list.
- Dec. 23 – Dan Marino is named to his team-record seventh Pro Bowl team. He breaks the former team record of six Pro Bowl appearances which he shared with Bob Griese, Bob Kuechenberg and Jim Langer. In addition, Marino is named as a starter in the NFL's annual all-star game for the fifth time in his career and he ties the team record held by Jim Langer. Voted to join Marino in Honolulu are linebacker Bryan Cox, tight end Keith Jackson and tackle Richmond Webb (all as starters).
- Dec. 27 – The Dolphins clinch the AFC East title with a 16-13 overtime win over the New England Patriots at Foxboro Stadium. Miami closes the regular season with an 11-5 record and coupled with Buffalo's 27-3 loss at Houston later in the day, the Dolphins win the team's first division championship since 1985. In addition, the win marks the 300th regular season victory of Dolphins' Head Coach Don Shula's coaching career.

- Jan. 10 – The Dolphins earn a 31-0 win over the San Diego Chargers in the AFC Divisional Playoffs before a crowd of 71,224 at Joe Robbie Stadium. Miami's 31-point margin of victory is the largest by the team in a playoff game. The previous largest margin of victory in the post-season by the Dolphins was three 21-point wins as Miami had a 21-0 win over the Baltimore Colts on Jan. 2, 1972; a 34-13 win over the San Diego Chargers on Jan. 16, 1983; and a 31-10 win over the Seattle Seahawks on Dec. 29, 1984.
- Jan. 17 – The 1992 season comes to a close. Miami suffers five turnovers (two interceptions and three fumbles) as the team drops a 29-10 decision to the Buffalo Bills in the AFC Championship Contest before a crowd of 72,703 at Joe Robbie Stadium. The attendance of 72,703 marks the largest crowd to witness a Dolphin game at JRS. The previous high was 71,224 which was set the previous week on January 10 to witness the Dolphins' 31-0 win over San Diego in an AFC Divisional Playoff.
- Jan. 26 – Kim Helton is named the team's offensive line coach. John Sandusky, who served as assistant head coach/offensive line, remains with the team as assistant head coach and assumes the responsibility of coaching the tight ends. In addition, assistant offensive line coach Dwight Stephenson resigns to pursue his interests in the construction and real estate business.
- Jan. 30 – Former Dolphins great Larry Little is among a group of five named to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. The former Dolphin guard becomes the fifth player in Miami history to earn the honor, joining RB Larry Csonka, QB Bob Griese, C Jim Langer and WR Paul Warfield.
- Feb. 7 – The Dolphin coaching staff leads the AFC to a 23-20 overtime

- win over the NFC in the Pro Bowl contest played in Honolulu, Hawaii.
- Feb. 11 - Mike Shula resigns as a coaches assistant and is named as tight end coach of the Chicago Bears.
 - Feb. 22 - Tony Nathan, who spent the past five years as a coaches' assistant on the Miami Dolphins coaching staff, is promoted to offensive backs coach. In addition, Carl Taseff, who served as the team's offensive backs coach since joining the Dolphins in 1970, will become more active in other areas of the football operation, including personnel scouting and evaluation, and will maintain a continued involvement in various coaching responsibilities.
 - May 21 - Kim Helton resigns as offensive line coach to become head coach at the University of Houston. John Sandusky, who served as offensive line coach from 1976-92, resumes his offensive line coaching responsibilities.
 - June 1 - Rich McGeorge is named as Assistant Offensive Line/Tight Ends Coach of the Dolphins.
 - June 4 - Dolphins hold last practice session at St. Thomas University, which had served as host to team's training facility since July 12, 1970.
 - June 15 - The Robbie family enters into a non-binding letter of intent with a group headed by Nelson Peltz to sell a majority interest in the Dolphins and their fifty percent interest in Robbie Stadium Corporation and its affiliates.
 - July 11 - Ribbon cutting ceremonies officially open the Dolphins' new training facility on campus of Nova University in Davie, Fla.

DOLPHIN FACT

Entering 1993, there are 11 NFL teams which have never beaten the Dolphins in a regular-season game in Miami. The Dolphins are 3-0 vs. Chicago, 2-0 vs. Dallas, 4-0 vs. Denver, 1-0 vs. Detroit, 5-0 vs. Green Bay, 2-0 vs. New Orleans, 4-0 vs. Philadelphia, 3-0 vs. Phoenix, 3-0 vs. Seattle, 1-0 vs. Tampa Bay and 2-0 vs. Washington.

DOLPHIN FACT

The 1972 Dolphins continue to hold the distinction of being the only unbeaten, untied team through the playoffs. Miami went a perfect 17-0 in winning Super Bowl VII. In that season, the Dolphins became the only team to lead the NFL in scoring offense and defense in the same season since the 1970 merger of the AFL and NFL.

PLAYOFF HISTORY

1970 AFC PLAYOFF

OAKLAND 21, MIAMI 14
December 27, 1970

Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum
Oakland, CA

Oakland quarterback Daryle Lamonica unloaded an 82-yard touchdown pass to Rod Sherman with 9:34 left to play as Oakland spoiled the Dolphins first appearance in the playoffs, 21-14, on a field oozing with mud. The Dolphins, who had won six consecutive games to finish the season 10-4 and gain a wild-card berth, took a 7-0 lead in the second quarter when Bob Griese fired a 16-yard strike to Paul Warfield in the end zone. Lamonica matched that TD with a 22-yard toss to Fred Biletnikoff only 1:50 before halftime. Raider right cornerback Willie Brown intercepted a wet and wobbly pass by Griese and fled 50 yards along the sideline for the tie-breaking TD. It came minutes after Jake Scott recovered an Oakland fumble at the Miami 10-yard line. The heave to Sherman was insurance. Only three plays earlier, Dolphin kicker Garo Yepremian missed a 24-yard field goal attempt for the second time in the game. Oakland's George Blanda also missed a 23-yarder.

December 25, 1971

Kansas City Municipal Stadium
Kansas City, MO

Garo Yepremian ended 82 minutes and 40 seconds of an epic struggle by booting a 37-yard field goal with 7:40 elapsed in the second overtime, lifting the Dolphins past Kansas City, 27-24, on Christmas Day. The Dolphins battled from behind three times to tie the AFC West champions, the third time on Bob Griese's five-yard pass to tight end Marv Fleming with 96 seconds remaining in regulation. Kansas City running back Ed Podolak, who amassed 350 yards of all-purpose running, returned the ensuing kickoff 78 yards to the Dolphin 22 where Curtis Johnson missed a desperation tackle. With 35 seconds on the clock, Jan Stenerud missed a 32-yard field-goal try. Stenerud had a 42-yarder blocked by Nick Buoniconti in the fifth quarter, and Yepremian was short with a 45-yard effort. But Larry Csonka crashed 29 yards to the Chiefs 36, and that put Yepremian, the NFL's scoring leader, in position to win it. Goal posts were on the goal line; in 1974 the uprights were moved to the end line.

1971 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

MIAMI 21, BALTIMORE 0

January 2, 1972

Orange Bowl

Miami, FL

Three lightning plays and a persistent defense propelled the Dolphins into Super Bowl VI with a 21-0 rout of Baltimore before an all-time Orange Bowl record crowd of 78,939. Strong safety Dick Anderson intercepted a Johnny Unitas pass which was deflected by Curtis Johnson, and behind a wall of six open-field blocks Anderson weaved 62 yards for a third-quarter touchdown. "My eyes were popping as I ran," Anderson said, "I've never seen so many people land on their heads." Before Anderson's convoy made it 14-0, the Dolphins staggered the defending Super Bowl champions when Bob Griese and Paul Warfield hooked up for a 75-yard TD pass. Warfield applied the clincher when he escaped 50 yards with a Griese pass, setting up a five-yard TD slam by fullback Larry Csonka. The Colts had not been held scoreless for 97 games over seven seasons. They were stopped at the Dolphin 9 in the second quarter. Jim O'Brien missed two field-goal attempts and had another blocked by Lloyd Mumphord.

SUPER BOWL VI

DALLAS 24, MIAMI 3
January 16, 1972

Tulane Stadium
New Orleans, LA

A 252-yard rushing attack and sharp passing by Roger Staubach spurred the Dallas Cowboys to a 24-3 victory over the Dolphins at Tulane Stadium. Duane Thomas pranced 95 yards on 19 carries, fullback Walt Garrison added 74 yards on 14 carries and Staubach passed twice for touchdowns to Lance Alworth and Mike Ditka. Staubach, who was sacked twice in the first quarter, bounced back to complete 12 of 19 passes, and he scrambled from the Dolphin pass rush five times. The Dolphins were frustrated all day; in the first quarter, Larry Csonka lost a fumble and Bob Griese was chased by tackle Bob Lilly for a 29-yard loss. Griese also fumbled away a snap at the Dallas 16 in the fourth period. Although it was an intriguing 10-3 at halftime, the Cowboys marched 71 yards in eight plays after the kickoff, and Thomas swept three yards for the TD.

1972 AFC PLAYOFF

MIAMI 20, CLEVELAND 14
December 24, 1972

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

On the ropes in the fourth quarter after an unprecedented 14 victories, the Dolphins responded to poised Earl Morrall and drove 80 yards for a touchdown with 4:56 to play for a 20-14 victory over the Cleveland Browns. Morrall, the NFL's leading passer after replacing the injured Bob Griese 10 weeks earlier, had completed only four passes for 38 yards. But he threw 15 and 35 yards to Paul Warfield, reaching the Browns 20, and a pass interference call against linebacker Billy Andrews, put the ball at the eight. Halfback Jim Kiick then bulled eight yards up the middle on a trap for the winning points. The triumph was sealed with a minute to play when Dolphin linebacker Doug Swift intercepted Cleveland QB Mike Phipps at the Dolphin 20. Despite stealing five of Phipps' passes, the Dolphins were stung by a 27-yard TD pass to Fair Hooker and trailed 14-13 with 8:11 to play.

1972 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

MIAMI 21, PITTSBURGH 17
December 31, 1972

Three Rivers Stadium
Pittsburgh, PA

Quarterback Bob Griese, playing 11 weeks after he had broken his right leg, ignited a third-quarter touchdown drive with a 52-yard pass to Paul Warfield, and the Dolphins overtook the Pittsburgh Steelers, 21-17, in unusually warm 63-degree weather. Griese was given the nod in the second half after Earl Morrall had flipped a nine-yard touchdown pass to Larry Csonka for a 7-7 halftime deadlock. Punter Larry Seiple broke loose on a daring 37-yard run on fourth down to set up that TD. Trailing 10-7, Griese directed TD drives of 80 and 49 yards with Jim Kiick blasting two and three yards for the scores. Steeler quarterback Terry Bradshaw, who closed the gap with four straight completions on a 71-yard TD drive, was intercepted by Nick Buoniconti at midfield with 2½ minutes to play. In addition to Seiple's dash, the Dolphins converted fourth-down situations on both Griese-led drives.

SUPER BOWL VII

MIAMI 14, WASHINGTON 7

January 14, 1973

Memorial Coliseum

Los Angeles, CA

"This is the ultimate," Coach Don Shula said quietly after his unbeaten Dolphins dominated the Washington Redskins, 14-7, to cap a perfect season. It was Shula's first Super Bowl triumph in three tries. A record Super Bowl paid crowd of 90,182 saw the Dolphins surge to a 14-0 halftime lead even as one touchdown was nullified by an offside penalty. Miami intercepted three of Bill Kilmer's passes, and Manny Fernandez scuttled the Redskin running game with 17 tackles. An original Dolphin, Howard Twilley, eluded cornerback Pat Fischer to snare a 28-yard touchdown pass from Bob Griese in the first quarter. Griese's 57-yard TD bomb to Paul Warfield was erased by the penalty, but a 32-yard interception return by linebacker Nick Buoniconti set up the Dolphins' second score. Safety Jake Scott thwarted Kilmer with an end zone interception and 55-yard runback. The Redskins finally scored on a bizarre 49-yard fumble recovery by Mike Bass after a blocked field goal and attempted pass by kicker Garo Yepremian. Scott was named MVP.

1973 AFC PLAYOFF

MIAMI 34, CINCINNATI 16

December 23, 1973

Orange Bowl

Miami, FL

A defense which had allowed only 15 touchdowns all season kept the Cincinnati Bengals out of the end zone while the Dolphins hammered 241 yards on the ground for a convincing 34-16 victory. Mercury Morris scooted 106 yards on 20 carries and Bob Griese completed 11 of 18 passes, including TDs of 13 yards to Paul Warfield and seven yards to Jim Mandich. Garo Yepremian converted long field goals of 50 and 46 yards in the second half to widen the winning margin. The Dolphins led 21-3 when a lapse just before halftime gave life to the Bengals. Safety Neal Craig intercepted Griese and returned it 45 yards for a score, and Horst Muhlmann booted field goals of 46 and 12 yards – the second coming after Morris fumbled a kickoff – to make it 21-16.

1973 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

MIAMI 27, OAKLAND 10
December 30, 1973

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

A relentless running attack with Larry Csonka and Mercury Morris accounting for 203 of the 266 yards powered the Dolphins to a 27-10 triumph over the Oakland Raiders for a third straight American Conference title. Csonka, a 237-pound battering ram who had his third consecutive 1,000-yard season, scored three touchdowns with his 117 yards on 29 carries. The Dolphins covered 64 and 63 yards exclusively on the ground for a 14-0 halftime lead. Then as the Raiders battled within 17-10, Bob Griese directed ground assaults of 63 yards, culminating in a field goal, and 40 yards, ending in Csonka's third TD. Defensively, safety Dick Anderson forced a fourth-down fumble by Marv Hubbard at midfield, and the Dolphins took possession with a 20-10 lead and six minutes to play. Oakland had stopped Miami's 18-game winning streak, 12-7, three months earlier.

SUPER BOWL VIII

MIAMI 24, MINNESOTA 7

January 13, 1974

Rice Stadium

Houston, TX

Winning for the 32nd time in 34 games, the Dolphins repeated as Super Bowl champions and proved themselves "Best Ever" with a 24-7 rout of the Minnesota Vikings at Rice Stadium. There was no doubt from the beginning. The Dolphins swept 62 yards in 10 plays with the opening kickoff, scoring on Larry Csonka's five-yard smash. Minnesota punted, and the onslaught resumed with a 56-yard, 10-play Dolphin drive capped by Jim Kiick's one-yard plunge. It was 17-0 before the Vikings crossed their 40, and a fourth-down fumble by Minnesota's Oscar Reed was recovered by safety Jake Scott at the Dolphin six-yard line. A brilliant, diving catch by Paul Warfield netted 27 yards on a third-quarter TD drive that hiked the score to 24-0. Csonka finished with his best-ever total of 145 yards on 33 carries. The Dolphins rushed for 703 yards and outscored opponents 85-33 in the three-game playoff blitz. Csonka's yardage was a Super Bowl record and he was named MVP.

1974 AFC PLAYOFF

OAKLAND 28, MIAMI 26

December 21, 1974

Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum

Oakland, CA

Oakland quarterback Ken Stabler, falling in the clutches of Vern Den Herder, unloaded a wobbly eight-yard pass that Clarence Davis wrestled from three defenders in the end zone, and the Raiders scored a stunning 28-26 victory over the defending champion Dolphins. Stabler, who had spent the last of his timeouts, appeared to have thrown an interception. But running back Davis clutched the football when bodies were untangled with 26 seconds remaining. It was the fourth TD pass for lefthander Stabler and his second "freak" score. Four minutes earlier Cliff Branch fell while catching a pass at the Dolphin 27, but defender Henry Stuckey also slipped, and Branch got up and escaped for a 72-yard TD. The Dolphins, trailing by two points, went ahead with 2:08 remaining as rookie Benny Malone broke two tackles on a 23-yard touchdown run along the sideline.

1978 AFC WILD-CARD PLAYOFF

HOUSTON 17, MIAMI 9

December 24, 1978

Orange Bowl

Miami, FL

The Houston Oilers amassed a 455-209 margin in total yardage, and aided by five Dolphin turnovers, gained a 17-9 victory in a battle of AFC wild-card entries at the Orange Bowl. Toni Fritsch kicked a 35-yard field goal with 7:25 remaining to snap a 7-7 tie that existed since the first quarter. An interception by linebacker Greg Bingham led to a clinching 50-yard touchdown drive capped by Earl Campbell's one-yard dive with 1:55 to go. Campbell, the NFL rushing leader with 1,450 yards as a rookie, had been checked for only 16 yards on 13 carries in the first half. Dolphin quarterback Bob Griese, playing with very sore ribs, connected with tight end Andre Tillman for a 13-yard TD after Earnie Rhone had recovered a fumbled punt at the Houston 21. But Griese completed only 13 of 28 passes. Twice the Dolphins lost the ball inside the Oiler 10-yard line when the game was tied. Houston's Dan Pastorini wore a flak jacket to protect three broken ribs, and he passed for 261 of his 306-yard total in the first half.

December 30, 1979

Three Rivers Stadium
Pittsburgh, PA

Launching a drive to their fourth Super Bowl title in six years, the Pittsburgh Steelers scored touchdowns on their first three possessions and coasted to a 34-14 victory at Three Rivers Stadium. Miami managed only 25 yards rushing against the Steel Curtain and was stopped twice in the second quarter after achieving a first down inside the Steeler 10-yard line. The Dolphins got as close as 20-7 with a seven-yard TD pass from Bob Griese to Duriel Harris in the third period, but Pittsburgh responded with a 69-yard TD drive. The Steelers marched 62, 62 and 56 yards for their first-quarter scores when quarterback Terry Bradshaw completed 8 of 10 passes, including touchdowns to John Stallworth and Lynn Swann, who was standing alone in the end zone. Don Strock directed a 13-play, 76-yard TD drive after relieving Griese in the fourth quarter.

1981 AFC PLAYOFF

SAN DIEGO 41, MIAMI 38 (OT)
January 2, 1982

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

A record-setting showcase of the passing game resulted in NFL playoff marks for most points (79), most total yards (1,036) and most drama as the San Diego Chargers outlasted the Dolphins 41-38 in overtime. "The Miracle That Died" was the Miami Herald headline after the Dolphins rallied behind reserve quarterback Don Strock to overcome a 24-point deficit. The Pro Football Hall of Fame voted the contest as the "NFL's Game of the '80s." Strock completed 29 of 43 passes for 403 yards and four touchdowns, spurring the Dolphins to a 38-31 lead. A 12-yard sweep by Tony Nathan on the first play of the fourth quarter put the Dolphins on top. But Charger quarterback Dan Fouts, who passed for an NFL record 4,802 yards during the season, led an 82-yard drive capped by a 9-yard pass to James Brooks to tie the game with 58 seconds remaining. Five players had more than 100 yards in receptions, topped by Charger tight end Keilen Winslow with 13 catches for 166 yards. Fouts, who finished with 433 yards on 33 of 53 marksmanship, hooked up with Charlie Joiner for 39 yards to the Dolphin 10-yard line. Rolf Benirschke then kicked a 29-yard field goal to end the struggle after 13:52 of overtime. Benirschke had missed a 27-yard attempt eight minutes earlier, and Miami's Uwe von Schamann had two attempts blocked – a 43-yarder on the last play of regulation and a 35-yarder after 11:27 of overtime. It was the first game in NFL history in which two quarterbacks passed for more than 400 yards.

1982 AFC PLAYOFF (first round)

MIAMI 28, NEW ENGLAND 13
January 8, 1983

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

For the first time in nine years, the Miami Dolphins won a playoff game, defeating the New England Patriots 28-13. Dolphin QB David Woodley had one of his finest games, completing 16 of 19 passes for 246 yards and two TDs. He was a perfect 8-8 in the second half. The Dolphins had not experienced a playoff win since January 13, 1974, when they downed Minnesota in Super Bowl VIII. The Dolphins took command in the second quarter, putting together back-to-back TD drives of 76 and 79 yards that turned a 3-0 deficit into a 14-3 halftime advantage. The four Miami TDs came on a pair of two-yard passes from David Woodley to tight end Bruce Hardy, a one-yard run by Andra Franklin and Woody Bennett's two-yard burst up the middle. Franklin finished with 112 yards on 26 carries, but lost the ball three times on fumbles. Two of those fumbles resulted in John Smith field goals of 23 and 42 yards for New England.

1982 AFC PLAYOFF (second round)

MIAMI 34, SAN DIEGO 13

January 16, 1983

Orange Bowl

Miami, FL

The Dolphins choked off the famed Charger offense and won 34-13. The Dolphin defense stopped the San Diego offense, holding it to a total of 247 yards - 203 yards below its league-leading average - while holding the Chargers scoreless in the second half. Dolphin defenders intercepted QB Dan Fouts five times, sacked him three times and held the Chargers to 15 completions for 191 yards - their lowest output since a January, 1982, playoff game in the ice at Cincinnati. The Dolphin offense kept Fouts and Company on the sideline by utilizing ball control that produced 80 plays to San Diego's 54 and an overwhelming time of possession advantage; the Dolphins had the ball for 40:46 to the Chargers' 19:14. Dolphin QB David Woodley guided his team to a 214-yard ground attack while connecting on 17-22 passes for 195 yards and two TDs. Woodley opened the scoring with a three-yard pass to Nat Moore in the first quarter and made it 14-0 by directing Miami 89 yards on 13 plays. Charger kickoff returner Hank Bauer fumbled a kickoff which was recovered by Uwe von Schamann at the Charger 23-yard line. Seven plays later, Woodley hit tight end Ronnie Lee on a six-yard look-in pass for the score. On the next kickoff, Dolphin rookie Rich Diana recovered a fumble by the Chargers' James Brooks, but this time Miami had to settle for a 29-yard von Schamann field goal. The Chargers scored two late TDs, one on a 28-yard pass from Fouts to Charlie Joiner and the other on Chuck Muncie's one-yard dive that ended the San Diego scoring. Von Schamann added a second field goal shortly before the end of the first half and Woodley scored on a seven-yard QB draw early in the fourth quarter.

1982 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

MIAMI 14, N.Y. JETS 0
January 23, 1983

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

For the third time in as many games in 1982, the Miami Dolphins defeated the New York Jets, this time on a rainy, mud-soaked Orange Bowl field. The Dolphins set an AFC Championship Game record by holding the Jets to 139 total yards. A.J. Duhe set an AFC playoff record with three interceptions, including one he returned for a 35-yard TD. The Dolphins set an NFL record by being the first team to have defeated the same team three times in a season - two times during the regular season and once in a playoff game. On nine occasions since the AFL-NFL merger, teams had met three times in a season - but no team had won all three games. Before a crowd of 67,396, the Dolphins' Woody Bennett rumbled seven yards up the middle to score the only points the Dolphins would need. That came in the third quarter after the teams had trudged through a scoreless first half on the soggy Prescription Athletic Turf.

SUPER BOWL XVII

WASHINGTON 27, MIAMI 17

January 30, 1983

Rose Bowl
Pasadena, CA

The Washington Redskins, behind the power running of John Riggins, came from behind to win Super Bowl XVII in the famed Rose Bowl, beating Miami 27-17. Before the second-largest crowd for a Super Bowl – 103,667 fans – the Redskins took the lead for the first time with a little more than 10 minutes left on the clock. The game was marked by a Super Bowl record performance by Fulton Walker, who returned four kickoffs 190 yards, including a 98-yard TD that gave Miami a 17-10 halftime lead. It was the first kickoff returned for a TD in Super Bowl history and the longest kickoff return in playoff history. Riggins ran up 166 yards on 38 carries, both Super Bowl records. On a short-yardage play – fourth-and-one from the Redskin 43 with 10:01 to play – Riggins broke a tackle and scored on a 43-yard run. Riggins accounted for 181 total yards, five more yards than the entire Miami offense could manage in the game. In the first quarter, Miami jumped to a quick lead with a 76-yard David Woodley to Jimmy Cefalo pass for a TD.

1983 AFC PLAYOFF

SEATTLE 27, MIAMI 20

December 31, 1983

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins saw their season end on a sour note as they lost a 27-20 decision to the Seattle Seahawks in the first round of the AFC playoffs. Before 71,032 fans in the Orange Bowl, Dolphin rookie quarterback Dan Marino returned from his December 4 knee injury. On their second possession, the Dolphins launched a 12-play, 80-yard drive ending with a 19-yard TD pass from Marino to tight end Dan Johnson (PAT missed). A 59-yard return by Zachary Dixon on the ensuing kickoff led to a six-yard scoring toss from Seattle's Dave Krieg to Cullen Bryant with the extra point, giving the Seahawks a one point lead. Miami immediately retaliated, using a 17-yard Marino to Mark Duper hook-up to pave the way for a 32-yard circus catch by Duper for the touchdown. Early in the third quarter, a David Overstreet fumble in Seattle territory set the Seahawks up for a 55-yard TD march featuring a 28-yard completion from Krieg to Paul Johns, and culminating in a one-yard run by Curt Warner. Norm Johnson's 27-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter gave Seattle a 17-13 lead. The Dolphins managed to regain the lead at 20-17 following a Gerald Small interception (18-yard return) and Woody Bennett's two-yard run with only 3:43 remaining. However, the lead was shortlived as the Seahawks came right back to score on Warner's short run following a pair of Krieg to Steve Largent completions for a total of 56 yards. Miami's Fulton Walker then fumbled the Seattle kickoff, thus leading to a 37-yard Johnson field goal. Another Walker kickoff fumble iced the game for the Seahawks, who were participating in the playoffs for the first time in their eight-year history.

1984 AFC PLAYOFF

MIAMI 31, SEATTLE 10
December 29, 1984

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins led by quarterback Dan Marino's three touchdown passes and a defense that shut out the opposition in three of four quarters, defeated the Seattle Seahawks 31-10 before 73,469 fans in the Orange Bowl. The Dolphins moved in front on their second possession and stayed there. Running back Tony Nathan keyed the 68-yard drive by gaining 38 yards on four carries, including the touchdown on a 14-yard run. A 26-yard Marino to Mark Clayton completion was the long play of the scoring march. A 32-yard interception return by Seattle's John Harris and a 25-yard pass from Dave Krieg to Steve Largent paved the way for Norm Johnson's 27-yard field goal that cut Miami's lead to 7-3. The Dolphins, however, came right back to score on their next series as a 20-yard reception by Woody Bennett preceded Marino's 34-yard scoring hook-up with Jimmy Cefalo. The Seahawks made it 14-10 at halftime when Largent scored on a 56-yard catch-and-run play. After Miami's defense had stopped Seattle on the Dolphin 24-yard line to open the second half, the Dolphins embarked on a 13-play, 76-yard TD drive that included a Bruce Hardy touchdown catch from three yards out. After the Seahawks' Jeff West managed just a seven-yard punt, Clayton made an acrobatic catch on a tipped ball in the end zone for a 33-yard TD. Miami closed out the scoring on Uwe von Schamann's 37-yard field goal in a drive that featured a 32-yard Marino to Hardy pass.

MIAMI 45, PITTSBURGH 28

January 6, 1985

Orange Bowl

Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins, led by Dan Marino's 421 yards passing (four touchdowns) and Mark Duper's 148 yards receiving, advanced to Super Bowl XIX by defeating the Pittsburgh Steelers 45-28 in the AFC Championship Game before 76,029 fans in the Orange Bowl. The Dolphins scored on their first offensive series as they moved 67 yards in four plays following a William Judson interception, with the TD coming on a 40-yard pass from Marino to Mark Clayton. Pittsburgh's first score came on Rich Erenberg's seven-yard run that had been set up by Walter Abercrombie's 38 yards gained in the 66-yard march. A 26-yard Uwe von Schamann field goal preceded a 65-yard toss from the Steelers' Mark Malone to John Stallworth that gave Pittsburgh a 14-10 lead. The Dolphins then scored two TDs in the final 2:52 of the first half, the first score coming on a 41-yard reception by Duper. After Lyle Blackwood's interception, Marino hit TE Joe Rose for a 28-yard gain before Tony Nathan gave the Dolphins a 24-14 lead on a two-yard run. Miami then scored on its first three second-half possessions, leading off with Marino's 36-yard scoring strike to Duper. The Steelers closed the gap to 31-21 on Malone's 19-yarder to Stallworth (33-yarder to Louis Lipps in drive). Completions to Duper (41 yards), Nathan (20 yards) and Nat Moore (28 yards) then led to a one-yard TD dive by Woody Bennett. Moore then caught a six-yard touchdown pass before Wayne Capers closed out the scoring with a 29-yard TD reception.

SUPER BOWL XIX

SAN FRANCISCO 38, MIAMI 16
January 20, 1985

Stanford Stadium
Palo Alto, CA

The Miami Dolphins, unable to score in the game's final two quarters, dropped a 38-16 decision to the San Francisco 49ers in Super Bowl XIX before 84,059 fans in Stanford Stadium. The Dolphins were outgained in the contest by a 537-314 margin with the 49ers maintaining possession for 37:11. Miami opened the scoring on its first possession as Uwe von Schamann converted a 37-yard field goal (key play – Dan Marino's 25-yard completion to Tony Nathan). San Francisco jumped ahead 7-3 when QB Joe Montana led the Niners on an eight-play, 78-yard drive that culminated in a 33-yard TD toss to Carl Monroe. The Dolphins scored their only touchdown of the game on their next series as two Marino completions to Mark Clayton (18, 13 yards) and a 21-yarder to Dan Johnson paved the way for Johnson's two-yard scoring catch. Touchdown runs of eight and two yards by Roger Craig and Montana's six-yard scamper gave San Francisco a 28-10 lead. Von Schamann then connected on field goals of 31 and 30 yards in the final 12 seconds of the first half to close the Dolphin deficit to 28-16. The 49ers upped their lead on their initial second-half possession on Ray Wersching's 27-yard field goal, before closing out the scoring on Craig's 16-yard scoring reception (key play – 40-yard Montana to Wendell Tyler pass play).

1985 AFC PLAYOFF

MIAMI 24, CLEVELAND 21

Orange Bowl

Miami, FL

Most people had not given them much of a chance to win, but the 8-8 Cleveland Browns nearly upset the 12-4 Dolphins in the Orange Bowl. It would take two Ron Davenport touchdowns in the final 17 minutes to send Miami to a 24-21 victory and the AFC Championship Game against New England the following week. Fuad Reveiz put the Dolphins on the board early with a 51-yard field goal on Miami's first drive of the game. But Cleveland came back to score 21 unanswered points, and held a 21-3 advantage midway through the third quarter. Cleveland rookie quarterback Bernie Kosar, who had played two college seasons in the Orange Bowl for the University of Miami, hit Ozzie Newsome with a 16-yard touchdown pass for the Browns first points of the day. Earnest Byner (16-161) ran in from 21 yards out just before the half, and then he broke a 66-yard touchdown jaunt 3:38 into the second half. Just like that, the improbable began to look possible. Dan Marino connected with Nat Moore for a six-yard touchdown pass just over six minutes later and Miami had closed the margin to 21-10. Then it was time for Davenport (6-48) to show his stuff. First, he hit the hole for a 31-yard touchdown run late in the third period and then he closed the scoring and put Miami up for good, going over from one yard out with just 1:57 remaining in the game.

1985 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

NEW ENGLAND 31, MIAMI 14
January 12, 1986

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

The New England Patriots garnered a bid to their first Super Bowl by snapping an 18-game losing streak to the Dolphins in Miami with a 31-14 triumph at the Orange Bowl. The Patriots' only previous victory in Miami came in the first meeting between the two teams in 1966. New England backs Craig James (22-105) and Robert Weathers (16-87) combined for 192 yards rushing and quarterback Tony Eason was on target with a 10-12 performance for 71 yards as the Pats set up a Super Bowl date with the Chicago Bears. After New England got on the board first with a Tony Franklin 23-yard field goal, the Dolphins stormed back for their only lead of the afternoon when Dan Marino passed 10 yards to Dan Johnson early in the second quarter. Eason brought New England right back with three touchdown tosses, and the Pats led 24-7 after three quarters. Miami's last score of the day came early in the fourth quarter when Tony Nathan grabbed a 10-yard TD pass from Marino. New England fullback Mosi Tatupu ended the game's scoring with a one-yard TD jaunt midway through the fourth quarter.

1990 AFC FIRST ROUND PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 17, KANSAS CITY 16
January 5, 1991

Joe Robbie Stadium
Miami, FL

Dan Marino threw two fourth quarter touchdown passes to lead the Dolphins to a dramatic come-from-behind 17-16 playoff win over the Kansas City Chiefs before a crowd of 67,276 at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the final period, Marino hit on all eight of his pass attempts for 101 yards and two touchdowns. It was the 16th time in his career that Marino has engineered a fourth quarter comeback. Including the third quarter, Marino hit on his last ten pass attempts - third longest in team history - to lead the Dolphins back from a 13-3 deficit to a 17-16 win. The win raised Miami's playoff record to 15-10 (all under Don Shula). Shula's overall playoff record improved to 17-13. Miami increased their record to 11-4 at home in playoff contests. The Chiefs opened the scoring in the first quarter when Charles Washington blocked a Reggie Roby punt and returned the ball to Miami's 37-yard line. However, the Miami's defense stiffened and held the Chiefs to a 27-yard field goal by Nick Lowery. Miami kicker Pete Stoyanovich tied the score at 3-3 in the second period by booting an NFL playoff record 58-yard field goal.

Stoyanovich's kick broke the previous record of 54 yards by Detroit's Eddie Murray on December 24, 1983, against San Francisco and it was the second-longest kick of Stoyanovich's career. The Chiefs took a 10-3 halftime lead by scoring on a 26-yard touchdown strike from Steve DeBerg to Stephone Paige. The Chiefs extended their lead to 16-3 on a pair of third quarter field goals by Lowery from 25 and 38 yards. In the fourth quarter, the Dolphins closed the score to 16-10 as Marino hit fullback Tony Paige with a one-yard touchdown pass. The key play in the drive was a two-yard run by Sammie Smith on a fourth-and-two from Kansas City's 45-yard line. The Dolphins forced the Chiefs to punt on their next possession and received the ball on their own 15-yard line with 10:39 left in the game. The Dolphins converted three third downs and drove to the Chiefs' 12-yard line with 3:28 left in the contest before Marino hit Mark Clayton with a 12-yard touchdown pass to give Miami a 17-16 lead. However, the Chiefs had a chance to win the game as they drove from their own 22-yard line to the Dolphin 34 before Lowery's 52-yard field goal attempt was just short.

1990 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

BUFFALO 44, DOLPHINS 34

January 12, 1991

Rich Stadium

Orchard Park, NY

The Miami Dolphins saw the 1990 season come to an end with a 44-34 loss to the Buffalo Bills in an AFC Divisional Playoff contest in the snow and ice at Rich Stadium. The game was an offensive shootout as the teams combined for 78 points, 48 first downs, 923 total net yards, 662 passing yards, 261 rushing yards, nine touchdowns and five field goals. Individually, Dan Marino (23 of 49 for 323 yards with three TDs and two INTs) and Jim Kelly (19-29-339-3-1) both passed for over 300 yards. Kelly became the only quarterback to throw for over 300 yards against the Dolphin defense in 1990. Mark Duper (three catches for 113 yards and a score) and Buffalo's Andre Reed (4-122-2) and James Lofton (7-149-1) all went over the 100-yard receiving mark. On the ground, the Bills' Thurman Thomas (32 carries for 117 yards and two TDs) and Miami's Sammie Smith (21-99) led the way. Buffalo dominated the first quarter and jumped out to a 13-3 lead. The Bills scored on their first possession as Kelly hit Reed with a 40-yard touchdown strike and the Dolphins answered the score with a 49-yard field goal to close the score to 7-3. Buffalo added a pair of Scott Norwood field goals - from 24 and 22 yards - to close the first quarter scoring. The Bills struck first in the second quarter on a five-yard run by Thomas to lead 20-3. Miami answered the score on its next possession as Marino and Duper combined for a 64-yard touchdown. The Bills came right back and scored as Kelly threw 13 yards for a score to Lofton to take a 27-10 lead. On their next possession Miami was forced to punt, however the Bills' Al Edwards fumbled the punt and Reggie Roby recovered for Miami on Buffalo's 47-yard line. Miami drove down to the two-yard line where Marino ran in for the score to narrow Buffalo's lead to 27-17 at the half. The Dolphins and Buffalo exchanged third quarter field goals as Stoyanovich hit from 22 yards and Norwood connected from 28 yards. Miami closed the score to 30-27 early in the fourth quarter as Marino threw a two-yard touchdown pass to offensive guard Roy Foster. It was the first reception and touchdown of Foster's career as he became the first offensive or defensive lineman to score an offensive touchdown in a post-season contest since Chicago Bears' defensive tackle William Perry rumbled in from a yard out in Super Bowl XX on January 26, 1986. However, the Bills struck back for 14 quick points to put the game away. First, Thomas scored his second TD of the game on a five-yard run. On the ensuing kickoff, Miami returner Marc Logan fumbled the ball and Norwood recovered for Buffalo on the Dolphins' 29-yard line. Two plays later, Kelly and Reed combined for a 26-yard scoring toss and a 44-27 lead. The Dolphins scored the final touchdown of the game with just 1:15 remaining as Marino hit Tony Martin with an eight-yard TD pass.

1992 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 31, SAN DIEGO 0
January 10, 1993

Joe Robbie Stadium
Miami, FL

Miami cornerback Troy Vincent recorded a pair of interceptions and quarterback Dan Marino threw three touchdown passes to lead the Miami Dolphins to a 31-0 win over the San Diego Chargers in the AFC Divisional Playoffs before a crowd of 71,224 at Joe Robbie Stadium. Miami's 31-point margin of victory was the largest by the team in a playoff game. The previous largest margin of victory in the post-season by the Dolphins was three 21-point wins as Miami had a 21-0 win over the Baltimore Colts on January 2, 1972 in the Orange Bowl, a 34-13 win over the San Diego Chargers on January 16, 1983 in the Orange Bowl and a 31-10 win over the Seattle Seahawks on December 29, 1984 in the Orange Bowl. Overall, the Miami defense totaled four interceptions (also safety Louis Oliver and linebacker Bryan Cox), a forced fumble (by cornerback Stephen Braggs), a fumble recovery (by linebacker Dwight Hollier) and a sack (by defensive end Jeff Hunter). The Dolphins held the Chargers to just ten first downs (three rushing and seven passing), 202 yards of total offense (70 rushing and 132 passing) and three of 15 on third down conversions. The Chargers' 15 possessions ended in seven punts, four interceptions, twice on downs, once on a lost fumble and once at the end of the first half. Following a scoreless first quarter, the Dolphins exploded for 21 points in the second quarter to take a 21-0 lead at the half. Miami's 21 points in the second quarter was the most scored by the Dolphins in any quarter of a playoff game in team history. The previous team high for points in a quarter was 20 points which was scored by Miami in the second quarter against San Diego on January 6, 1983. Miami opened the scoring following a Vincent interception which gave the team possession on San Diego's 48-yard line. Marino led the Dolphins on a nine-play, 48-yard drive which was capped-off as Marino tossed a one-yard scoring pass to fullback Tony Paige. The Dolphins increased their lead to 14-0 later in the period as the team again gained possession of the ball following a Vincent interception and drove 37 yards and scored on a nine-yard connection from Marino to tight end Keith Jackson. Miami scored the final points of the first half as Marino again connected with Jackson and the tight end made a diving 30-yard reception in the endzone for the score. Jackson became just the fourth player in team history to record two touchdown receptions for the Dolphins in a playoff contest. Miami and San Diego played to a scoreless third quarter before the Dolphins scored the game's final ten points in the fourth quarter. Miami increased its lead to 24-0 early in the final stanza as kicker Pete Stoyanovich booted a 22-yard field goal. The Dolphins scored the final points of the game as running back Aaron Craver scored on a 25-yard run to increase the margin to 31-0.

1992 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

BUFFALO 29, DOLPHINS 10
January 17, 1993

Joe Robbie Stadium
Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins suffered five turnovers (two interceptions and three fumbles) as the team dropped a 29-10 decision to the Buffalo Bills in the AFC Championship Game before a crowd of 72,703 at Joe Robbie Stadium. The attendance of 72,703 marked the largest crowd to witness a Dolphin game at JRS. The old record was 71,224 which was set the previous week on January 10 to witness the Dolphins' 31-0 win over San Diego in an AFC Divisional Playoff. Buffalo opened the scoring midway through the opening period as defensive end

Bruce Smith sacked Miami quarterback Dan Marino and forced a fumble which was recovered by Bills linebacker Darryl Talley on the Dolphins' 47-yard line. Buffalo scored off the takeaway as Steve Christie converted on a 21-yard field goal. Miami tied the score at 3-3 later in the period as Pete Stoyanovich converted on a 51-yard field goal attempt. The Bills took a 10-3 lead early in the second period as quarterback Jim Kelly threw a 17-yard touchdown pass to running back Thurman Thomas. On Miami's next possession, Marino's pass attempted was batted in the air by Buffalo defensive end Phil Hansen and intercepted by Hansen on the Dolphins' 17-yard line. The Bills increased their lead to 13-3 as Christie kicked on a 33-yard field goal. Buffalo took a 20-3 early in the third quarter by capitalizing on another Miami turnover as kick returner Mike Williams fumbled the second half kickoff and Buffalo's Carwell Gardner recovered the ball on the Dolphins' 25-yard line. The Bills scored four plays later as running back Kenneth Davis ran into the endzone for a two-yard touchdown. Buffalo increased its lead to 26-3 as Christie hit on a pair of field goals from 21 and 31 yards. Miami closed the score to 26-10 as Marino connected with wide receiver Mark Duper on a 15-yard touchdown pass. With the TD pass, Marino extended his streak to ten consecutive playoff games with one or more touchdown passes which is tied with the Raiders' Ken Stabler (1973-77) for the NFL's all-time record for consecutive post-season games with a touchdown pass. In addition, Duper's touchdown reception was his fifth post-season touchdown catch and broke the team's playoff record for career touchdown receptions. Duper was tied with wide receiver Paul Warfield (four TDs on 34 career playoff catches) and tight end Bruce Hardy (four TDs on 26 catches). Buffalo closed the scoring later in the period as Christie converted his fifth field goal of the game with a 38-yarder.

DOLPHINS HALL OF FAME

LARRY CSONKA

#39

Fullback

Born: 12/25/46

College: Syracuse '68

NFL: 1968-74, 1976-79

Dolphins: 1968-74, 1979

Year Inducted: 1987

Csonka ranks as the Dolphins' all-time leading rusher with 1,506 carries for 6,737 yards (4.5 average) and 53 TDs. A five-time Pro Bowl selection, he put together three consecutive 1,000-yard seasons (1971-73) as Miami advanced to the Super Bowl each year. Csonka shined in those three Super Bowls, averaging 6.3 yards a carry and going over 100 yards rushing in two of them. Originally drafted in the first round out of Syracuse in 1968, he was named the MVP of Super Bowl VIII after carrying 33 times for 145 yards and two touchdowns as the Dolphins steamrolled the Minnesota Vikings, 24-7, for their second straight NFL title. Called a "modern-day Bronko Nagurski" by Dolphin coach Don Shula, "Zonk" also played three seasons with the N.Y. Giants (1976-78) and one year with the Memphis Southmen of the World Football League (1975). His career rushing totals in the NFL, which place him 14th on the league's all-time rushing list, are: 1,891 carries for 8,081 yards (4.3 average) and 64 TDs. He was elected to the Hall of Fame in his second year of eligibility. In 1990, he also was voted the fullback on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team and was named as a running back on the Super Bowl Silver Anniversary all-time team. On Nov. 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Joe Robbie Stadium.

BOB GRIESE

Quarterback

Born: 2/3/45

College: Purdue '67

NFL: 1967-80

Dolphins: 1967-80

Year Inducted: 1990

He was unquestionably the "thinking man's quarterback." Bob Griese, renowned for his poised leadership and ingenious play-calling, sustained the Dolphin offense with a flair for winning from 1967-80.

The bespectacled quarterback became the 14th passer in the NFL's exclusive 25,000-yard club in 1980. On the same day he reached that milestone, he suffered a shoulder injury which ultimately forced his retirement on June 25, 1981. His No. 12 jersey became the first to be retired May 6, 1982, in ceremonies at the Dolphins' annual awards banquet. In 1990, he was also voted the quarterback on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team, and on Nov. 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Joe Robbie Stadium.

He had a .698 winning percentage (91-39-1) under Coach Don Shula. "Cornerstone of the franchise," Dolphin founder Joe Robbie called him. He was a consensus All-Pro quarterback in 1971 and 1977, made six appearances in the Pro Bowl and was voted the team's Most Valuable Player six times by South Florida media.

Since becoming eligible for induction into the Hall of Fame in 1985, Griese was named as a finalist all five years before being elected to the Hall of Fame in 1990.

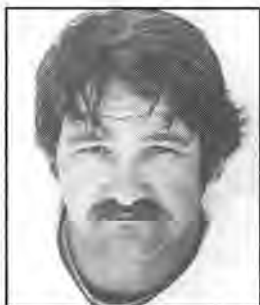

"He's probably the most unselfish guy I've ever been around," Shula said. "He got as much of a thrill calling the right running play for a touchdown as he did connecting on a bomb. That's just his makeup."

JIM LANGER

Center

#62

Born: 5/16/48

College: South Dakota St.
'70

NFL: 1970-81

Dolphins: 1970-79

Year Inducted: 1987

Langer was the anchor of the Miami offensive line during the Dolphins' championship years of the 1970s. Coming out of South Dakota State in 1970, he was signed as a free agent by Cleveland but was released on the final cut. Langer was picked up on waivers by the Dolphins and, after spending most of the year on the taxi squad, played in the final five games of 1970, mainly on special teams. After serving as a backup at center the following season, in 1972 he won the starting job, which he would hold until sidelined with a knee injury in 1979. A consensus All-Pro from 1973-77, Langer was a six-time Pro Bowl selection (five times as a starter). He played in a club-high 128 straight games during his career and also had a team-record 109 consecutive starts. Voted the team's Most Valuable Player by South Florida media in 1975, Langer also holds the distinction of having played every offensive down in the Dolphins' perfect 1972 season. Wanting to spend the final years of his career near his Royalton, Minn., home, at his own request Langer was traded to the Minnesota Vikings in 1980, where he played for two seasons (1980-81). He was elected to the Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility. In addition, on Nov. 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Joe Robbie Stadium.

LARRY LITTLE

Guard

#66

Born: 11/2/45

College: Bethune-
Cookman '67

NFL: 1967-80

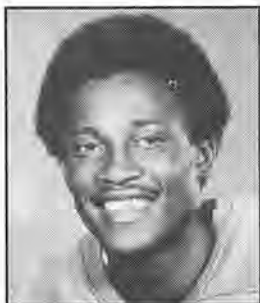

Dolphins: 1969-80

Year Inducted: 1993

A rumbling giant in the Dolphin trenches for 12 seasons, Larry Little's very presence in leading a sweep was an intimidating force in a Miami running attack which led the NFL during the 1970s at 2,372 yards per season. Coming out of Bethune-Cookman in 1967, Little entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent with the San Diego Chargers for a $750 bonus. He was traded to the Dolphins on July 2, 1969, in exchange for Miami cornerback Mack Lamb, a former high school teammate. After having started just four games during his two seasons with the Chargers, Little emerged with the Dolphins and played in 158 regular season games with 152 starting assignments. He also started 12 playoff games for Miami and was a key ingredient of the Dolphins' back-to-back Super Bowl championship teams of 1972 and '73. Little earned All-Pro honors six times (1971-75 and 1977) and was a Pro Bowl selection on four occasions (1971-74). He was the first player in league history to be named as AFC Offensive Lineman of the Year three straight seasons (1970-72) by the NFL Players' Association. Little, who anchored the offensive line which helped set a then-NFL record with 2,960 rushing yards during the Dolphins' "perfect season" in 1972, was named by the National 1,000-Yard Club as the league's Outstanding Blocker for the '72 campaign. A native Floridian, Little was the first Dolphin player inducted into the Florida Sports Hall of Fame on March 6, 1978. In 1990, he was voted as a guard on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team. Little was elected into the Hall of Fame in his eighth year of eligibility after having been a finalist on three occasions.

PAUL WARFIELD

#42

Wide Receiver

Born: 11/28/42

College: Ohio State '64

NFL: 1964-74, 1976-77

Year Inducted: 1983

Warfield sandwiched two stints with the Cleveland Browns around a five-year career with the Dolphins. After spending his first six seasons in the NFL with the Browns (1964-69), Warfield was acquired by Miami in January of 1970 in exchange for a first-round pick in the upcoming draft. In his five seasons with the Dolphins, Warfield had 156 receptions for 3,355 yards (21.5 average) and 33 TDs – good enough to place him eleventh on the team's all-time receiving list. A member of both the '72 and '73 Super Bowl championship teams, he was selected to play in the Pro Bowl all five years he was with the Dolphins (once as a starter), in addition to being named to the AFC squad twice with the Browns. Warfield, the only Dolphin in the team's history to score four touchdowns in one game, also played one season with the Memphis Southmen of the World Football League (1975) before finishing his career with Cleveland (1976-77). His career receiving totals in the NFL are: 427 receptions for 8,565 yards (20.1 average) and 85 TDs, and his 85 touchdown catches is tied for the fifth highest career total in NFL history. He was elected to the Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility. In 1990, he also was voted as a wide receiver on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team, and on Nov. 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Joe Robbie Stadium.

RETIRED JERSEY #12

Bob Griese's No. 12 jersey became the first Dolphin number to be retired on May 6, 1982, in ceremonies at the Dolphins' annual awards banquet. Heading into the 1992 season, his No. 12 is the only Dolphin number to be honored in that fashion.

No other player in the history of the Dolphins, either before or after Griese, wore No. 12 in regular season play.

Griese was further recognized when he was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1990.

DOLPHIN NAME

Mariners, Marauders, Mustangs, Missiles, Moons, Sharks, Suns – none of those other names suggested to the American Football League expansion franchise in 1965 could raise a fin to the runaway winner.

"Dolphins" was submitted by 622 entrants in a contest which attracted 19,843 entries and more than a thousand different names. The dozen finalists were delivered to a seven-member screening committee of local media.

The bottlenose dolphin, an intelligent creature with an irresistible built-in grin, has inspired wonder for centuries. Plutarch observed 1,900 years ago that the dolphin "is the only creature who loves man for his own sake." Every trainer will have a tale of the dolphin's cleverness and ingenuity, and scientists are fascinated by a dolphin's natural equipment which far surpasses the range of Navy sonar equipment.

"The dolphin is one of the fastest and smartest creatures of the sea," Joe Robbie said in announcing the team name on October 8, 1965. "Dolphins can attack and kill a shark or a whale. Sailors say bad luck will come to anyone who harms one of them."

Mrs. Robert Swanson of West Miami won two lifetime passes to Dolphin games with her nickname entry. The tiebreaker was picking the winner and score of the 1965 game between the University of Miami and Notre Dame – it ended in a scoreless tie.

- This is the first time that the Dolphins will play a contest in the Georgia Dome. Overall, it is Miami's first trip into Atlanta for a preseason game since the Falcons earned a 19-17 win on Aug. 30, 1985, at Fulton-County Stadium.
- The Falcons lead the preseason all-time series over Miami by a 3-2 margin, which includes a 1-0 mark in games played in Atlanta.
- Entering the '93 season, Dan Marino has missed only two regular season or postseason games due to injury over the course of his career. The first of those two games was as a rookie against the Atlanta Falcons on Dec. 10, 1983, in the Orange Bowl. He also missed the next week's contest against the New York Jets (12/16/83).

- Miami set an NFL record with 20 consecutive wins over Buffalo from 1970-79.
- Starting with the 1987 season, the Bills have won 12 of the last 14 games (including playoffs) played between the two teams. Miami's only wins against Buffalo since 1987 are a 30-7 triumph on Sept. 16, 1990, at Joe Robbie Stadium and a 37-10 win on Oct. 4, 1992, at Rich Stadium. Miami's win at Buffalo in '92 snapped a six-game losing streak to the Bills at Rich Stadium. Prior to 1992, the Dolphins' last triumph in Buffalo was a 34-24 win on Nov. 16, 1986.
- Miami and the Bills battled in the AFC Championship Game on Jan. 17, 1993, at JRS with Buffalo earning a 29-10 win and a trip to Super Bowl XXVII. The Dolphins are now 0-2 against Buffalo in the playoffs after having also dropped a 44-34 decision at the Bills in an AFC Divisional Playoff game on Jan. 12, 1990.

- The Dolphins lead the overall series against Cleveland by a 7-4 margin (5-4 in the regular season and 2-0 in the playoffs) and the series is tied at 3-3 in games played in Cleveland.
- The Dolphins have a number of coaches and football staff with Cleveland connections: Head Coach Don Shula, staff assistant Carl Taseff and offense/quarterbacks coach Gary Stevens are all graduates of Cleveland's John Carroll Univ., with Shula and Taseff eventually playing for the Browns from 1951-52 and assistant head coach/offensive line coach John Sandusky played with Cleveland from 1950-55. Also, Taseff and Stevens were born in Cleveland, while defense coach Tom Olivadotti was an assistant coach with the Browns during 1985-86 and Tom Heckert, Miami's director of player personnel, spent five seasons (1982-86) as a college scout for the Browns.
- Miami has won four consecutive games over the Browns.

- Miami leads the all-time preseason series against the Broncos by a 5-4 margin. The Dolphins have won all three games played in Miami, while the Broncos have won the three meetings in Denver. The two teams have battled on a neutral playing field on three occasions and Miami leads in those games by a 2-1 margin.
- This year's preseason contest between the Dolphins and Broncos will be seen on national television on NBC-TV and will mark the fourth consecutive year that the two teams will battle in the preseason and the game will be seen nationally. Miami's 17-16 win over Denver on Aug. 25, 1990, at Joe Robbie Stadium was seen on TNT; Denver's 21-13 win over Miami on Aug. 19, 1991, at Mile High Stadium was seen on ABC-TV and Miami's 31-17 win on Aug. 15, 1992, at Berlin's Olympic Stadium was seen on NBC-TV.

- While Miami and Denver have battled for four consecutive years in the preseason, the two teams have not met in regular season action since Sept. 25, 1985, when the Dolphins earned a 30-26 win at Mile High Stadium.

- The Dolphins have won 24 of the last 30 meetings between the two teams. Miami defeated Indianapolis 14 straight times between 1980-87, before the Colts' 40-21 win on Nov. 5, 1987, at Joe Robbie Stadium. Miami is 13-5 against the Colts since the team moved to Indianapolis in 1984.
- Dan Marino has faced the Colts 20 times and owns a 15-5 record against the team. Marino has a better touchdown to interception differential with a +24 (34 TDs to 10 INTs) against the Colts than against any other single opponent.
- The Dolphins defense recorded a 28-0 shutout over the Colts at the Hoosier Dome on Nov. 1, 1992. It was the first shutout by the team since Oct. 11, 1987, as the Dolphins posted a 42-0 replacement game win over Kansas City at JRS. It was the first shutout in a non-replacement game since Dec. 22, 1985, in Miami's 28-0 win over the Buffalo Bills in the Orange Bowl and the first road shutout since Sept. 4, 1983, in a 12-0 win at the Buffalo Bills in Rich Stadium.

- Miami leads in the all-time series against New England by a 33-21 margin. The Dolphins enter the '93 season having won eight straight games over the Pats as Miami swept the season series from 1989-92.
- Miami's current eight-game winning streak over the Patriots is the Dolphins' longest active winning streak over a single NFL opponent ahead of a seven-game active win streak over Green Bay.
- The Dolphins close the 1993 regular season at the Patriots. The season finale at New England marks the second consecutive season that the Dolphins have closed the regular season at the Pats and is just the fourth time in the team's 28-year history that the Dolphins will close the regular season with a road game. The only other years that Miami closed a season with a road game was 1988 at Pittsburgh, 1982 at Baltimore and 1992 at New England. However, the season-ending contest at Baltimore was a rescheduled contest that was moved to the season finale due to the NFL players' strike. The Dolphins were originally scheduled to close the regular season with a home game against Buffalo.

- The Dolphins' regular season home contest against the N.Y. Giants will mark the first time that the two teams have played a regular season game in Miami. The teams were scheduled to meet at JRS in 1987, however the game was canceled due to the NFL players' strike.
- This year's game between the Dolphins and Giants is just the third meeting in the history of the series. This is the fewest total games between Miami and an opponent ahead of the four games between the Dolphins and Detroit Lions.
- This is Miami's first time playing host to the New York Giants in the regular season. There is only one other series in which an NFL team has not visited another franchise as the Kansas City Chiefs have never traveled to face the Philadelphia Eagles.

- In regular season action, Dan Marino has thrown for more career touchdown passes (47) and yards (5,438) against the Jets than any other single opponent. In addition, his career single-game highs for pass attempts (60 on 10/23/88), yards passing (521 on 10/23/88), touchdown passes (six on 9/21/86) and interceptions (five on 10/23/88) all came against the Jets.
- The Dolphins were 0-8 against the Jets before Don Shula arrived as Miami's head coach in 1970. Since that time, the Dolphins have posted a 27-18-1 record against New York in the regular season.
- The Dolphins lead the all-time series with the Jets by a 28-26-1 margin and the all-time regular season series by 27-26-1. Miami won the only playoff meeting between the teams by a 14-0 score on January 23, 1983 in the AFC Championship contest following the 1982 season. The Dolphins are 15-11-1 in the regular season in games played at home against the Jets, including a 3-3 mark in Joe Robbie Stadium.

- Miami will travel to the San Diego Chargers for a Monday Night Football contest which will mark the third time in team history that the Dolphins will play a MNF game on the west coast. Miami's two previous west coast prime time games were both at the Raiders as Miami lost by a 13-3 score at Oakland on October 8, 1979, and by a 27-14 margin at Los Angeles on September 19, 1983.
- Miami will face San Diego in a prime-time contest for just the second time in team history. The Dolphins dropped a 27-24 decision in overtime against the Chargers on Thursday night, November 20, 1980, in the Orange Bowl.
- The Chargers lead the regular season series by a 9-5 margin, including a 6-2 advantage in game played in San Diego. Overall, Miami is 9-14 in games played on the west coast and hold records of 1-6 at the Raiders, 3-0 at the Rams, 2-6 at the Chargers, 2-1 at the 49ers and 1-1 at the Seahawks.

- Miami leads the all-time preseason series against Washington by a 5-4 margin and the regular season series by a 4-2 count.
- This is the first time in the history of the Dolphins that Miami will play the Redskins in both the preseason and regular season during the same year.
- Miami and Washington have battled in two Super Bowls. The Dolphins won Super Bowl VII on January 14, 1973, by a 14-7 score to preserve the NFL's only perfect season. The teams battled again for the NFL crown in Super Bowl XVII on January 30, 1983, with Washington winning the contest by a 27-17 score.

DOLPHIN FACT

Heading into 1992, Miami has not been shut out at home in regular season or playoff action since October 25, 1970, against the Cleveland Browns (28-0), the second-longest such streak in the AFC. Denver has never been whitewashed in Mile High Stadium since the team began play in the AFL in 1960.

DOLPHIN FACT

Dolphins kicker Garo Yepremian is the only player in Miami history to be named as Most Valuable Player in the NFL's annual Pro Bowl contest. On Jan. 20, 1974, Yepremian booted five field goals to account for all of the AFC's scoring in a 15-13 win.

DOLPHIN FACT

In the 1984 season, the Dolphins established a number of NFL season records, including most yards gained (6,936), most yards gained by passing (5,018), most first downs (387), most touchdowns (70), most passing touchdowns (49) and most PATs (66).

DOLPHINS ON THE AIR

WIOD

In 1993, the Miami Dolphins' radio network will consist of over 35 radio stations (over 80 markets) with Miami's WIOD (610 AM) again serving as the flagship station. WIOD has been the originator of Dolphin broadcasts since the team's 1966 inception.

Known for its outstanding sports programming, WIOD's Dolphin coverage is among the most comprehensive in the NFL, including camp reports before the season begins, daily Dolphin updates, the weekly Don Shula Show along with "Sportstalk 610: Dolphin Edition," and over eight hours of game-day coverage beginning four hours before each kickoff.

Handling the play-by-play will be "The Voice of the Dolphins," Rick Weaver, who enters his 23rd season with the Dolphins and his 30th year of calling NFL action. This will be the final season for Weaver behind the WIOD microphone, as the popular broadcaster announced his retirement effective at the conclusion of the campaign at the club's annual awards banquet on May 6th. Weaver, who is famous for starting the "white handkerchief" in 1971, previously broadcast games for Dallas, Chicago, and San Francisco. Weaver is a ten-time recipient of the Florida Sportscaster of the Year award.

Weaver was selected as an honorary member of the Miami Dolphin fans' 25th anniversary team as the club's broadcaster. A native of Toledo, Ohio, the Ohio State graduate resides in Okolona, MS.

Joining Weaver in the booth will be analyst and ex-Dolphin favorite Jim Mandich, who also will host the weekly Don Shula Show heard Friday nights on WIOD. Mandich, in his second year as the color commentator on WIOD's game broadcasts, was a member of the Dolphins' 1972 club that was the NFL's only undefeated team. In his eight seasons as a Dolphin tight end (1970-77), Mandich caught 121 passes for 1,406 yards (11.6 yards per catch) with 23 touchdowns and ranks 14th in Dolphin team history in receiving and tied for 16th in club annals in scoring with 138 points.

WQBA

For the 12th straight year, the Dolphins' South Florida Latin fans will be able to follow the team home and away on WQBA (1140 AM). The 1993 season marks the ninth year of the shift over to WQBA's AM outlet.

Rene Giraldo, who has been a part of WQBA's broadcasts for all 12 seasons, will handle the play-by-play for his eighth straight year after previously serving as a color analyst. He will again be joined in the booth by veteran analyst Eduardo Lujan, who has served as the producer and color commentator on the Dolphins' Spanish broadcasts since their inception, and by Roly Martin, also a long-time member of the broadcast team.

SUNSHINE NETWORK

"Miami Dolphins Monday Night Magazine", the live weekly magazine program of the Miami Dolphins that is produced and distributed in association with Sunshine Network, enters its fourth season in 1993.

The one-hour show is broadcast live in prime time at 7:00 PM every Monday night during the football season to Sunshine Network's statewide television audience of three million cable homes. When it premiered three years ago, it was Florida's first regularly scheduled and locally originated statewide live television sports talk show.

"Miami Dolphins Monday Night Magazine" features current Dolphin players, coaches, and executives as well as prominent print and broadcast personalities and former Dolphin greats in a lively discussion. The program also includes game highlights, behind the scenes team features, a viewer call-in segment, fan features, and a preview of the Dolphins' upcoming game.

Sunshine Network is Florida's largest regional cable network (and the third largest in the nation), providing high-quality sports and public affairs programming to three million homes across the state, including over one million in the greater Miami area.

PRESEASON TELEVISION

One of the Dolphins' four preseason games in 1993 will be telecast on a national basis on NBC-TV, while the other three games will be broadcast in Miami on WCIX-TV (Channel 6). In addition, as part of the three-year agreement between WCIX-TV and the Dolphins, those three contests also will be telecast by WPEC-TV (Channel 12) in West Palm Beach.

The Dolphins will make their only national television appearance of the preseason on Friday, August 20th when they travel to Denver to play the Broncos in Mile High Stadium in a game that will be broadcast coast-to-coast by NBC-TV beginning at 8:00 PM ET.

The Dolphins' first road preseason game, on Friday, August 6th against the Atlanta Falcons in Atlanta, will be telecast live from the Georgia Dome by WCIX and WPEC at 7:30 PM. In addition, the Dolphins' two home preseason games, on Saturday, August 14th against the Washington Redskins and Saturday, August 28th against the New York Giants, will be telecast by WCIX and WPEC. Those two games will be shown live at 8:00 PM if they are sold out 72 hours in advance of game time; otherwise they will be broadcast on a delayed basis.

This year marks the third season of a three-year co-venture between the Dolphins and WCIX-TV, whereby that station will produce the game action coverage and jointly broadcast the games with WPEC-TV. It also is the 11th consecutive season that WCIX has telecast Dolphin preseason games. ESPN sports broadcaster Brad Nessler will handle the play-by-play for the WCIX telecasts. He was the play-by-play commentator for two Dolphin preseason games on WCIX-TV last year, and has broadcast a variety of events in his career that included two years at CBS Sports before joining ESPN in September, 1992. Former Dolphin great and Pro Football Hall of Famer Bob Griese, a member of ABC-TV's broadcast team for college football, returns as the color analyst for the WCIX telecasts. WCIX-TV sports anchors Khambrel Marshall and Steve Shapiro will host the pregame, postgame, and halftime shows during those telecasts. Mac McDonald returns as the producer for WCIX.

MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS: Media representatives who do not have press credentials for the entire season (but will be working for an accredited media outlet on an immediate deadline) may request them on a single-game basis. Written credential requests must be made at least four working days in advance to: Harvey Greene, Director of Media Relations, Miami Dolphins, Joe Robbie Stadium, 2269 N.W. 199th St., Miami, FL 33056 (305-623-6262). Reserved credentials can be picked up at the press gate, located outside Gate G of Joe Robbie Stadium, on the day of the game.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Photographers with accredited media outlets on an immediate deadline may request credentials on a single-game basis from the Dolphins' media relations department. Credentials WILL NOT be issued to freelance photographers unless granted special approval by the Dolphins. Field photographers are reminded to remain outside of the bench area.

PRESS BOX: To get to the Joe Robbie Stadium press box, enter at Gate G. Go through two sets of doors and take the exclusive press elevator to the press box. There are two levels: working press (level 2) and TV/radio/coaches booths (level 3). Stairs and the elevator connect both levels. Only credentials issued by the Dolphins or the Professional Football Writers of America will be honored for admittance to Joe Robbie Stadium.

LOCKER ROOMS: Admission to the home and visiting locker rooms is governed by each individual team. Only media representatives with proper credentials, granting locker room access or those stamped with "Locker Room Access," will be admitted. No one will be admitted to the locker rooms prior to the game. Both teams' locker rooms are located on ground level on the west side of the stadium. From the press box, take the elevator to ground level. Out of the elevator follow corridor to the left and go a quarter of the way around the stadium to locker rooms and interview room.

INTERVIEW ROOM: Coach Shula will hold his post-game press conference immediately following the conclusion of the game in the interview room, which is located on the ground level in the west side of the stadium. From the press box, take the elevator to the ground level. Out of the elevator follow corridor to the left and go a quarter way around the stadium. Turn left into corridor before locker room to interview room.

PARKING: Press parking at Joe Robbie Stadium is very limited. All parking requests must be directed to Harvey Greene, Director of Media Relations, (305-623-6262).

TELEPHONES: Any media member desiring to have their own press box telephone line must order it directly from Thania Diaz, Southern Bell Special Services (lines) at (305) 780-2830. Instruments can be ordered from the Dolphins' media relations department, (305-623-6262).

COPY TRANSMISSION: Copy transmission is available at every Dolphin home game. The transmission representative is Tim Lippman, 16541 Blatt Blvd., Apt. 203, Ft. Lauderdale, FL 33326 (305-384-0620).

FIELD ACCESS: Only working newspaper and TV photographers and club/stadium officials are permitted on the field during the game. Press box passes will not be honored for field admittance at any time, except when there are less than six minutes remaining in the game. At that point all non-photographers are required to remain behind the endzone and only (no sideline access) outside the yellow restraining boundary line.

ADVANCING: Generally, the Dolphins request that the opposing team's media relations representative visit training camp on Wednesday to coincide with the weekly media conference call.

PRACTICE: Regular-season practice sessions usually are held at 4:00 p.m. Mondays, 2:00 p.m. Wednesday through Friday, and at 11:00 a.m. on Saturday (home games). Practices normally are closed to out-of-town media unless special permission is granted by the coaching staff. To request permission, or to arrange any interviews, contact the Dolphins' media relations department. The team locker room is open to the media for 45 minutes (lunchtime) Monday and Wednesday through Friday. The players are off on Tuesdays.

FOR MORE INFO: For more information on the Dolphins, contact the media relations department: Harvey Greene, Director of Media Relations, Scott Stone, Assistant Director; and Gayle Baden, secretary. Office phone is (305) 623-6262, night numbers are (305) 623-6271/623-6132 and training camp PR numbers are (305) 452-7010 and (305) 452-7000-switchboard.

TRAINING CAMP: The Dolphins practice at Nova University during both the preseason and regular season. The campus is located in Davie at 7500 S.W. 30th Street.

MEDICAL GLOSSARY

AC Joint – Acromioclavicular joint; joint of the shoulder where acromion process of the scapula and the distal end of the clavicle meet; most shoulder separations occur at this point.

Abduct – Movement of any extremity away from the midline of the body. This action is achieved by an abductor muscle.

Abrasion – Any injury which rubs off the surface of the skin.

Abscess – An infection which produces pus; can be the result of a blister, callus, penetrating wound or laceration.

Adduct – Movement of an extremity toward the midline of the body. This action is achieved by an adductor muscle.

Adhesion – Abnormal adherence of collagen fibers to surrounding structures during immobilization following trauma or as a complication of surgery which restricts normal elasticity of the structures involved.

Aerobic – Exercise in which energy needed is supplied by oxygen inspired and is required for sustained periods of vigorous exercise with a continually high pulse rate.

Anabolic Steroids – Steroids that promote tissue growth by creating protein in an attempt to enhance muscle growth. The main anabolic steroid is testosterone (male sex hormone).

Anaerobic – Exercise without use of oxygen as an energy source; short bursts of vigorous exercises.

Anaphylactic Shock – Shock that is caused by an allergic reaction.

Anterior Compartment Syndrome – Condition in which swelling within the anterior compartment of the lower leg jeopardizes the viability of muscles, nerves and arteries that serve the foot. In severe cases, emergency surgery is necessary to relieve the swelling and pressure.

Anterior Cruciate Ligament (ACL) – A primary stabilizing ligament within the center of the knee joint that prevents hyperextension and excessive rotation of the joint. A complete tear of the ACL necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

Anterior Talofibular Ligament – A ligament of the ankle that connects the fibula (lateral ankle bone) to the talus. This ligament is oft times subject to sprain.

Anti-Inflammatory – Any agent which prevents inflammation, such as aspirin or ibuprofen.

Anterogram – A film demonstrating arteries after injection of a dye.

Arthrogram – X-ray technique for joints using air and/or dye injected into the affected area; useful in diagnosing meniscus tears of the knee and rotator cuff tears of the shoulder.

Arthroscope – An instrument used to visualize the interior of a joint cavity.

Arthroscopy – A surgical examination of the internal structures of a joint by means for viewing through an arthroscope. An arthroscopic procedure can be used to remove or repair damaged tissue or as a diagnostic procedure in order to inspect the extent of any damage or confirm a diagnosis.

Aspiration – The withdrawal of fluid from a body cavity by means of a suction or siphonage apparatus, such as a syringe.

Atrophy – To shrivel or shrink from disuse, as in muscular atrophy.

Avascular Necrosis – Death of a part due to lack of circulation.

Avulsion – The tearing away, forcibly, of a part or structure.

Baker's Cyst – Localized swelling of a bursa sac in the posterior knee as a result of fluid that has escaped from the knee capsule. A Baker's cyst indicates that there is a trauma inside the knee joint that leads to excessive fluid production.

Bone Scan – An imaging procedure in which a radioactive-labeled substance is injected into the body to determine the status of a bony injury. If the radioactive substance is taken up the bone at the injury site, the injury will show as a "hot spot" on the scan image. The bone scan is particularly useful in the diagnosis of stress fractures.

Brachial Plexus – Network of nerves originating from the cervical vertebrae and running down to the shoulder, arm, hand, and fingers.

Bruise – A discoloration of the skin due to an extravasation of blood into the underlying tissues.

Bursa – A fluid-filled sac that is located in areas where friction is likely to occur, then minimizes the friction; for example between a tendon and bone.

Capsule – An enclosing structure which surrounds the joint and contains ligaments which stabilize that joint.

Cartilage – Smooth, slippery substance preventing two ends of bones from rubbing together and grating.

CAT Scan – Use of a computer to produce a cross sectional view of the anatomical part being investigated from X-ray data.

Cellulitis – Inflammation of cellular or connective tissue.

Cervical Vertebrae – Group of seven vertebrae located in the neck.

Charley Horse – A contusion or bruise to any muscle resulting in intramuscular bleeding. No other injury should be called a charley horse.

Colles' Fracture – A fracture of the distal end of the radius with the lower end being displaced backward.

Concentric Muscle Contraction – A shortening of the muscle as it develops tension and contracts to move a resistance.

Concussion – Jarring injury of the brain resulting in dysfunction. It can be graded as mild, moderate or severe depending on loss of consciousness, amnesia and loss of equilibrium.

Contusion – An injury to a muscle and tissues caused by a blow from a blunt object.

Cortical Steroids – Used to suppress joint inflammation.

Costochondral – Cartilage that separates the bones within the rib cage.

Cryokinetics – Treatment with cold and movement.

Cryotherapy – A treatment with the use of cold.

Cyst – Abnormal sac containing liquid or semi-solid matter.

Degenerative Joint Disease – Changes in the joint surfaces as a result of repetitive trauma.

Deltoid Ligament – Ligament that connects the tibia to bones of the medial aspect of the foot and is primarily responsible for stability of the ankle on the medial side. Is sprained less frequently than other ankle ligaments.

Deltoid Muscle – Muscles at top of the arm, just below the shoulder, responsible for shoulder motions to the front, side and back.

Disc, Intervertebral – A flat, rounded plate between each vertebrae of the spine. The disc consists of a thick fiber ring which surrounds a soft gel-like interior. It functions as a cushion and shock absorber for the spinal column.

Dislocation – Complete displacement of joint surfaces.

Eccentric Muscle Contraction – An overall lengthening of the muscle as it develops tension and contracts to control motion performed by an outside force; oft times referred to a "negative" contraction in weight training.

Eccymosis – Bleeding into the surface tissue below the skin, resulting in a "black and blue" effect.

Edema – Accumulation of fluid in organs and tissues of the body; swelling.

Effusion – Accumulation of fluid, in various spaces in the body, or the knee itself. Commonly, the knee has an effusion after an injury.

Electrical Galvanic Stimulation (EGS) – An electrical therapeutic modality that sends a current to the body at select voltages and frequencies in order to stimulate pain receptors, disperse edema, or neutralize muscle spasms among other functional applications.

Electromyogram (EMG) – Test to determine nerve function.

Epicondylitis – Inflammation in the elbow due to overuse.

Ethyl Chloride – "Cold spray," a chemical coolant sprayed onto an injury site to produce a local, mild anesthesia.

Fat Percentage – The amount of body weight that is adipose, fat tissue. Fat percentages can be calculated by underwater weighing, measuring select skinfold thickness, or by analyzing electrical impedance.

Femur – Thigh bone; longest bone in the body.

Fibula – Smaller of the two bones in the lower leg; runs from knee to the ankle along the outside of the lower leg.

Flexibility – The ability of muscle to relax and yield to stretch forces.

Flexibility Exercise – General term used to describe exercise performed by a player to passively or actively elongate soft tissue without the assistance of an athletic trainer.

Fracture – Breach in continuity of a bone. Types of fractures include simple, compound, comminuted, greenstick, incomplete, impacted, longitudinal, oblique, stress, or transverse.

Gamekeeper's Thumb – Tear of the ulnar collateral ligament of the metacarpophalangeal joint of the thumb.

Glycogen – Form in which foods are stored in the body as energy.

Grade One Injury – A mild injury in which ligament, tendon, or other musculoskeletal tissue may have been stretched or contused, but not torn or otherwise disrupted.

Grade Two Injury – A moderate injury when musculoskeletal tissue has been partially, but not totally, torn which causes appreciable limitation in function of the injured tissue.

Grade Three Injury – A severe injury in which tissue has been significantly, and in some cases totally, torn or otherwise disrupted causing a virtual total loss of function.

Hamstring – Category of muscle that runs from the buttocks to the knee along the back of the thigh. It functions to flex the knee, and is oft times injured as a result of improper conditioning or lack of muscle flexibility.

Heat Cramps – Painful muscle spasms of the arms or legs caused by excessive body heat and depletion of fluids and electrolytes.

Heat Exhaustion – Mild form of shock due to dehydration because of excessive sweating when exposed to heat and humidity.

Heat Stroke – Condition of rapidly rising internal body temperature that overwhelms the body's mechanisms for release of heat and could result in death if not cared for appropriately.

Heel Cup – Orthotic device that is inserted into the shoe and worn under the heel to give support to the Achilles tendon and help absorb impacts at the heel.

Hematoma – Tumor-like mass produced by an accumulation of coagulated blood in a cavity.

Hot Pack – Chemical pack that rests in water, approximately 160 degrees, and retains its heat for 15-20 minutes when placed in a towel for general therapeutic application.

Humerus – Bone of the upper arm that runs from the shoulder to the elbow.

Hydrotherapy – Treatment using water.

Hyperextension – Extreme extension of a limb or body part.

Illiotal Band – A thick, wide fascial layer that runs from the iliac crest to the knee joint and is occasionally inflamed as a result of excessive running.

Inflammation – The body's natural response to injury in which the injury site might display various degrees of pain, sweating, heat, redness, and/or loss of function.

Internal Rotation – Rotation of a joint or extremity medially, to the inside.

Lesion – Wound, injury or tumor.

Ligament – Band of fibrous tissue that connects bone to bone or bone to cartilage and supports and strengthens joints.

Lumbar Vertebrae – Five vertebrae of the lower back that articulate with the sacrum to form the lumbosacral joint.

Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI) – Imaging procedure in which a radio frequency pulse causes certain electrical elements of the injured tissue to react to this pulse and through this process a computer display and permanent film establish a visual image. MRI does not require radiation and is very useful in the diagnosis of soft tissue, disc, and meniscus injuries.

Meniscectomy – An intra-articular surgical procedure of the knee by which all or part of the damaged meniscus is removed.

Meniscus – Crescent shaped cartilage, usually pertaining to the knee joint; also known as "cartilage." There are two menisci in the knee, medial and lateral. These work to absorb weight within the knee and provide stability.

Metacarpals – Five long bones of the hand, running from the wrist to the fingers.

Myositis – Inflammation of a muscle.

Necrotic – Relating to death of a portion of tissue.

Neoprene – Lightweight rubber used in joint and muscle sleeves designed to provide support and/or insulation and heat retention to the area.

Neuritis – Inflammation of a nerve.

Orthotic – Any device applied to or around the body in the care of physical impairment or disability, commonly used to control foot mechanics.

Parasthesia – Sensation of numbness or tingling, indicating nerve irritation.

Patella – The kneecap. The patella functions to protect the distal end of the femur as well as increase the mechanical advantage and force generating capacities of the quadriceps muscle group.

Patella Tendinitis – Inflammation of the patella ligament; also known as "jumpers knee."

Patellofemoral Joint – Articulation of the kneecap and femur. Inflammation of this joint can occur through: 1) acute injury to the patella, 2) overuse from excessive running particularly if there is an associated knee weakness, 3) chronic wear and tear of the knee, 4) as a result of poor foot mechanics. Patellofemoral irritation can lead to chondromalacia, which in its most chronic condition, could require surgery.

Peroneal Muscles – Group of muscles of the lateral lower leg that are responsible for everting the knee. Tendons of these three muscles are vital to the stability of the ankle and foot.

Phalanx – Any bone of the fingers or toes; plural is phalanges.

Phlebitis – Inflammation of a vein.

Plica – Fold of tissue in the joint capsule and a common result of knee injury.

Posterior Cruciate Ligament (PCL) – A primary stabilizing ligament of the knee that provides significant stability and prevents displacement of the tibia backward within the knee joint. A complete tear of this ligament necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

Quadricep Muscles "Quads" – A group of four muscles of the front thigh that run from the hip and form a common tendon at the patella; they are responsible for knee extension.

Radiography – Taking of X-rays.

Radius – Forearm bone on the thumb side.

Reconstruction – Surgical rebuilding of a joint using natural, artificial or transplanted materials.

Referred Pain – Pain felt in an undamaged area of body away from the actual injury.

Retraction – The moving of tissue to expose a part or structure of the body.

Rotator Cuff – Comprised of four muscles in the shoulder area that can be irritated by overuse. The muscles are the supraspinatus (most commonly injured), infra-spinatus, teres minor, and subscapularis.

Rotator Cuff Impingement Syndrome – A microtrauma or overuse injury caused by stress, and the four stages are: 1) Tendinitis with temporary thickening of the bursa and rotator cuff; 2) Fiber dissociation in the tendon with permanent thickening of the bursa and scar formation; 3) A partial rotator cuff tear of less than 1 cm.; and 4) A complete tear of 1 cm. or more.

Sacrum – Group of five fused vertebrae located just below the lumbar vertebrae of the low back.

Scapula – Shoulder blade.

Sciatica – Irritation of the sciatic nerve resulting in pain or tingling running down the inside of the leg.

Sciatic Nerve – Major nerve that carries impulses for muscular action and sensations between the low back and thigh and lower leg; it is the longest nerve in the body.

Shin Splint – A catch-all syndrome describing pain in the shin that is not a fracture or tumor and cannot be defined otherwise.

Sorbothane – An energy absorbing polyurethane utilized in some foot orthotics to absorb shock forces of the foot.

Spasm (Theory) - Muscle soreness induced by exercise; is the result of reduced muscle blood flow, which results in pain.

Spleen – Large, solid organ responsible for the normal production and destruction of blood cells.

Spondylolisthesis – Forward displacement of one vertebrae over another below it due to a developmental defect in the vertebrae.

Spondylosis – Abnormal vertebral fixation or immobility.

Sprain – Injury resulting from a stretch or twist of the joint and causes various degrees of stretch or tear of a ligament or other soft tissue at the joint.

Sternum – The breast bone.

Steroids – Any one of a large number of hormone-like substances. See Anabolic steroids and cortical steroids.

Strain – Injury resulting from a pull or torsion to the muscle or tendon that causes various degrees of stretch or tear to the muscle or tendon tissue.

Stress Fracture – A hair-line type of break in a bone caused by overuse.

Stress X-ray – A continual X-ray taken when a portion of the body is stressed to its maximum in order to determine joint stability. This is a test utilized in some ankle injuries.

Stretching – Any therapeutic maneuver designed to elongate shortened soft tissue structures and thereby increase flexibility.

Subluxation – Partial dislocation of a joint. The term usually implies that the joint can return to its normal position without formal reduction.

Talus – The ankle bone that articulates with the tibia and fibula to form the ankle joint.

Target Heart Rate – A pre-determined pulse to be obtained during exercise when circulation is working at full efficient capacities.

Tarsals – Group of seven bones of the foot consisting of the calcaneus, talus, cuboid and three cuneiform bones.

Temporomandibular Joint (TMJ) - The articulation of the jaw and skull; considered by some to be vital in resolution of injuries throughout the body.

Tendinitis – Inflammation of the tendon and/or tendon sheath, caused by chronic overuse or sudden injury.

Tendon – Tissue that connects muscle to bone.

Tennis Elbow – General term for lateral elbow pain.

Thoracic – Group of twelve vertebrae located in the thorax and articulate with the twelve ribs.

Thoracic Outlet Compression Syndrome – A neuro-vascular disorder of the upper extremity common in throwing.

Tibia – Larger of the two bones of the lower leg and is the weight-bearing bone of the shin.

Tomograph – A special type of X-ray apparatus that demonstrates an organ or tissue at a particular depth.

Trachea – The windpipe.

Transcutaneous Electrical Nerve Stimulator (TENS) – An electrical modality that sends a mild current through pads at the injury site which stimulates the brain to release the natural analgesic, endorphin.

Transverse Process – Small lateral projection off the right side and left side of each vertebrae that functions as an attachment site for muscles and ligaments of the spine.

Trapezius – Flat triangular muscle covering the posterior surface of the neck and shoulder.

Triceps – Muscle of the back of the upper arm. primarily responsible for extending the elbow.

Ulna – Forearm bone that runs from the tip of the elbow to the little finger side of the wrist.

Ulnar Nerve – Nerve in elbow commonly irritated from excessive throwing.

Ultrasound – An electrical modality that transmits a sound wave through an applicator into the skin to the soft tissue in order to heat the local area for relaxing the injured tissue and/or disperse edema.

Valgus – Angulation outward and away from the midline of the body.

Varus – Angulation inward and toward the midline of the body.

Vasoconstriction – Decrease of local blood flow.

Vasodilation – Increase of local blood flow.

"Wind Knocked Out" – Syndrome describing a contraction of the abdominal nerve trunk, the solar plexus, as a result of an abdominal contusion.

Wrist – The junction between the two forearm bones (radius and ulna) and the eight wrist bones (trapezium, trapezoid, capitate, hamate, pisiform, triquetrum, lunate and scaphoid).

Zygoma – The cheekbone.

KEITH BYARS

Running Back
Born: 10/14/63
College: Ohio State '86
Acquired: UFA (Phi.), 1993
NFL: Eighth Season
Dolphins: First Season

PRO: 1992 – Signed by Dolphins as unrestricted free agent from Philadelphia Eagles on July 15, 1993 . . . Started 15 regular season games and both playoff contests for Eagles in 1992 . . . Finished with 56 catches for 502 yards (9.0 avg.) with a long of 46 yards and two scores . . . Added 41 rushes for 176 yards (4.3 avg.) with a long of 23 yards and one score . . . Ranked second on team in receptions and third in receiving yards . . . Has recorded five consecutive seasons with 50 or more catches . . . Enters '93 season by having caught a pass in 87 consecutive regular season games with the last time that he was held without a reception coming on October 25, 1987, vs. Dallas . . . Opened season as starter at running back before being moved to tight end for final six games of season . . . Caught 24 passes for 266 yards and two scores in six games at tight end as Eagles went 5-1 to close year . . . Earned game ball with six catches for 60 yards in season opener vs. New Orleans (9/6) . . . Rushed nine times for 31 yards and caught six passes for 36 yards vs. Denver (9/20) . . . Grabbed six passes for 57 yards and rushed six times for 68 yards at Washington (10/18) . . . Broke two metatarsal bones in right hand in Washington contest . . . Missed Phoenix contest (10/25) due to hand injury . . . Caught a pair of passes for 51 yards with a 38-yard score in first start at tight end at N.Y. Giants (11/22) . . . Grabbed five passes for season-high 93 yards with a long of 46 yards at Seattle (12/13) . . . Paced club with six grabs for 41 yards with two key third down conversions vs. Washington (12/20) . . . Started at tight end in playoff contest at New Orleans and caught six passes for 37 yards . . . Started at tight end in Divisional Playoff game at Dallas and registered three grabs for 31 yards.

AMONG RECEIVING LEADERS: Byars ranks among the top active receivers in the league . . . Has posted career totals of 371 catches for 3,532 yards and 13 touchdowns during his seven NFL seasons . . . Has caught 50 or more passes during each of last five seasons and joins Seattle's John L. Williams as only NFL running backs to have active streaks of five seasons with 50 or more catches . . . Byars' career total of 371 catches ranks second among active Dolphin players behind only Mark Duper (511 catches) . . . His 371 career catches ranks fifth and his 3,532 receiving yards ranks fourth in the NFL among active running backs:

1991 – Started all 16 regular season games . . . Recorded 94 carries for 383 yards (4.1 avg.) with a long of 28 yards and one score while also posting 62 receptions for 564 yards (9.1 avg.) with a long of 37 yards and three scores . . . Attempted two passes without a completion . . . Tied for team lead in receptions and ranked third in receiving yards and touchdown catches . . . Ranked second on team in rushing yards and total yards from scrimmage . . . Led all NFC running backs in receptions and finished tied for first among NFL running backs (with Buffalo's Thurman Thomas) . . . Was named by Philadelphia Sports Writers as the team's Humanitarian of the Year . . . Had season-high eight catches for 111 yards with a touchdown and added four rushes for 11 yards in season-opener at Green Bay (9/1) . . . Had two catches for eight yards and a TD at Dallas (9/15) . . . Caught four passes for 81 yards with a long of 37 yards and had eight carries for 22 yards vs. Pittsburgh (9/22) . . . Had four receptions for 55 yards with a long of 21 yards and a score vs. San Francisco (10/27) . . . Registered ten rushes for 39 yards vs. N.Y. Giants (11/4) . . . Caught six passes for 72 yards vs. Cincinnati (11/17) . . . Scored only rushing touchdown of season while adding six rushes for 39 yards at Phoenix (11/24) . . . Had 23 catches during last four games of season . . . Recorded seven receptions for 19 yards with a long of seven yards at Houston (12/2) . . . Grabbed six passes for 51 yards and added 12 carries for 65 yards at N.Y. Giants (12/8) . . . Had 11 rushes for season-high 76 yards with a long of 28 yards and added five receptions for 24 yards vs. Dallas (12/15) . . . Closed season with five catches for 31 yards vs. Washington (12/22).

1990 – Had exceptional all-around season . . . Played in all 16 regular season games with 15 starts and started playoff contest . . . Finished season with 81 catches for 819 yards (10.1 avg.) with a long of 54 yards and three scores . . . Added 141 rushing yards on 37 carries (3.8 avg.) with a long of 23 yards . . . Completed all four of his pass attempts for 53 yards and four touchdowns . . . Accounted for over 1,000 yards of total offense for third straight season (1,013 total yards on 819 receiving, 141 rushing and 53 passing) . . . His total of 81 receptions led all NFL running backs and ranked third among all players behind only San Francisco's Jerry Rice (100) and Atlanta's Andre Rison (82) . . . Tied Eagles' all-time single-season reception record with current Dolphin teammate Keith Jackson (1988) . . . Named first-team All-NFL by Sports Illustrated, second-team All-NFC by UPI and was also named to the All-Madden team by CBS-TV announcer John Madden . . . Opened season with seven catches for 60 yards and also threw an 18-yard touchdown pass to Anthony Toney at N.Y. Giants (9/9) . . . Had career highs with 12 receptions for 133 yards vs. Indianapolis (9/30) in a game that was preceded by Byars' wife Margaret's singing of the national anthem . . . Registered eight catches for 89 yards vs. Minnesota (10/15) . . . Recorded five grabs for 51 yards at Washington (10/21) . . . Rushed for 26 yards and two carries with a season-long of 23 yards and had one catch for ten yards vs. New England (11/4) . . . Threw a nine-yard touchdown pass to Heath Sherman and caught two passes for 24 yards vs. Washington (11/12) . . . Posted seven receptions for 78 yards at Atlanta (11/18) . . . Caught eight passes for 128 yards with a long of 54 yards vs. N.Y. Giants (11/25) . . . Had five catches for 39 yards with a score at Buffalo (12/2) . . . Caught six passes for 42 yards with a TD at Miami (12/9) . . . Became only NFL player in 1990 to throw and catch a TD pass in same game as he posted 26 yards on a pair of catches and a score and added an eight-yard touchdown pass to Tony vs. Green Bay (12/16) . . . Tossed an 18-yard TD pass to Calvin Williams, had a season-high six carries for 27 yards and added three catches for 21 yards vs. Dallas (12/23) . . . Closed regular season with five receptions for 40 yards at Phoenix (12/29) . . . Had two receptions for 18 yards in playoff contest vs. Washington.

1989 – Played in all 16 regular season games with 15 starts and started playoff contest . . . Caught 68 passes for 721 yards (10.6 avg.) . . . Rushed for 452 yards on 133 carries (3.4 avg.) with five touchdowns . . . Topped all NFL running backs in receiving yards and ranked 17th in league among all players . . . His 68 receptions ranked second in NFL among running backs behind San Francisco's Tom Rathman (73) . . . Led team in receptions, receiving yards, total yards from scrimmage (1,173) and rushing touchdowns . . . Caught eight passes for 130 yards with a long of 31 yards at Washington (9/17) . . . Had season-high ten receptions for 87 yards at Chicago (10/2) . . . Rushed for 41 yards on 11 carries and added three catches for 16 yards vs. N.Y. Giants (10/8) . . . Had season highs with 23 carries for 93 yards and a pair of scores and added three receptions for 22 yards at Denver (10/29) . . . Caught six passes for 48 yards vs. Minnesota (11/19) . . . Grabbed eight passes for 90 yards and added 11 carries for 35 yards at Dallas (11/23) . . . Registered six receptions for 42 yards vs. Dallas (12/10) . . . Had six catches for 109 yards with a long of 60 yards at New Orleans (12/18) . . . Closed regular season with three grabs for 17 yards and suffered bruised ribs vs. Phoenix (12/24) . . . Started contest but saw limited action in playoff game against L.A. Rams due to rib injury and managed to catch nine passes for 68 yards.

1988 – Started all 16 regular season games and one playoff contest . . . Finished with 72 receptions for 705 yards (9.8 avg.) with a long of 37 yards and four TDs . . . Had 152 carries for 517 yards (3.4 avg.) with a long of 52 yards and six scores . . . Attempted two passes with no completions . . . Ranked second on team in receptions and receiving yards and led team in total offense with 1,222 total yards from scrimmage . . . His 72 receptions ranked seventh in the NFL and trailed only San Francisco's Roger Craig (76) among running backs . . . Gained 82 rushing yards on 18 carries and caught four passes for 32 yards vs. Houston (10/2) . . . Registered nine receptions for 77 yards and a score rushed seven times for 13 yards vs. N.Y. Giants (11/10) . . . Caught seven passes for 50 yards at Cleveland (10/16) . . . Recorded seven grabs for 82 yards and eight rushes for 16 yards at N.Y. Giants (11/20) . . . Grabbed six passes for 62 yards and a score rushed 12 times for 65 yards vs. Washington (12/4) . . . Had season-high 140 yards of total offense (12 carries for 86 rushing yards and a score and 54 receiving yards on five catches) at Phoenix (12/10) . . . Caught nine passes for 103 yards and added seven carries for 34 yards in playoff contest at Chicago (12/31).

1987 – Played in 10 games with eight starts . . . Rushed 116 times for 426 yards (3.7 avg.) with three scores . . . Had 21 catches for 177 yards and a score . . . Suffered break to fifth metatarsal bone in left foot on May 2 during passing drill in mini camp . . . Injury was identical to one suffered by Byars to right foot as senior in college in 1985 . . . Underwent surgery on May 6 by Dr. Jack Hughston of Hughston Sports Medicine Hospital in Columbus, Ga., as piece of bone was grafted from hip to fracture site . . . Did not begin to practice until August 31 . . . Missed entire preseason and opener . . . Saw limited playing time in Week 2 contest vs. New Orleans . . . Made first start vs. Dallas (10/25) in first post-strike game and responded with 20 carries for 94 yards and a score . . . Started five straight games . . . Was relegated to reserve duty for two games before resuming starting role for final three games . . . Caught seven passes for 41 yards vs. Miami (12/13) . . . Had season-long 30-yard reception vs. Buffalo (12/27).

1986 – Played in all 16 games with eight starts as rookie . . . Rushed for 577 yards on 177 carries and a score and added 11 receptions for 44 yards . . . Set club's all-time single-season rookie rushing record . . . Missed most of training camp due to broken right foot suffered as senior in college . . . Part of his rehab was working in Eagles' Aqua Ark, a six-foot water tank where he was strapped to the side by buoyant ropes and could run without touching bottom . . . Made NFL debut vs. Washington (9/7) and posted two carries for two yards and one reception for four yards . . . Started at tailback in weeks two through six . . . Had 78 rushing yards on 17 carries and threw 55-yard touchdown pass to Mike Quick vs. L.A. Rams (9/28) . . . Led team in rushing with 18 carries for 54 yards at Atlanta (10/5) . . . Scored first NFL touchdown on two-yard run vs. San Diego (10/26) . . . Rushed 16 times for 57 yards and caught three passes for one yard vs. Detroit (11/16) . . . Received game ball for rushing

24 times for 127 yards at St. Louis (12/7) . . . Had 41 rushing yards on 14 carries at Dallas (12/14) . . . Closed season with team-leading 57 yards on 16 carries vs. Washington (12/21) . . . First-round draft choice (10th overall) of Philadelphia in 1986.

COLLEGE: Four-year letterman and three-year starter at Ohio State . . . Left school as second leading rusher in Buckeye history behind only two-time Heisman Trophy winner Archie Griffin . . . Gained 3,200 yards on 619 carries and scored a total of 50 touchdowns (46 rushing, three receiving and one on a kickoff return) . . . Had 17 games with 100 rushing yards . . . Rushed 52 times for 213 rushing yards and four scores as senior before suffering foot injury in practice . . . Was consensus All-American, Big-10 MVP and Heisman Trophy runner-up (to Boston College's Doug Flutie) as junior . . . Led nation in rushing (1,764 yards), scoring (24 TDs) and all-purpose yards (2,441 yards) . . . Also led Buckeyes in receiving with 42 catches for 479 yards . . . Had exceptional game vs. Illinois as Ohio State overcame a 24-0 deficit to win 45-38 in game in which Byars gained 274 yards and five touchdowns (both OSU record), including a 67-yarder when he reversed field and ran most of the way after losing shoe . . . Led Big-10 in rushing as sophomore with 222 carries for 1,999 yards and 20 scores . . . Added 23 receptions for 359 yards and a touchdown . . . Majored in social work.

PERSONAL: Married to Margaret, couple resides in Voorhees, N.J., with child, Taylor Renay (4/19/92) . . . Wife is an accomplished gospel singer and sang national anthem before two Eagles' games and recorded an album entitled "Over and Over" in which Byars and current Dolphin teammate Keith Jackson sing background . . . Named 1991 Humanitarian of the Year by Philadelphia Sports Writers Association . . . Earned community service award in 1991 from the Big Brothers/Big Sisters of Philadelphia . . . Has teamed with San Diego Charger defensive back Martin Bayless to host free football camp for youths in hometown of Dayton, Ohio . . . Attended Roth High School in Dayton, Ohio . . . Rushed for 1,701 yards as senior . . . Started at forward for two straight state championship basketball teams and had near .500 batting average as a center fielder . . . Was the youngest player ever re-invited to a Cincinnati Reds' tryout camp . . . Enjoys bowling, the theater and gospel music . . . Is a big fan of Patti LaBelle and once joined her onstage at the Ohio State Fair . . . Full name is Keith Byars, born October 14, 1963, in Dayton, Ohio.
